Motherhood

Salem, Ore.—"During my first expectancy my health failed completely. I got run down, weak and so nervous I could not sleep. I could not eat, was nauseated all the time. Also I had severe bearing pains in my side. I was too miserable to do my work, when I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advertised as being good for women during motherhood, and decided to try it. It strengthened my nerves, overcame the nausea, relieved me of the side aches, and I got strong and kept so right up to the last, and my baby was healthy and fine. Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for every prospective mother to take if she wishes to avoid a lot of misery."—Mrs. Eliza Winger, 1350 Waller St.

Obtain Dr. Pierce's Prescription now, in liquid or tablets, from your druggist or send 10c for trial pkg. of tablets to Dr. Pierce in Buffalo, N. Y.

Mirrored Animals

Animals can see themselves in a looking glass, but they do not necessarily recognize themselves. They have not our intelligence to understand the image, and the reflection lacks their particular mark of identity—the small of the original. On the other hand, the reflection sometimes "gets across" to an animal, in which case the animal is usually angry, afraid, or puzzled.

Shortens Tongue

Doctors at the Kyushu (Japan) Imperial university are puzzled by a disease that causes the shortening of women's tongues. For two years Miss Aida Torii, eighteen, has been affected by the disease. She was taken to the clinic at the university where an operation on the tip of her tongue seemed to check the shrinking for a while.

Sex in Pigeon's Eggs

It is a fact well known to pigeon fanciers that the two eggs laid by pigeons almost invariably produce male and female. Some curious experiments as to which of the eggs produce the male and which the female have resulted in showing that the first egg laid is the female and the second the male.

Battle Made History

Historians disagree on the list of battles that have turned the destinies of a race; but two have been selected by common consent from American history. These are the victory of the Americans over Burgoyne at Saratoga and the battle of Gettysburg.

Defining a Politician

The term politician was first used in France in 1569 and referred to men of wisdom and cunning, of artifice and deep contrivance, but never rising to the height of real statesmanship.

Lake Always Ice-Covered

On Mount Kenya, which is the second highest peak on the African continent, and near the equator, there is a large lake which is covered with ice the year around.

English Rail Sections

When passenger travel is heavy on English railways and it becomes necessary to run trains in two sections, the first train carries at its rear a sign bearing the letters, "A. P. F.," meaning "Another portion follows."

Music Mistress

Host (to guest)—"Hush! In order to keep her we are obliged to have the phonograph making jazz music while she is doing the dishes."—Paris Rire.

Collecting Cobwebs

One of the most interesting and novel pastimes is the collection of cobwebs. Each kind of spider spins its web in a different manner, and specimens can easily be secured and preserved in their natural shape.

Odd Material for Clock

A watchmaker of Rockland, Maine, has made a clock, using oyster shells as the hour marks, and a knife and a fork for hands.

Bird's Peculiar Feathers.

Feathers, of which the color is washed out by rain, are the curious possession of the touraon, a bird native of Senegal.

Famous Bells.

According to legend the Shandon bells are submerged in the water surrounding the island of Inishmore, one of the Aran islands.

Root of All Taxation.

Taxation reaches down to the base; but the base is labor, and labor pays all.—Donn Platt.

Best and Second Best.

It would be better to do our second-best at the right end than our best at the wrong end.—Viscount Grey.

DAINTY LINGERIE IMPORTANT; PARIS HERALDS SPRING FROCKS

The holiday rush being over, comes now a period of home-sewing and midseason bargain sales. It is a summons to clothes preparedness. In entering upon one's spring and summer wardrobe campaign fancy turns first to dainty lingerie—for every woman of fashion dotes on pretty underthings. Now that the economy of silk for underwear is an established fact, exquisitely colorful crepe de chine, crepe satin, also georgette, have become as staple almost as muslin, long cloth and similar white goods once were. There is, however, considerable use of sheer daintily tinted cotton voile, likewise printed voiles and cottons for pajama outfits and nightgowns. Outstanding features which have to do with newest lingerie stress the following: Widened hemlines secured by godets of the material of which the garment is made or with triangular insets of lace; most everything made up in match sets; garments either strictly tailored or else very lacy abounding in much elaboration. Color continues an interesting theme. Flesh, peach, rose, lavender, with a growing favor for maize and light blue are noted, and the preference for white is expressed. Crepe de chine sets like the one in the picture may be made or bought. An unusual use of two kinds of lace marks this gown and matching combination. Real Irish crochet forms the yoke of the gown, also the band of the combination, with Valenciennes heavy types dyed to match the material of the frock. Perhaps no feature promises more interest than the allover lace blouse. At present the metal lace tunics are in the majority, these creating a handsome effect with velvet skirts. However there is promise of cloth or silk spring ensembles which include tunics or blouses of flit or chantilly. JULIA BOTTOMLEY. (© 1924 Western Newspaper Union.)

Fancy Boxes for Garters
 The vogue for fancy boxes has reached to garters. Some time ago flowers and gay little boutonnières came in such boxes, but now they may contain instead the gayest and fanciest garters one has ever seen.

Vivid Colors in Hats
 A hat in which the shades of fuchsia and Indian orange are combined is a charming exponent of the vogue for vivid colors.

Wide Range of Colors
 No material at the moment is more fashionable or practical than velvet which comes in extremely light weights and in an astonishing range of colors. It is particularly well adapted to the little two-piece jumper dresses or ensembles.

Initials in Felt Hat
 Women are now adopting the fad of having their initials inside of their little felt hats.

The Unusual Again

I stood on the mountain summit and enjoyed the panorama. Then I heard a voice say, "Ah, glorious! This was worth all the trouble of the ascent." Overjoyed at meeting thus what I thought to be a kindred soul and nature lover, I turned round and found the speaker—with a bottle elevated above his mouth.—Musketee, Vienna.

Peeved the Kangaroo

"What's the matter with the kangaroo?" asked the manager of the circus. "Gotta bad case of blue devils," replied the keeper. "We got blocked during the parade this morning and he had a chance to watch the pedestrians do their stuff and it's made him feel like a back number when it comes to hopping and jumping."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Hit-or-Miss Man.

If the individual who sits too close to the side of the canoe and peers over the edge lives long enough, he will probably fall out of an airplane in leaping over and trying to see everything below.—Detroit Free Press.

Fear a Corpse

Sailors are believed to be the most superstitious people. Often they have been known to desert ship when a corpse was taken on board. Ministers are not liked on board. They are credited with bringing bad luck.

The Fun in Flirtation

The Cynical Bachelor observes that it is no fun for a girl to flirt with a man unless she knows she is making some other girl miserable.

Chanting the Psalms

This custom was adopted by Ambrose from the pagan ceremonies of the old Romans, about the year 360. Three hundred years later Pope Gregory the Great added tones and established singing schools.

All the world asks of a man is for him to do his best; but if that doesn't suit it has mighty little use for him.—Boston Transcript.

When a Penguin Woos

Male penguin, when mating, goes from nest to nest in parties, and when one of them sees a hen which takes his fancy, he places a pebble at her feet. If a pebble cannot be found, he goes through the process in dumb show.

Bigger Raspberries

Recent experiments show that raspberries as big as blackberries, which grow in the Andes mountains, can be successfully grown in California.

Like Many a Lad.

The ladder should make a good emblem of poor luck—it is generally up against it.—Boston Transcript.
