

SOME RESULTS OF THE RECENT EASTERN ELECTION

Washington, Nov. 14 (CNS)—While eyes were turned on N. Y. City at the last election, Negro voters in several cities were casting ballots in successful campaigns for race representation.

Particularly important was the result of the city election in Cleveland where four race candidates were elected to office. Claybourne George, councilman from the Fourth District, was re-elected to the City Council, where he will be joined by Lawrence O. Payne and Dr. Leroy N. Bundy, successful candidates from the Third District.

The fourth victory came in the election of Mrs. Mary B. Martin, who defeated Mrs. Josephine Reilly (white), for membership on the Board of Education.

The success of the campaign marks the end of a strenuous campaign which was not without its insidious propaganda. The color issue was raised by the Citizens' League, which gave in its bulletin, the color of the candidates for office, where those candidates happened to be colored. The bulletin made no reference to race in the case of Jewish, Polish, Irish, German, Italian or Anglo-Saxon candidates.

Jesse R. Taylor was elected to the City Council of Buffalo, to represent the Twenty-Third Ward and is the first colored man to sit in that council. His election was the result of an animated campaign by colored citizens.

The Negro vote played an important part in the successful election of Charles Bowles, successful candidate for Mayor of the City of Detroit. The colored citizens supported him on the strength of his promise to remove Mr. Rutledge, Police Commissioner, who is blamed for the wanton shooting of colored suspects by the police.

SUPPOSE you are today paying 50c a tube for your tooth paste (and there are many very good dentifrices selling today at that price).

Suppose, like most people, you buy about twelve tubes during a year. Now if you knew that you could buy as good a dentifrice as can be made and still save each year the price of 25 loaves of bread or 60 bars of soap or 40 pounds of sugar or a box of fine cigars—could you conscientiously fail to take advantage of such an opportunity?

That is exactly what you do when you buy Listerine Tooth Paste, at 25c for a large tube. Figure it out for yourself.

The World's Most Expensive Talking Machine Fit For a Maharajah's Palace

They are building them better and better every year. Regardless of the statement by many wise acres that the radio had spelled the death knell of the talking machine, there never was a better demand for the better type talking machine than there is today. The reason for this is self evident. The radio is used because it brings news of the day together with music and entertainment. The radio, however, cannot take the place of any of the permanent recordings of favorite songs, favorite singers, or the favorite entertainers. For this reason, Brunswick, in their latest type Panatone with radio, have incorporated new ideas, new discoveries and new designs of motors and reproducers, as well as sounding boxes, that in the past were unknown.

The machine shown in the photograph with Valarie Raemeier is fit to grace the halls of the most fastidious. It is the most sumptuous piece of work turned out by the manufacturers of the Brunswick talking machines. A Maharajah, a King, an Emperor would indeed be proud to have such a machine in their palace. Hundreds of Americans, regardless of the fact that this, the world's most expensive talking machine is priced at $6,000.00, are the proud possessors of this work of art. This masterpiece of engineering, combining the radio with the talking machine is a custom built model made by Brunswick, Balke, Collender Company on exhibition at the Brunswick Salon on Fifth Avenue, visited by thousands of New Yorkers, as well as hundreds of out-of-towners, who have heard of the wonderful machine, come to see, to hear, and to buy.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SYRUP

BUTTE, MONT.

By Mrs. Doris L. Holmes. A reindeer dinner was given by Geo. Armstrong, honoring the Joy Makers Club, at the home of Mrs. John E. Palmer, 215 S. Washington street, Friday evening, October 31. Miss Margaret Sanford of Boulder Hot Springs was the guest of honor. The spacious rooms were decorated with Halloween colors and emblems. Black cats, goblins, ghosts and scarecrows were everywhere in evidence. The unusually attractive table was centered with a large pumpkin, the favors and decorations carrying out the black and orange color scheme. Mrs. Doris L. Holmes, the president, made a talk on the Reindeer. Covers were placed for fourteen. Enjoying Mr. Armstrong's hospitality were Mrs. E. Johnson, I. Walker E. Palmer, H. Jones; Messrs. Wm. Ashley, J. Carter, R. Bryant, R. Brown, R. Howard W. Cruise.

The Joy Makers Club was organized September 27, at the A.M.E. church, in which nine persons answered the call. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Doris L. Holmes, president; R. Brown, secretary; Mrs. Inez Walker, treasurer; James Carter, first vice-pres.; William Ashley, chairman of Ways and Means Committee; Mrs. Estella Palmer, chaplain. Other officers were elected at the second meeting.

The Club is an auxiliary to the church and community. The number of members has increased to 15 and is rapidly progressing. Some day the Joy Makers hope to be an outstanding Club. Plans have already been made for a dinner to be given at the church on the corner of Idaho and Platium streets, November 14, from 12 to 9 p.m. The dinner is 50c and the public is invited.

Mrs. C. F. Cantrell has been indisposed the past week with an attack of pleurisy.

HOTEL NOTES

President Edward Boyce, of the Portland Hotel Co. has been kept at home for the last week, the victim of a severe cold.

Eugene Carr, captain of bell hops at The Portland, and a veteran of the World War, celebrated Armistice Day with the other veterans.

The white bell hop who was convicted on a charge of bootlegging Federal Court last week, was paroled to his lawyer. A colored bell hop, for the same offense, some time ago, was sent to jail for six months. The fault appears to have been the failure of his lawyer to ask for a parole.
