EMINENT LAWYER TO DEFEND MOB VICTIMS

EMINENT CRIMINAL LAWYER TO BE DETAINED TO DEFEND VICTIMS OF DETROIT MOB

National Association For The Advancement of Colored People To Help Defend Dr. Sweet

(N. A. A. C. P. Press)
New York, N. Y., Oct. 1.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth A. today announced that negotiations are under way with an eminent white lawyer, one of the greatest criminal authorities in the State of Michigan, whom it is hoped to retain for the defense of Dr. O. H. Sweet and the ten other people accused of the murder of members of a mob, for defending Dr. Sweet's home from the mob.

The defense of Dr. Sweet, his wife, his two brothers and seven other colored people has been entrusted to the N. A. A. C. P. and no pains will be spared in behalf of these eleven people, now held on charges of murder.

The N. A. A. C. P. reports dispatches from Detroit to the effect that all the defendants appeared before Judge Faust on Tuesday, Sept. 22nd, when effort was made to have them released under bail. Judge Faust declined to admit bail for any of the defendants and ordered their imprisonment to be continued. An additional hearing on the question of bail, this time before another Judge, will be held on Saturday, Sept. 26.

In connection with the case, Walter White, Assistant Secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., made the following statement:

"The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People regards the case of Dr. Sweet and his co-defendants as one of the most important it has ever attempted to defend. These people in defending Dr. Sweet's home are standing for the right of the Negro to choose where he shall make his home and to live there unmolested. We can expect such cases to increase until the U. S. Supreme Court in Washington, in the case now carried there by the N. A. A. C. P., determines the right of the Negro to fix his home exactly as do all other American citizens."

SEARCH OF PASTOR'S HOME IS INVESTIGATED

Senator Pepper Asks Inquiry Into Alleged Invasion In Liquor Hunt

NO WARRANT IS CHARGE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—At the request of Senator George W. Pepper, of Pennsylvania, Commissioner Frederick A. Fenning has started an inquiry into the circumstances surrounding police entry Monday night of the home of the Rev. William Underwood of S. E. Street, S. W.

The Reverend Mr. Underwood, who is a messenger in the Senator's office here has served three other Pennsylvania Penitentiaries, including the late Senator Penrose, in the same capacity. Mr. Underwood charges the police without reason and without a warrant searched his home from top to bottom for John Williams, charged with the possession of liquor. Capt. Guy S. Burlingame, who led the squad into the home denied last night that he had made the search without a warrant.

Mr. Underwood charged that the police abruptly entered his home and when asked for a warrant flashed badges, saying that they did not need a warrant. Mr. Underwood denied that he is even acquainted with Williams.

RACE SCHOOL PROJECTS AID BY PHILANTHROPY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—Twenty thousand, nine hundred and forty colored schools, having a total value of $12,400,000, now dot the southern states as monuments of the good will of northern philanthropists, chief among whom is James Rosenwald, the wealthy Chicago donor, who takes special delight in advancing the educational facilities open to the struggling colored youth of that part of the country in which educational needs are the greatest. When it is considered that illiteracy among the colored people in Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Mississippi is showing a slow but steady decline, due credit must be given to those persons who realize that ignorance of any race is a menace to the Nation.

The schools which have received the greatest aid are rural colored schools. Under the Rosenwald plan and similar ones, each school has at least two acres of land as a site, providing playgrounds and room for some elementary work in agriculture. Each has, in addition to its school rooms and cloak rooms, one or two rooms for industrial work, for boys and girls. Each school building is constructed from carefully prepared plans embodying the most modern ideas regarding lighting and seating. Each is co-operative or constructed work is carried on during a budget year running from July 1, to June 30. The cooperating states: Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky. All applications are approved by the state department of education in each instance. Under its auspices also all outlays are supervised, the budget, year after year, being closed by the final inspection is made. In this way the construction is carried on under the best educational auspices and with absolute assurance of intelligent, honest workmanship. The budget, year after year, is an interesting one, in many ways. At an outlay of $2,600,000, five hundred twenty projects were completed. Of these, 487 were new buildings.

The types of construction during the year was fairly typical of what has been done under recent budgets. There were 78 projects which cost less than $2,000. There were six which cost between $40,000 and $50,000. Grading by thousand dollars, there were 31 costing between $2,000 and $3,000; 121 between $3,000 and $4,000; 61 between $4,000 and $5,000; 87 between $5,000 and $10,000; 24 between $10,000 and $20,000; 12 between $20,000 and $40,000. The two Carolinas, where the new educational movement is most active and aggressive, were the leaders. North Carolina building 86 schools, and South Carolina building 79. Mississippi was the runner-up, with 69, where close-mouthed enthusiasm in Texas, also, where 54 structures were added to the rapidly growing list of hat expansive Commonwealth. The general summary shows that since the movement began in 1914, under the stimulus of aid now totaling $2,200,000, there have been 2,940 buildings erected, with a teacher capacity of 7,474, and a pupil capacity of 333,180. This progress bespeaks the telling forces which are being steadily aimed to reduce illiteracy among colored children to a minimum in those sections in which it has been heretofore permitted to thrive, menacing national advancement, and holding back a people whom the Constitution guarantees the full and equal benefits of the public schools.

