PROMINENT WOMAN MEETS TRAGIC DEATH SWEET CASE TO BE RETRIED IN JAN

SWEET JURY DISAGREES NEW TRIAL IN JANUARY

Eight Defendants Out On $5,000 Bail Given By Detroit Colored Citczens Darrow Will Urge Bail For Remain-ing Three Defendants On Dec. 2nd.

New York, Nov. 28—Walter White, Assistant Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, returned this morning from Detroit where he had been throughout the trial of Dr. Ossian H. Sweet and ten other Negroes, charged with murder for defending Dr. Sweet's home from a mob on Sept. 9.

Mr. White's report of the present

Mr. White's report of the present status of the Sweet case, which has commanded nation-wide attention, is as follows:

After 46 hours of violent argument, which could be heard sometimes by persons outside the jury room, the jury disagreed. It was fumered that persons outside the jury room, in jury disagreed. It was fumered that five jurors had stood for acquittal and seven for acquittal of 8 defendants and conviction of second degree murder for 3 of the defendants. The jury was dismissed at 1:31 p. m. on Friday, Nov. 27, and shortly thereafter Mr. Darrow filed a motion for a new trial and made a second motion that all eleven defendants be admitted to bail. New trial has been agreed upon for the first week in Jan. Eight of the defendants were at once admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000 admitted to bail in the su greed upon for the first week in Jan. Eight of the defendants were at once admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000 each which was furnished by Colored Citizens of Detroit, but opposition from the prosecutor in the case of the remaining three, led Judge Frank Murphy to set Wednesday, Dec. 2nd. for argument. Mr. White will return to Detroit in time for the argument for bail for these three defendants who will be held until then. Dr. Ossian Sweet, Henry Sweet and Leonard Morris.

Contrary to published reports in the daily press, Mr. Darrow has not yet asked for seperate trials for each of the 11 defendants but he announced that he probably would do so.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People announced in connection with the news of the disagreement and the motion for a new trial that it would fight the case while there was any court in the land to appeal to until the 11 Color-land to appeal to until the 11 Colored people were acquitted.

Mr. White stated that the expense of the trial to date had been about $20,000, the transcript of testimony alone costing $2081.60.

"One of the most impressive sights I have ever seen," declared Mr. White "was the way in which the colored people of Detroit flocked to the trial. At half after midnight on Thanksgiving morning, when the jury was still arguing and sent out for instructions, the court room was packed. At 2:10 in the morning, when the jury was sent to bed, bailiffs had to make way through the crowd for the jurymen. All Thanksgiving day colored people All Thanksgiving day colored people remained waiting and watching, many of them going without Thanksgiving Dinner in order to be on hand.

I want to pay a tribute to the mag nificent way in which Judge Murphy conducted the trial. He did his ut-most to exclude the issue of race pre-judice and his final charge to the jury yadice and his final charge to the jury was a masterpiece of schorlarly learning and judicial impartiality.

"The case has largely changed public sentiment in Detroit. The better class opinion is with the defendants, although the Klan is of course more bitter than ever. But the N. A. A. C. P. will continue to fight the case and both Messrs. Darrow and Arthur Garfield Hays will continue to lead the defense until a conclusion has been reached."

K. of P. SMOKER

On Friday evening, Nov. 27th at the Stag Club, members of Syracuse Lodge, K. of P. pulled off one of the biggest and best smokers that has ever been held in Portland by any fraternal body. Lee Anderson played the part of Master of Ceremonies to a King's taste. Music wasfurnished by the Brown Strollers Orchestra. Something doing al the time; but the sensation of the meeting was a Ladyimpersonator who vowed to make it hot for Garner Grayson. Money matters, I suppose. Grayson, at first, was shocked and visibly excited, but soon saw the joke.

Addresses were made by several of the members and a number of the visits.

MORGAN SAYS. NO PLACE LIKE HOME

"Havn't the time to write a letter but will say this much: that we are all anxious to return to the coast again. New York is onlike a city but inself.

The Thanksgiving service was well attended and a remarkable success. The church is taking on new life and bids fair to take its place among other religious organizations.

The Bazaar given by the Gleaners Art Club on Tuesday and Wednesday was a big success. Offical reports have not been made but to say it was a great success is mild. We thank the many friends for their loyal support.

We wish our churches, lodges, the Y. W. C and other social organizations including womens clubs and those purely for pleasure to know the Advocate welcomes your news, but in return for the free space we give to you, is it not only just and fair that we have your job printing?

IN TACOMA

Attorney and Mrs. E. J. Minor motored to Tacoma on Thanksgiving morning and spent the week end as the guests of relatives and friends. They were royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Robinson during their stay. They returned Sunday.

Mellon's income is $4,158,750. In 1921 when he was sworn in as Secretary of the Treasury, his income tax was $2,636,697.50. Now if Congress adopts his plan, he tax on March 4th will be $1028,182 Isn't that sufficient reason for wanting an amendment to the income tax law? Worthwhile isn't it? But don't forget that you and I must dig upA just the same, that is, if you have an income—I haven't.
