THE CASE OF DOCTOR SWEET WHAT WILL YOU DO TO HELP?

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has always been found in the forefront in the defense of our race where unjust and unfair deals are given them, as in the case of Dr. O. H. Sweet of Detroit, Michigan who is being held, together with nine other colored men and Dr. Sweet's wife for defending Dr. Sweet's home against a mob of 2,000 white people a few weeks ago.

Every colored man and woman, no matter where they live must realize that this fight is their fight; that while they may live thousands of miles from Detroit, the same thing could take place here in Portland, Oregon.

For whatever the Supreme Court rules (if it goes that far, and it will be carried to the end) will effect us in every village, town and city in the U. S. Thinking people, black and white will do all in their power to help the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People win this case. Do we want our homes stoned, broken and bombed by mobs? Do we want to be afraid to allow our children to go upon the public streets? Do we want our men prevented from protecting their families and their homes? Do we want it so that a colored person is not safe in his home if there are those who do not want to enjoy it? Of course we do not. The only way to prevent such a condition here or any where else is to help the N. A. A. C. P. in its fight for justice in the Dr. Sweet case.

The Portland Branch of the N. A. A. C. P. is receiving donations to send to the National office in New York City. Clarence Darrow heads the list of well known Attorneys whom the National Association has retained for the defense. Let every one who believes in justice and fair play and in the right of a man to protect his home and family give something to help the cause. How much will you give? Following is a list of the donors to date: First A. M. E. Church, $31.15; Bethel A. M. E. Church, $15.15; Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, $23.60; K. of P. Lodge, $5.00; Dahlia Temple of Dr. Elks, $10.00; Rose City Lodge of Elks, $10.00; Excelsior Lodge of Masons, $10.00; G. V. Grayson, $1.00; E. D. Cannady, $1.00; W. A. Ewing, $1.00; W. C. Holliday, $1.00; Miss Margie Danley, $1.00; Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Cochrane, $1.00; Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull, $1.00; Total to date, $77.90.

Those who wish to make additional donations may do so through the following sources: Holliday Barbershop, 125 N. 6th St.; The Advocate Pub. Co. 312 Macleay Bldg.; G. V. Grayson, 971 E. 27th St.; J. A. Ewing, Pres., 6422-94th St.; S. E. L. C. Anderson, 1200 Union Ave., N. Sec.; Miss Margie Danley, Y. W. C. A., 274 Tillamook St.

NATIONAL FATHER AND SON MOVEMENT

A movement, organized in 1907 and fostered by the Y. M. C. A. co-operating with the homes, churches, schools, industries, government, fraternal and civic organizations throughout the entire world. Its purposes are to keep alive the very best in American life for the growing boy. To lead sons to deeper respect and appreciation for their fathers and for their homes. To lead both fathers and sons to recognize the church and Sunday School as necessary to the finest development of the character and support of the church in extending and making effective in every day life, the will of God. To advance the cause of world peace by creating among the fathers and sons of the world a spirit of Christian Brotherhood. "God hath made of one blood all races that dwell upon the earth."

The father and son idea has grown rapidly in the last few years and is now being observed, not alone in the large centers, but over the whole world and by all peoples. Since the close of the late world war men have decided to use the words of Harding: "There must be no next time."

Churches, fraternal and civic organizations are co-operating to make this a success in Portland. Several features have been planned which include the fourth annual Father and Son Jubilee, Tuesday, Nov. 10th at the Municipal Auditorium. Special sermons at local churches, Sunday, Nov. 8, and banquets on the night of Nov. 11th at which time speakers will deliver special addresses in keeping with the occasion, to fathers and sons and war veterans, are a part of the activities planned. Do your bit to help save our boys, the fathers of tomorrow.

The Advocate highly appreciates the character of news which its reporters send in, also the promptness of their reports. Special reports due our new Tacoma reporter, Mrs. W. H. Lewis; our Longview reporter, Mrs. Mand Bates, and last but not least, Mrs. Nannie Mand Carr our own city reporter.

A HEINOUS CRIME

Corra McKnight was a beautiful brown-skinned woman living in peace and a humble circumstance with her husband in Winnsboro, La. Her beauty aroused the lust of some white men in her neighborhood. They annoyed her. Then they drove her husband away. Then thinking that they had her at their mercy they forced her from her home, and then with no protection save her own sense of honor and her weak feminine strength lifted against the strength of several men made stronger by the surging passions of their lust—when she still resented their advances they wired her naked body to an Oak post and applied the torch, looked on while the flames devoured her body. Tell it not in Gath. The like of it does not occur in Germany whose "Heinous Atrocities" shocked us to sending millions of men over seas and land to put an end to "German Frivolousness." The like of it does not happen in any other civilized country on the face of the earth. And uncivilized lands can not beat it. America must wake up and put a stop to this "American frightfulness." It is hard to see how America, of all the nations of history, can escape the retroaction of all this barbarism. It is not a matter of races; it is a matter of national morality. It is not a matter now of state or federal jurisdiction; it is a matter of national honor.

Negro Newspapers would fain not speak of these things, but how can they hold their peace? The passions of men are dangerous and treacherous. Today the hoodlums burn colored women; tomorrow they will dare apply the torch to white women.

Let this government manifest its conscience and its power now. Let the majesty of the law arise and act. —The Leader. Many of our readers seem to labor under the impression that it costs us little or nothing to operate a newspaper. Some object to paying for anything they wish to insert in its columns. Some give parties; they pay the "fiddler"; they pay the decorator and they pay the caterer his bill, but when they want to tell the world how fine and how pretty every thing was, they call on the editor, the poorest of the bunch, for a free write-up. Ask yourself the question, "is it fair?" We cannot do it. We must have money to meet our bills every month, and it takes money, not good will, to pay our bills.

