

We regret that the following article was published through error last week and we are republishing it today when it was requested by Mrs. Logan to be published.

IN MEMORIAM

James W. Logan
Just a sad and sweet remembrance,
Just a memory fond and true,
Just a token of affection
And a heartache just for you.
In loving memory of our dear son, husband and father, James W. Logan, who passed away a year ago today
December 20, 1928.

Mary Logan, Mother.
Willie Logan, Wife.
Leroy Logan, Son.
Mary Baker, Daughter.
Henrietta Crawford,
Daughter.

Master Clifford Flowers, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Flowers met with an accident Wednesday at the Holladay school resulting in a fractured arm. Friends are hoping he will soon be O.K. again.

The Christmas Seal

What do you think of the Christmas Seal?

"What do you think?" said I.
"It maketh the Christmas spirit real:
"Tis greater than gifts you buy.
For it proveth better than jewels can That your heart hath room for your fellow-man."

"Who giveth a gift to his friend has done
No more than a gracious deed.
But the seal proclaimeth the man as one
Who giveth to those in need.
For God, who marketh the sparrow's
fall,
Giveth not to His friends, but to one
and all."

"So I look at the Christmas Seal and
say:
This friend who remembereth me,
Hath also thought of the sick today,
Wherever they chance to be.
And he giveth not only to cheer his own,
But to all who hath need is his mercy
shown."

PAINFUL CORNS Loosen—Lift Out

A little known Japanese herb, the discovery of an eminent German scientist (Dr. Stieckel) instantly soothes the corn, then loosens it so that shortly you can lift it right out. This new discovery called "Corn Fly" excites the white blood corpuscles to action and granulates the corn at its root.
"Corn Fly" for corns, 35c. "Corn Fly Foot Bath Powder," 25c. and "Corn Fly Bunion Remedy" 50c. are sold under a positive money-back guarantee by Hi-Gene Co., Newark, N. J., or local druggist.

Branch N. A. A. C. P. Wants No Ministers on Executive Board

board three ministers of as many local churches, two of whom it is said,
had functioned regularly, and efficiently as members of the board, but it was not until last Sunday that they made their position absolutely clear by removing from the board all of that profession.

Very few of the members of the organization, comparatively speaking,
have supported the local branch and it had also been rumored that a new president was to be elected, but for some reason, the majority decided to retain in office their present choice, Irvine Flowers. The association meets at the Williams Avenue Branch Y.
W. C. A. once a month.

HOTEL NOTES

William A. Duncan, for a number of years a waiter at The Portland, died in Chicago last week. Duncan recently served as a dining car waiter.

Two bell hops at The Portland, according to unconfirmed reports, will become hitched up in the bonds of wedlock soon. It is said one of the brides to be is not a Portland girl, either.

Mrs. F. H. Harrington, formerly housekeeper at The Portland, during the time of her late husband's management of the hostelry, was at The Portland last week from her home in Seattle.

Judge A. C. Hough of Grants Pass, Oregon, one of the Advocate's loyal supporters was registered at The Portland this week.

HAIR GROWER

Read what just one person says about it. This testimonial can be multiplied over and over again.

March 1st, 1925.

To Whom it May Concern:

This letter is for the purpose of endorsing the Thomas original discovery for baldness. A new scientific method that has rejuvenated my scalp to the extent that my hair began to grow and developed into a luxurious growth.
Even the temples that were entirely bald are now covered with a healthy crop of hair. The Thomas' are real hair growers and I can recommend them to anyone.

Very truly yours, J. M.
