FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Rev. John F. Moreland, pastor.

Sunday morning the pastor spoke from the subject "Spiritual Meditation," the text used was "My Meditation is to be well on any thing in thought, to study upon a thing deliberately and continuously, to muse, to reflect, to think. All great men get results this way. Newton, Kepler, Agassiz in science, Robert Hall, Baxter and Bunyan in religion.

One of the special reasons for the lack of meditation is the tremendous rush and hurry of modern life. We must learn to get close to the master through meditation for it blesses us in many ways. It re-kindles love, both for earthly friends and for God. It leads to consecration. Then we get joy and power, we have but little of either until we come in close touch with the Great Being that supplies all joy and power.

The subject for the night sermon was "To Every Man His Work," the text "For the son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house and gave authority to his servants and to every man his work." Mark 13:37. He said "There is work for all to do." Direct all energies on one object and the churches will leap forward with sudden and mighty victorious strides toward the Millennium Glory. This activity so desirable for the whole church, proves also the greatest benefit to the individual Christian.

Next Sunday the pastor will speak at both services. Come and bring a friend. You will find a warm welcome at Zion. Watch for our big bazaar. Special Thanksgiving services 11:00 a. m. Thanksgiving day.

JUNIOR MISSIONARY SOCIETY STARS IN PLAY

(By Genevieve Mullen)

The comedy play given by the Junior Missionary Society of the Mt. Olivet Baptist church Wednesday night, Nov. 11, entitled "The Church Bazaar at Mulberry Corner" was a splendid success. Misses Doretha Williams and Geneva Ivey were head of the play, and each little participant's role was arranged to suit his or her fancy. The monologue by Misses Geraldine Williams and Caroline Shepard was a scream. Al Jolson has nothing on these two little comedians when it comes to cracking jokes. Master Horace Williams played his part well, trying to get a lower price on all goods he attempted to buy, in fact each little one played their part very well. These little workers have pledged a gift of $100 in the rally and so far has raised $70 of it. Their next play will be Thursday night the 24th. Come and help them. Admission free.

MAN AND WIFE ARE ONE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12, 1925. The old common law theory that a man and wife are one and that property held in their joint names is owned by "one person" was upheld by a recent ruling of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

The court sustained the ruling by the lower court that the husband could not force, with the aid of the law, the consent of his wife from whom he was living apart, to the sale of a home once occupied by them and which is held jointly in their names.

ETHIOPIA HAS PERMANENT CAPITAL

Washington, D. C., November 12.—For generations the Capital of Abyssinia or Ethiopia, has been merely a temporary home for the king, who found it necessary, for military purposes, to locate his court in a mountainous region. A rambling village sprang up around it and all was well until the wood in the vicinity was exhausted, whereupon the court and its followers moved to a new location.

Addis Abeba, the principal town, has been the capital for some time, and promises to be a permanent one, for the reason that foreigners were attracted to the place and made some improvements of a permanent nature. When the last movement of the capital was proposed, such a great protest was heard against leaving these modern conveniences that the Court decided to stay.

GIRL VIOLATES JIM CROW LAW IS SENT TO JAIL

Charlotte, N. C.—Because she insisted on sitting in the front of a street car, violating the well known Jim Crow code, Miss Marie Cochman a young race girl was arraigned in police court on Wednesday, Nov. 7, and sentenced to five days in jail for her offense. The verdict provided that if Miss Cochman paid a fine of $5 and cost within 10 days she will not have to serve her sentence.

P.)—Washington Johnson, one of the founders of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and one of the organizers of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, well and favorably known as a prominent colored citizen died and was buried in Greenville, Mississippi, October 28th.

The Christian Century, one of the leading inter-denominational religious weeklies of America prints in the issue of November 5, an article on Negro literature by Alexander L. Jackson, an editor of the Chicago Defender. Under the caption "As the Negro Sees Himself," Mr. Jackson writes of the Negro's effort to interpret himself aright to white America that has resulted in the marked growth of Negro newspapers and magazines in the last fifteen years, and also mentions the wealth of fiction and poetry now coming from Negro pens in America.

EDITOR AND MRS. CANNADY ENTERTAIN AT LARGE TEA

(By Mrs. Alice M. Handsaker)

The home of editor and Mrs. E. D. Cannady in Irvington was the scene of a large gathering on Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Cannady entertained with an informal tea honoring Prince and Princess J. E. Blaychettai of Tigré, Abyssinia, East Africa; Mr. D. Banton of Los Angeles, Calif., the brother of the Princess; Mrs. L. H. Preston of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Ida E. Finch of Japan and Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Moreland, newly arrived pastor of Zion A. M. E. church.

The exquisitely appointed tea table was presided over by Mesdames Millie R. Trumbull, L. A. Ashford and J. W. Latimer. The flowers both for the table and the rooms were provided by Mrs. W. L. Reese, Mrs. Trumbull and Miss Gwendolen Hooker, the color scheme being red and pale yellow.

The hosts were assisted in receiving by Misses Mabel Chin Quong and Nellie Franklin.

