

EDITORIAL PAGE

THE ADVOCATE

Published every Saturday at Suite 312-313 Macleay Building, Portland, Oregon. Phone Atwater 1525

E. D. CANNADY, Editor; MRS. E. D. CANNADY, Associate Editor and Manager; Nancy Franklin, Office Assistant and Linotype Operator

Tennent for Mayor

If we lived in Tacoma, we would work and vote for Mr. Melvin G. Tennent for Mayor.

Since we are not a citizen of that city, we urge all of our friends who are, to do so. We are very well acquainted with Mr. Tennent, and have watched with much interest his untiring efforts to promote and encourage business enterprises to cast their lot in Tacoma when he was Mayor, and even now, as a private citizen, he is still "carrying on."

Julius Taylor, veteran editor of the Chicago Broadax, has knocked another "home run" with a special edition of his paper. Congratulations!

Allen Rushlight Passes

Mr. Allen G. Rushlight, former Mayor of Portland, died on Monday at the Portland Sanitarium as a result of a heart attack followed by pneumonia. At the time of the attack he was attending the funeral services of the late Governor I. L. Patterson, at Salem.

In the passing of Mr. Rushlight, Portland loses one of its most valuable citizens. Frank, and sometimes abrupt in expression, yet he had a heart of flesh and took interest in the upbuilding of the community. His passing is mourned by many.

One Way to Kill Your City

The people who are mostly responsible for the bad impression visitors have of their city are those who make it a practice of telling them that the town is dead and will soon "be buried," and that the people with money are "mossbacks" and are opposed to any new industries coming into the city, and that rents and taxes are higher than in any other place, and that they are planning to move away very soon. These are the sort of people who kill a town and the sooner they get out, the better off the town will be.

A Worthy Example

The Des Moines, Iowa, Ministerial Association and the Interracial Commission have issued a manifesto of good-will in which they call upon the business institutions catering to the public generally to grant all patrons equal accommodations.

The action of these organizations is commendable, and worthy of the adoption by all business concerns.

POLITICAL NOTES

Hugh McLain, democratic war horse from down around Coos Bay was in town this week to attend the Jackson Day banquet.

While the politicians are figuring and planning, let the voter be thinking about the kind of man they desire to vote into the office of Governor of this State.

MEDICINAL HERBS

and ROOTS

C. Gee Wo 29 Years in Portland

If taken in time, may prevent operations for Diabetes, Catarrh, Lung, Throat, Asthma, Kidney, Liver, Rheumatism, Blood, Stomach and all female disorders. Also Bladder Troubles.

THE C. GEE WO

Remedies are harmless, as no drugs or poisons are used. Composed of the choicest medicinal roots, herbs, barks and bark, imported by us from far-

C. GEE WO

CHINESE MEDICAL HERBS COMPANY, INC.

262 1/2 Alder St. S. W. Corner Third St., Portland, Oregon.

Churches

BAPTISTS

Mount Olivet Baptist Church, East First and Schuyler Sts. Rev. J. L. Caston, Minister

Shiloh Baptist Church, East 7th and Everett Sts.

EPISCOPALIAN

St. Phillips Mission, Knott and Rodney Sts. Blaine Coles, Lay Reader

HOUSE OF PRAYER

House of Prayer, East 10th and Grant Sts. Robert Searcic, Pastor

METHODIST

Bethel A. M. E. Church, Larrabee and McMillen Sts. Rev. Daniel G. Hill Jr., Minister; First A. M. E. Zion Church, 417 Williams Ave. Rev. W. R. Lovell, Minister

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

The Rev. T. Allen Harvey, presiding Elder of the Oregon-Washington Conference, will preach at both morning and evening services, Sunday. The Lord's Supper will be administered at both services.

"The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus" will be the general theme of the Sunday School which meets at 10 o'clock.

The Varick Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 6:30, when the topic for discussion will be "How Can Nations Practice the Golden Rule?" Miss Charity Harris will lead.

