Blanche Thompson is the name. The Spanish shawl is very becoming, eh, what? Lots of grace 'n' everything!

This beautiful lady is none other than Rose Gillard of the far-famed "Showboat." She is a very good reason why Ziegfeld has "lost no money" in staging this production. Boy! she'd be a "good reason" for—oh, well! anything!

"We take great pleasure in announcing" Aida Ward, Boys! Her beauty speaks for itself! Jus' listen!

Madelaine Odum—a lady whose stage personality is "jus' too bad." She is now at the Cotton Club, one of Harlem's leading "whoopce" houses.

This winsome smile is the property of "Teddy" Johnson, a striking young queen in theatrical circles.

This dashing gent is Robert W. Smith, manager of one of New Jersey's largest insurance companies. Big business is his middle name.
