THE PRIMARY AND THE CONVENTION

the nomination of candidates held on May 21st. The Privoted for in the November election. Before the primary law became a factor in selecting candidates, corrupt political machines and hand picked conventions robbed the people of their right to name their candidate."

But the people have a splendid chance now to select the candidates for the various offices. The old way of selecting candidates by hand-picked conventions is a thing of the past. We have, skin. however, the same old machine yet trying to boss the job of naming the candidates they are trying to do it by holding assemblies and conholding assemblies and conventions, endorsements and by other corrupt selfish methods, but their little political tricks are not so effective.

MT. OLIVET CHURCH

By Octavia Williams
Easter services at Mt. Olivet were very impressive. Four o'clock prayer service was held Easter morning, after which the ladies of the missionary society served breakfast. S. S. classes had very large attend-ance. Mrs. James Douglass gave her class a pleasant surprise: ice cream, and cake were served, and each of her pupils given a large bunny, candy and fruit. The smaller children of the card class were given baskets of eggs. The Supt., was well supplied with eggs, and all of the children were re-