Quarterly Conference business was held Friday night. Presiding Elder Harvey expressed pleasure with the progress of the Church as indicated in the reports rendered.

Stewardesses, led by Sister Ashford, served chitterlings Friday night, before and after the Quarterly Conference.

The basket ball team lost the first regular league game on Monday night being out-classed by the Highland Baptist team, which scored 49 to Zion's 18. In a practice game on Tuesday night, Zion won from Willamette A. C., 32 to 9.

The Rose City Presbyterians will be the opponents next Wednesday night at Grant High. Friends are welcome. Admission free.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

(Crystalae Maxwell, Reporter)

Negro Doctor to Speak at Bethel Saturday Night

Dr. Norvell Unthank, M. D. who comes to Portland to take up residence and practice medicine, will speak at Bethel Church at 8 P. M. His subject will be "How to Keep Well and Strong." Special music will be rendered. The public is invited to attend.

At the Allen C. E. at 7 P. M. Mrs. George Canada will sing and Miss Eleanor Gragg will render a piano solo. Miss Hooker, president urges all young folk to attend.

Religious services will be broadcast over station KXL at 2:45 p. m.

Mrs. Blanche Thurston, teacher of English at Franklin High School and whose art work is rated highly, did an oil painting of the associate editor as a Christmas gift for a friend of the associate editor. Her artistic work has attracted a deal of favorable comment.

HOTEL NOTES

Edward Wells, veteran waiter, is muling for the waiters in The Portland dining room.

J. Bowen, captain in The Portland dining room, has the sympathy of the employees at The Portland in the death of his mother which occurred Monday at the Good Samaritan hospital.

A. H. Logan, extra waiter at The Portland, is in receipt of an anonymous letter requesting him to come to a down town building and get a package. Upon investigation, Logan learned that there was no such room number in the building as stated in the letter and so he is up in the air about it.

Mrs. Ernestine Ater, of Chicago, Mrs. R. C. Winburn and children, Mr. and Mrs. Leo La Mars of Great Falls, Montana, and U. S. Reed were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Reed Tuesday evening.

Dr. and A. M. Cochran, chiropodist and foot specialist has reopened offices at 59 North Sixth Street. Dr. Cochran and Mrs. Cochran formerly resided in Portland.

Social courtesies were shown Mrs. John Turner of Pasco, Washington, by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Maney, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Flowers during her brief stay.

Another pretty affair honoring Mrs. Ellen Booker was given by Mrs. Lula Gragg, a sister.

At two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, twelve ladies sat down to a beautifully appointed luncheon at the home of the hostess, 1034 East 30th street N. They were: Mesdames Ellen Booker, Lenora Henderson, Cora Jamison, R. F. Morrison, J. E. Turner, E. D. Cannady, May Hill, Lottie Rutherford, Maud Booker, S. S. Golden, Mollie Thomas and the hostess. A low bowl of cut flowers formed the fine centre piece. The gorgeous lace luncheon cloth was set off with fine china glassware and silver. Attractive place cards marked each cover and rose baskets contained delicious salted nuts. The ladies enjoyed the afternoon in spite of the fact that there was a heavy snowfall outside.

Advertisement for Kraft Cheese featuring 'A Delicious Food' and 'KRAFT-PHENIX CHEESE COMPANY'.

Pollyann, Society Editor

Mrs. Ellen Booker of Yakima, who is spending several weeks in Portland with her relatives, the Jamison family, and her son, Dr. E. L. Booker, is the inspiration for numerous social functions. Among the pretty affairs honoring her was a New Year's dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Thomas at their home, 366 Shaver street, January 1.

Aside from the Christmas decorations, the dining room table was attractive with a centre piece of fruits and lighted candles.