The burning of a Negro at stake by a mob yesterday in Mississippi constitutes the thirteenth lynching this year. This case of savage ferocity, inexcusable regardless of the guilt or innocence of the victim, brings forward the cry necessary for federal action to stamp out the shame which blackens the name of America before the civilized world. We respectfully urge you to bring this question before Congress when it next assembles and that you reiterate your recommendation that the effective Congressional action."

On the following day, Sept. 22, the N. A. A. C. P. sent another telegram to President Coolidge as follows:

"Supplementing my telegram of yesterday reporting the burning alive of a Negro in Mississippi, I desire to call to your attention newspaper dispatches of today, recounting the murder by a mob in Georgia of an insane colored man, taken from the State Hospital and the nurse, charged with murder of a nurse in the asylum. This constitutes the thirteenth lynching in 1925 as against 12 for a corresponding period in 1924. May we again urge a recommendation from you to Congress asking suppression of these uncivilized atrocities."

In reply to the first telegram, the President's secretary wrote:

"Your telegram of Sept. 21st has been received and very promptly laid before the President."

MORE FARMERS USING RADIO

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—More than 550,000 farms in the United States are now equipped with radio, the Department of Agriculture estimates, following a nationwide survey thru county agricultural agents. A similar survey last year showed 365,000 farms on which there were radio sets. The rapid increase is due to the need of the prompt market information, to the educational value of radio and to its entertainment feature.

N. A. A. C. P. SECRETARY ASKED TO ADDRESS FEDERATED BOSTON CHURCHES

New York, N. Y., Sept. 30.—James Weldon Johnson, New York City, Sec. of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has been invited to address the Greater Boston Federation of Churches and Religious Organizations, it was announced today.

His address on "American Democracy and the Negro," will be delivered on Thursday, Oct. 22nd, in the historic Old South Meeting House of Boston.

New York, Sept. 30. The fight on residential segregation is spreading throughout the North according to reports received and published today by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth Avenue. Recently there was a small riot in Philadelphia, and now Harry E. Davis, member of the Ohio Legislature, has introduced a C. C. P. Board of Directors, forwards a report showing that organizations have been formed in Cleveland to debar Colored people from a white residential district.

The fight in Cleveland is being made to bar Dr. C. H. Garvin, a colored physician from occupying a house he is having built on Wade Park Avenue.

Two hundred white property owners recently held a meeting and formed an organization. At the meeting white neighbors of Dr. Garvin protested against his occupancy of the house he was having built.

One white attorney, Frank F. Genesch, of 1104 Wade Park Avenue, North East near Dr. Garvin's property, is reported to have said to G. W. Willis, a colored man present at the meeting: "I want you to know that you will never live in the Wade allotment. Furthermore, you can say to Dr. Garvin that he will never live in the house that he is building on Wade Park Avenue."

Dr. Garvin is reported to have said in a press review that he was not trying to speculate in real estate but that he was building a home in which he intended to live and that the property was not for sale at any price.

For Sale—Two, six-room houses 556 Williams Ave., six-room house 2040 S. Fifth Ave.

ARROW TIPS

(By Kits Reid)

My political soul is in danger, how can it be kept intelligent when it is not fed properly? When I read my Oregon Bible yesterday morning, I searched in vain for some reference to the letters which passed between the many heads and Landdowne, Commander of the ill-fated Shenandoah, who with 13 others, lost his life because he had been ordered to take his air-ship out when he knew it meant almost certain death. I wonder if they have ever been published—the chapter seems to be gone out of my book. I was on the point of calling up the High Priest in his tower on 6th & Alder, but thought me of the rank treasurer such a question would indicate. The Journal of Sept. 30th published them, but of course until I find them in the Oregon Bible I do not know what to think about them.

However — — — I'll bet two cents that if certain navy officials could prescribe the punishment of Col. Mitchell, in case of court martial, they would boil him in oil!

Oh dear, oh dear, again is my political soul harrowed—and the harrowing is shared by my pacifist Soul! My Bible (Oregon) does not tell me why it cost the U. S. government $10,147,886 to keep the army in the Philippines last year—just that amount paid out in the islands. With supplies and other materials, Uncle Sam probably paid out about $20,000,000. I have looked through my Sacred Book in vain to find out the why of such an enormous expenditure—and am restless and unhappy because I dare not comment until I am told what to think of it. But let me whisper what I think it all means. We must continue our benevolent assimilation of the islands because eventually we will also assimilate the rubber supply. Is it a good guess?

Now children to resume our literature lesson. Last week's chapter was devoted to the recital of the troubles the Army and Navy are having with that awful Col. Mitchell. History tells us that no one in enlisted service is supposed to have any thoughts except those of his commanding officer. This Mitchell man had been demoted once for daring to think and to talk as his own thoughts and convictions. But one demotion doesn't have any effect and he is again relieved from service and is now in Washington scaring the navy officials half to death. He is having a perfectly beautiful time telling the truth and nothing but the truth about what the higher-ups do not know about air. It is most embarrassing, children, and I hope you realize fully the significance of the situation. All of this agitation will be of use in inflaming peoples minds as to the necessity for heavier expenditures in preparedness.