Wm. C. Mathews of Boston has been appointed a special assistant to the U. S. Attorney General and ordered to Lincoln, Neb., to assist in certain Federal prosecution cases there. It will be remembered that attorney Mathews was at the head of the Colored People's Division during the last Presidential campaign. This is the reward Mr. Mathews received, no doubt, for his faithful service to the G. O. P. But what about some permanent, better paying, jobs for the colored people, Mr. Attorney?

The Republican Ku Klux governor (Edward Jackson) of Indiana, has appointed what is believed to be a kluxer (Arthur Robinson, Republican) as the successor to the late Samuel M. Ralston, a Democratic U. S. Senator from that state. This, it is said, is proving more or less embarrassing a nation's capital and to all Republican U. S. Senators with the possible exception of J. or 2 who are tainted with the suspicion of being kluxers or klux-sympathizers. DARROW AND DR. SWEET

Never in his great and brilliant career has Clarence Darrow, the celebrated Chicago criminal attorney undertaken a more deserving cause than that of defending Dr. Sweet and nine of his friends who shot into a blood-thirsty Detroit mob a month ago. A gang of hoodlums like the Staten Island Klan outlaws sought to force Dr. Sweet and his family from their new home. He gave the invaders, trampling upon every right that man holds dear, fair warning. On the cowardly crowd of cutthroats came, Mr. Sweet defended himself. The story is simple. Detroit was taught a lesson, like Washington, Chicago and Atlanta. All black America is with Dr. Sweet and Clarence Darrow. —The New York News.

AGNOSTIC DEFENDS CHRIST PRINCIPLES

Since the World War, more Southern whites have gone North and to various parts of the country than Negroes. Wherever the white man has gone, he has carried and transplanted with him the seeds of hatred, lawless outbreaks from New York to California are due very largely to his persistence and industry in articulating his prejudices. The results are often tragical, and growing more so. Dr. Sweet, of Detroit, was defending his home against a murderous mob. Every red-blooded man would do the same. Somebody was killed in the attack upon the doctor's home. The doctor has been arrested and must defend his life in the Courts of this Christian country. Clarence Darrow, noted agnostic, great lawyer, will defend him on principle. The late Robert Ingersoll, sometimes called infidel, and agnostic, could not square our Christian precepts with our treatment of our brother in black. The church has a duty here which it can not ignore nor shift. Behold the agnostic defending a Christian principle! —Star of Zion.

What Do You Think Of THIS Colored Man?

Would you be willing to recognize him as a brother in the realms above?

The Pullman car Sirocco has had its name changed to Oscar J. Daniels. Just why and how is told in Senator Capper's Daily Capital.

The car Sirocco with a colored man named Oscar J. Daniels for porter, was the last car in a rear-end collision near New York City. The heavy Pullman was knocked from its tracks, many were injured. To make things worse, but steam was forced through the car, full of passengers struggling and fighting each other to escape from the death trap.

One individual kept his head; it was Oscar, the Negro porter. He worked his way through the struggling passengers and the burning steam, shut the car door and saved the lives of many passengers. But it cost Oscar J. Daniels his life.

He dashed from the car badly scalded, and died a little while afterward. When a doctor stooped over him as he lay on the ground he said, "I'm all right, only scalded a little. Go and look after that little girl moaning over there."

The doctor went, and when he got back Daniels was dead. Now the name of the unfortunately well known Sirocco is honored to Oscar J. Daniels.

You will admit that the honor done to the dead Negro is not excessive. You might even like to shake hands with him as you get to heaven, and congratulate him on his good fortune. Meanwhile, bear in mind the fact that there are many as loyal and as brave as Oscar J. Daniels among the colored men you see about you.

Let this government manifest its conscience and its power now. Let the majesty of the law arise and act. —The Leader. Many of our readers seem to labor under the impression that it costs us little or nothing to operate a newspaper. Some object to paying for anything they wish to insert in its columns. Some give parties; they pay the "fiddler"; they pay the decorator and they pay the caterer his bill, but when they want to tell the world how fine and how pretty every thing was, they call on the editor, the poorest of the bunch, for a free write-up. Ask yourself the question, "is it fair?" We cannot do it. We must have money to meet our bills every month, and it takes money, not good will, to pay our bills.

Royal African Speaks At Bethel Sunday

Prince Joseph Blayechetta, Descendant of King Solomon

There will be a royal speaker at Bethel A. M. E. church, Larabee and McMillan Sts., Sunday morning, tomorrow, at 11 o'clock. Prince Joseph Blayechetta, a lineal descendant of King Solomon. Eighteen years ago, the prince was the ruler of a heather tribe in the wilds of Abyssinia, when he came under the influence of missionaries and was converted to Christianity. He at once began preparation for a Christian work among his people, and was educated at a mission school, and later went to England where he graduated from Oxford. He then returned to his native land and was engaged in Christian work among his people when the world war broke out, and he became an officer in the English army. He served under General Allenby in Africa and was with him when the English troops made the steady march to victory, leading to the conquest of Palestine. He was present at the memorable scene when the Turks surrendered that city to Gen. Allenby, and when the English soldiers with uncovered heads entered the sacred city.

Following the war he returned to his people who hail him as a great liberator and benefactor. He is now touring the United States to acquaint America with the great needs and opportunities of Northern Africa. His sermons and lectures all bear a vital message to the people of this country, and he is received with enthusiasm by churches of all denominations.

Prince and Princess Blayechetta are domiciled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Flowers on East First St. They will no doubt remain in the city for several weeks. The Princess is an accomplished pianist.