Seated about the table, at which four courses were served were Mrs. Ellen Booker, Rev. and Mrs. Daniel G. Hill Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Will Gragg, Mrs. Lottie Rutherford, George B. Hardin, Mrs. Cora Stalling, and the hostess.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Caston were hosts to a lovely dinner party and sight seeing trip for Mr. and Mrs. Leo La Mars and Mrs. R. C. Winburn of Great Falls, Montana, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bogle entertained at their home on Tibbetts st. Sunday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Leo La Mars of Great Falls, Montana.

Mrs. R. C. Winburn, Mr. and Mrs. Leo La Mars and two children Leo Jr. and Cleo, who were called here because of the death of their cousin Mrs. U. S. Reed, left during the weekend for their home in Great Falls, Montana.

The Kenwana Bridge Club made their annual New Years visits Wednesday evening leaving at each home their beautiful hand-painted cards. A very pleasant hour of dancing was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn by the Club and its followers. From there they journeyed to the Bamboo Inn where a lovely no-host German breakfast was served to a party of twenty-two. Every one enjoyed the social thrill and visits immensely.

Mrs. Ellen Booker of Yakima, spent Tuesday night as the guest of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert L. Jameson, 868 Garfield Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jamison, 1190 Holgate street entertained at a delightful turkey dinner party Sunday at their lovely home on Holgate street. The dinner honored Mrs. Ellen Booker who spent the holiday season in Portland with relatives and friends. In addition to the guests named in last week's issue of the Advocate, there were Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Young, Mrs. Emma Roberts, Guy Jamison and Mrs. J. Jameson and E. D. Cannady. The table was decorated with winter flowers and fruits and the delicious course dinner was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. E. L. Jamison. The evening was spent in listening to music over the Jamison's new Majestic radio.

Mrs. Willie Garnet was hostess to the Culture Club at her home in Alberta, Monday.

Mrs. R. C. Winburn, Cleo, Leo Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leo La Mars of Great Falls, Montana were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Baker, Wednesday.

Mrs. Jennie Ewing entertained at The Broadway theatre Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Booker, of Yakima.

Her party consisted of Mrs. Ellen Booker, Mrs. Mollie Thomas, Mrs. Lula Gragg and herself.

Mrs. Leon K. Gregory was hostess at a supper Thursday evening, January 2, honoring Messrs. Lang and Couchman of Oakland. Covers were laid for the following additional guests: Misses Madeline Duncan, Christina Smith and Rosalee Bird; Messrs. Roy Holmes and Charles Hunter.

The Esperanto Breakfast Club met Wednesday with Mrs. Henrietta Marshall as hostess at her home 464 Buffalo street. Mrs. Ellen Booker of Yakima, Washington, who spent the holidays with relatives in Portland, was the guest of honor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Slaughter was hostess at a supper party on Monday evening, January 6, complimenting Misses Madeline Duncan, Christina Smith and Rosalee Bird and the Messrs. Guy and Roy Holmes, Charles Smith and E. Hunter.

Advertisement for Cleaning and Tailoring Co. featuring 'UP-TO-DATE Cleaning and Tailoring Co.' and 'We KLEAN LOTHEES LEAN'.

Advertisement for The Advocate Publishing Co. featuring 'The Advocate Publishing Co.' and 'Publishers of "The Advocate" - A 16-Page Newspaper'.

Advertisement for Holliday & Holliday featuring 'Holliday & Holliday Tonsorial Parlors' and '125 NORTH SIXTH STREET :: PORTLAND, OREGON'.

Advertisement for Centralized Banking featuring 'Centralized Banking' and 'United States National Bank'.

Advertisement for Roberts Bros. featuring 'We Sell For Less Because We Sell or Cash' and 'Roberts Bros. THIRD & MORRISON'.

Advertisement for Laundry services featuring 'NEW SYSTEM LAUNDRY' and 'ORIGINATORS OF INDIVIDUAL WASHING'.

Advertisement for Funeral Service featuring 'Funeral Service' and 'MILLER and TRACEY'.

Cartoon titled 'THAT LITTLE GAME' - THE CHRONIC WINNER'S SCHEME, showing a man in a suit talking to a group of men in a bar.