During the afternoon a fine musical program was enjoyed. Those giving vocal numbers were Mesdames Mabel Cooper and Zepha Baker with Misses Nellie Franklin and Nellie Allen as accompanists. Violin numbers were played by Mr. J. D. Banton and Ivan Cannady with Mrs. Nellie Allen at the piano and by Miss El Rae Maxwell of Salem, Oregon, with Miss Nellie Franklin at the piano. Mesdames M. D. Campbell and the hostess sang a duet with the latter at the piano. The Prince and Princess also played and sang. The Princess is a finished pianist and also the possessor of a splendid and well trained contralto voice. The Prince's rendition of well known Gospel hymns in the Abyssinian tongue was much enjoyed. He played his own accompaniment and invited the guests to join with him in English in the singing of the choruses.

Brief addresses were given by the Prince, Mrs. Finch, Mrs. Preston, Mrs. Handsaker, Mrs. Trumbull, Rev. Moreland and Rev. Dr. Minard. All expressed satisfaction in the meeting together of so many races and nationalities in such fraternal fashion and voiced the hope that the better understanding resulting from such gatherings would help in working out the great problems of world peace and race relations which are now confronting humanity. Among the guests present were Chinese, Hindus, Irish, Spanish, German, African and American, both colored and white.

Mr. Cannady presided over the more formal part of the program with her usual grace and many expressions were heard among the guests of the charming hospitality of the Cannadys.

WRITER NEVER WASTES AN ADVOCATE

DOLLAR STEAMSHIP LINE S. S. President Pierce Nov. 5, 1925.

My Dear Mrs. Cannady,

I hope you have cut off the Advocate because I am almost to Honolulu but I'm glad you sent issue of Oct. 24th. I put it in my grip and read it on ship. The column, Arrow Tips, I should have been sorry to miss.

Mr. Wellock spoke in Palo Alto October 30th. The old Indian chief about the God and devil is a quotation to remember.

The column about the unfair treatment of the colored people is excellent. I have sent it to editor of San Jose News, a friend of mine and of all of us, and asked him to send it to any other editor if he can't use any of it.

The remainder of the paper I shall give to a friend in Honolulu tomorrow. I don't like to waste an Advocate, and never do.

With all good wishes always, Yours truly, Alice Park.

Bobby Allen and Ivan Cannady played violin parts in the Fernwood School Orchestra on Thursday evening when the school held open house.

ARROW TIPS

(By Kits Reid)

I shall asked to be allowed to sign the petition urging the Governor to pardon the McLaren boy, for two reasons. The first because I believe in the single standard of morality. Why punish the boys in the case when the evidence shows that the girls were guilty as well? Why should special consideration be shown to girls who stand around on street corners at 12 o'clock at night and accept invitations from strange boys to go joy riding? Girls of 16 and 17 years of age know better than that, and if their mothers and fathers allow them to chase the streets at all hours of the night, they should be convicted as well. I am told that on this particular night, the girls had been spending the evening at Council Crest amusement park. Where were their mothers? My second reason is this; it isn't the McLaren boy the Clackamas County authorities are punishing, it is his father, and they know it.

Nothing has happened recently which has so clearly shown to Mr. Average Voter, just what is in the minds of the President's advisers, as his own appointee incident. I wonder at their boldness, especially so near a political campaign. It also demonstrates the mediocrity of the presidential calibre. There was a chance for the President to prove that he could be a big man, but oh, how pitifully weak his action was. When he appointed a Democrat, we all thought that here is a man who is above partisan politics, and then he deliberately kicked himself off the pedestal by asking for his own appointee's resignation because Lantry would not vote to keep the President's pet in a position which he was too inefficient to fill. And now comes word that Mr. Lantry will not be reappointed. Mighty small potatoes, Mr. President, mighty small potatoes.

What an awfully reckless thing that was for the War Department to do, to order the court martial of Col. Mitchell. It makes my Republican blood boil every time I read in the paper all that evidence of Col. Billy's witness against the sacred right of the ARMY and NAVY to use the soldier and Sailor and airman for political purposes. (Please print the underlined in very small type—any one who joins any of those forces become very small type of human beings—they are no longer citizens.)

Low dare such an ignominy as Mitchell presume to tell such experts as Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy what ought and ought not to be done with flying machines or balloons or any simple contrivances of that sort. Both Sec. Wilbur and Sec. Weeks (?) took a long course in political hot air science before they were even appointed. Did Col. Billy think for one moment that the Commander-in-Chief of Army and Navy of the United States would permit for one moment, any other kind of air to control the movements of his fleets? Nay, nay, Billy, you forgot that you were no longer a citizen.

I must confess in all honesty, because I shall not be allowed to keep my column if I do not try to be at least 10 per cent honest, that such republican blood curcles as my political circulation shows are so attenuated that I fear that before another election my registration will, perforce, be changed, am worried, I confess, about my condition. If Coolidge keeps on doing things as he has been doing them lately—as to Mellon's Income Tax Bill, Bert Haney's retirement, Col. Mitchell's court-martial, and a few other things like that—I shall soon have pernicious republican anemia: I cannot hope to replenish the blood stream with democratic tonic, that's too badly diluted with Tammany booze. There seems to be nothing left but to try the "Progressive" elixir. I wonder how much it costs by the bottle and in quantity? I think I'll write to Dr. LaFollette, no seems to me I saw somewhere that Senator Wheeler will be tried again in Washington for the same crime(?) that the Montana Courts found him not guilty. He will probably know more about the cost of the Progressive tonic than any one else in the country. I guess I'll try him and I suppose I had better enclose a check, too, and save time, he probably needs money to buy his own fight against the old Daugherty crowd. There's another reason my republican blood is so thin,—dear, oh dear, what a painful disease good citizenship is!