What a blow to standpat Republicans—that young Bob LaFollette should be as skillful a vote-getter as his father! What do you suppose the Senate will do to such a young upstart! Dismiss him? Occur or first, last and all the time! How do you suppose HellinMaria Dames will get along with him? I rather suspect he will need a new kind of tobacco for that famous pipe. Wouldn't I like to be in Washington during the coming session. What with Coolidge as nervous as a pussy-cat when Congress is in session; with Daves hammering away at the Senate rules; with young LaFollette denouncing the sacred principle of reciprocity; with the muck-throwing standstill sentiment protecting our constitutional rights and proclaiming our duties as a world power—there will be some interesting doings. In the meantime, let's watch the President playing with the Shipping Board—the Interstate Commerce Commission, forgetting that it was organized to protect the peoples rights; the railroads gathering riches thru mergers; Rockefeller reducing wages in the Colorado coal fields; the coal strike in the East; the Secretary of State of the fire in forbidding a member of Parliament whose thoughts have a crimson hue, to come into this country—oh, we have plenty to keep us thinking hard without going to Washington, and if none of the above are sufficient unto the day, we can entertain ourselves watching Johnny Mann and Hon. George Wickersham in the county chair race. And that reminds me that if I have time I shall say something next week to Mr. Bigelow about the public market. I must not forget that—it has been on my conscience for a long time.

White And Colored Methodist Of Epworth Leaguers Of The South

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 23.—The opening last week of the forty-second annual session of Paine College in this city was marked by the dedication of a handsome and commodious men's dormitory, erected for the school by the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The $55,000 expended in the erection of the building was contributed for this purpose by the Epworth League young people of the Southern Methodist Church and the building is called Epworth Hall in their honor. Bishop R. S. Williams of the Colored Methodist Church and Dr. E. B. Campbell, Sunday School Secretary of the M. E. Church, South, were the principal speakers at the dedication, which was attended by a number of distinguished representatives of the two denominations.

Epworth Hall is a companion to Bennett Hall, a girl's dormitory erected some years ago by the missionary women of the M. E. Church, South, and recently remodelled at a cost of $15,000. The same group is erecting at the present a building to house the departments of economics and domestic science, which will cost approximately $45,000. Dr. W. F. Perry, Secretary of the Board of Missions of the M. E. Church, South, is also working on plans for a new science building to cost $75,000. Other building extensions now contemplated include a library, cost $100,000. Dr. W. F. Perry, Secretary of the Board of Missions of the M. E. Church, South, is also working on plans for a new science building to cost $75,000. Other building extensions now contemplated include a library, cost $100,000. Dr. W. F. Perry, Secretary of the Board of Missions of the M. E. Church, South, is also working on plans for a new science building to cost $75,000. Other building extensions now contemplated include a library, cost $100,000.

Paine College is a notable illustration of cooperation between white and Colored people of the South, being operated by the M. E. Church, South, and the C. M. E. Church, through a joint Board of Trust.

It has fitted hundreds of graduates for lives of honor and usefulness, many of them as preachers and teachers, or in other positions of leadership.

White And Colored Methodist Of Epworth Leaguers Of The South

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 23.—The opening last week of the forty-second annual session of Paine College in this city was marked by the dedication of a handsome and commodious men's dormitory, erected for the school by the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The $55,000 expended in the erection of the building was contributed for this purpose by the Epworth League young people of the Southern Methodist Church and the building is called Epworth Hall in their honor. Bishop R. S. Williams of the Colored Methodist Church and Dr. E. B. Campbell, Sunday School Secretary of the M. E. Church, South, were the principal speakers at the dedication, which was attended by a number of distinguished representatives of the two denominations.

Epworth Hall is a companion to Bennett Hall, a girl's dormitory erected some years ago by the missionary women of the M. E. Church, South, and recently remodelled at a cost of $15,000. The same group is erecting at the present a building to house the departments of economics and domestic science, which will cost approximately $45,000. Dr. W. F. Perry, Secretary of the Board of Missions of the M. E. Church, South, is also working on plans for a new science building to cost $75,000. Other building extensions now contemplated include a library, cost $100,000. Dr. W. F. Perry, Secretary of the Board of Missions of the M. E. Church, South, is also working on plans for a new science building to cost $75,000. Other building extensions now contemplated include a library, cost $100,000.

Paine College is a notable illustration of cooperation between white and Colored people of the South, being operated by the M. E. Church, South, and the C. M. E. Church, through a joint Board of Trust.

It has fitted hundreds of graduates for lives of honor and usefulness, many of them as preachers and teachers, or in other positions of leadership.

MOB OPERATES ON PORTERS

Jacksonville, Fla.—It is reported that one of the most brutal happenings ever recorded in the history of the county happened here last Thursday night when Isaac Bowens and Will Green, two hotel porters, who were incarcerated at
