

IN THE FLOODLIGHT

Florence Cole-Talbert, who has enjoyed many seasons of unusual concert triumphs recently began her annual American tour.

"Buck" and "Bubbles" (on the left), well-known vaudeville comedians, who have broken into the "talkies." They are, "Demitasse" and "Wildcat" in Pathe's talking comedies.

Albertine Pickens, the original "personality" girl, who is now wintering in Los Angeles. She is formerly of the Cotton Club and Club Alabam of New York, and the Regal Theatre of Chicago.

Nina Mae McKinney, the fascinating star of "Hallelujah." She has been given a long-term contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The above picture shows her as queen of the night club in "Taking it Big."