CHECK THE WHITE PRESS

(From the Cleveland Herald, Sept. 19)
With increasing frequency the metropolitan press of the country proceeds to saddle crimes upon members of our race which, subsequent developments have proved, were committed by whites. This has not happened once, nor only in the south. It has happened many times, North and South.

Only a few months ago the New York press tried to fasten the brutal murder of the Kane girl on a Negro. A number of Colored men were arrested and held on charges of suspicion, for investigation. No evidence however, has as yet been uncovered to indicate that any of these men were guilty. More recent was the attempt to place the kidnapping and murder of little Mary Daly upon a Negro. A deed to which a wealthy white boy has since confessed.

And now comes the effort to identify Henry Horn, a Colored man, as the midnight murderer who terrorized the city of Nashville for two weeks. Although the murderer is claimed to have worn a mask, there are those who say they recognize Horn as the man. Horn insists that he is innocent.

WONDERING

Do you suppose a minister wonders as much over why he didn't get the wedding, when he had every reason to expect it, as the doctor wonders why he wasn't called, when the families had been lifelong friends? Do you suppose the doctor spends as much time wondering over why he wasn't called as the shoe dealer wonders why he didn't sell that certain pair of shoes? Do you suppose the shoe dealer wonders as much as the movie-man, who puts on a good show and has a slim crowd? But do you suppose even the movie-man wonders as much as I do, why some people don't pay their subscription to The Advocate?

Billy Sunday, the noted evangelist, who is holding a seven weeks meeting here, has done at least one thing. He has put Mayor Baker on the job of closing up gambling clubs.

For rent 6 room modern house, $16. per month. 853 Macadam. Adv.

Contact in the mixed schools by the children of both races is the surest road to friendly race relations. The K. K. K. and Southern white supremacy to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Daily Fashion Hint

FASHION CONSIDERS PRINTS

For the development of this afternoon toilette, fashion selects one of the new printed silks and uses plain satin for the trimming. The dress has a straight neckline at the back, the front being in round effect. The ends of the tie-string overlap in front, but are tied in back. Extensions at the side are shirred at the upper edge and allowed to hang free in panel effect. Medium size requires 2 3/4 yards 36-inch figured and 1 3/4 yard 27-inch plain material.
Pictorial Review Printed Pattern No. 2624. Sizes, 16 to 20 years and 34 to 44 inches bust. Price, 45 cents.

RACE PROBLEM SOLVERS

If character and sincerity of purpose were coupled with the education and the loud and vociferous protest against segregation and discrimination that is being made by some of the would-be leaders, parading as race problem solvers, a great good would result from their preaching. In many cases the conduct of some of these individuals is disgraceful, and the people who know it refuse to follow such leadership. To which we say, "Amen"

To Help Defend Dr. Sweet

New York, N. Y. Oct. 1.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth Ave. today announced that negotiations are under way with an eminent white lawyer, one of the greatest criminal authorities in the State of Michigan, whom it is hoped to retain for the defense of Dr. O. H. Sweet and the ten other people accused of the murder of members of a mob, for defending Dr. Sweet's home from the mob.

MARRIED IN TEXAS

S. E. Hill, a popular Pullman porter was quietly married to Miss Earnestine Lott in San Angelo, Texas, Sept. 23, a home of the bride's parent, Mr. and Mrs. Lott. On their return trip they visited for two days with Mr. and Mrs. Williams, El Paso, Tex., also with Mrs. Alice White, for two days in Los Angeles, and with Mr. and Mrs. Gosby in Bakerfield, Cal. The couple is domiciled at 285 Larrabee Street.

Mrs. Ada McGill sponsored a week-end house party at Sunflower Camp at Seaside, Oregon, last week. Two autos of guests enjoyed the novel entertainment.

News from Mrs. Tillie Mcgee tells us that she and her husband are located at 427 East Haley Street, Santa Barbara, Calif.

NOTICE

Regular meetings of the Portland Branch of the National Association for the advancement of Colored People held every second Monday evening at Bethel A. M. E. Church, Larrabee and McMillen streets.

COLORED MAN SAVES SEASIDE

When fire broke out in Seaside, Oregon's famous Summer Resort, a few days ago, and threatened to destroy a large part of the business section, it was G. O. Jackson, long time and highly respected colored citizen of Seaside who rushed from his bed in his night clothes and gave the alarm, which no doubt, saved many buildings and no doubt, lives.

This is not the first time that Jackson has performed a like deed in the city of Seaside. The paper published at that resort gave him several mentions which were highly deserved.

PORTERS CO-OPERATE WITH CITY COUNCIL

The promoters of the Pullman-Porter-Business and Social Club, which was duly incorporated by the state of Oregon, Aug. 25, 1925, consider the denial to them, license to operate the social aspect of the club by the City Council, a favor and blessing in disguise other things being equal, in that the denial prevents the reputation and good name of the Pullman Porter and all concerned from being placed in the category as sponsors of the most objectionable practice to the welfare of the social life of our city, as statements described. As promoters of said club, we are willing as honorable and hard working citizens to both wait and work with the Council until the social clean-up is consummated, and in the meantime we shall give attention to the business side of the club.

The above is the expression of the Pullman-Porter-Business and Social club to The Advocate.

AN EVENT

THE BOOK OF AMERICAN NEGRO SPIRITUALS

Edited with an Introduction by JAMES WELDON JOHNSON Secretary of the N. A. A. C. P.

Musical Arrangements by J. ROSAMOND JOHNSON

Additional numbers by Lawrence Brown

Here at last is the authoritative, permanent book of American Negro Spirituals compiled by the best Negro musicians and edited by a man who has made a life study of these songs.

The book contains the words and music of sixty-one spirituals, arranged for piano and voice without loss of any of their original quality. They can be played and sung just as the Negroes have been singing them for hundreds of years. "Deep River", "Joshua Fit de Battle ob Jericho", "Go Down Moses", "Stan' Still Jordan", "Lit'le David", "Swing Low Sweet Chariot", "Somebody's Knockin' at Yo' Do'", "Steal Away to Jesus", all the old favorites and many never before set down are in this book.

Walter White, Roland Hayes, Paul Robeson, Carl Van Vechten are just a few who will spread the news of this book all over the United States. In order to be sure to get a copy immediately, we advise you to fill out the coupon below and let us send your copy to you before the first edition is exhausted.
