FOR GOVERNOR

It is the opinion of The Advocate that its readers cannot go wrong if they vote for either Joseph or Corbett for Governor.

It is our opinion that the great majority of Colored voters will stand solidly behind home men, from whom and through whose influence, they receive employment and aid for their various civic enterprises.

VOTE! VOTE!

Next Friday, the polls will be open at 8 o'clock in our regular primary election and The Advocate, as usual, is urging every registered colored voter to go to the polls early and do his full duty. BE SURE TO GO EARLY.

WHERE DO YOU SPEND YOUR MONEY?

The advice: Don't spend your money where you cannot obtain work is being heralded to all parts of the country by the Negro press. It has certainly resulted in good wherever the advice has been heeded especially in the larger cities. The problem of unemployment demands that as a race we get some consideration for the money we spend. The most effective way to get employment is to spend your money where some of our group are employed when possible to do so.

DISCUSSING AND FUSSING

We, as a race, are wasting entirely too much valuable time discussing and fussing about who likes and dislikes us. The sensible thing to do is to cut it out and go ahead doing the honorable things and living an upright life. Respect and success will surely come for it is an evident fact that if you can make good, you will find plenty of friends. What some people think you will not help much nor will it hold you back. Your success or failure in life depends upon your own efforts.

Those 317 prisoners burned to death in the Ohio penitentiary, whatever their faults, were not condemned to death. Yet they were killed in the last analysis by society which was heartlessly indifferent to gross overcrowding and did not provide so much as a proper system of discipline among guards for meeting the possible emergency of fire. However black the crime of desperate prisoners who may have set the fire, however grave the guilt of panic stricken officials who would not or could not open cell doors, the main criminal in this latest prison tragedy once more is society itself.

W. R. LOVELL, Pastor "A Friendly Church with a Community Spirit" Established in 1862

"Jesus Teaching in the Temple" will be the subject of the Sunday School lesson.

At the morning service Rev. W. R. Lovell will preach on "Things that Hinder Portland Negroes."

The Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30. In observance of "Good-Will Day" the topic will be, "What Are the Causes of War?"

The pastor will preach at 7:30 on "Faithful Christians." The service will be concluded at 8 P. M. to permit the members and friends to hear the message of Dean William Pickens, who speaks at Bethel Church at 8:30 P. M.

The Financial Campaign continues apace. Reports last Sunday brought the total close to $550.00, and special efforts are being made this week to raise $200.00.

Don't forget the Big Annual Bar-B-Q on Friday May 30. Mr. J. Thorn will be in charge. That means everything when speaking of barbecues.

Bishop J. W. Martin in a letter to the Pastor sends greetings to his many friends in Portland, and announces his early departure for the East to attend the commencement at Livingstone College, Salisbury, N. C., and to hold Missouri and Michigan conference in the month of June. The Bishop will visit Portland on his return from the East.

Little Miss "Gwenney" Hooker will be on the job as usual with her interesting Endeavor League program at 6:45 p. m. Miss Louise Randolph will present the members of "Junior League" in program at this service. Encourage the young folks.

The most excellent compliments have been received relative to the radio program presented over station "K KL" last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Jesse Coles-Grayson sang and Mrs. Jesse Flowers accompanied her. Tune in for the Bethel program this Sunday at 2:45 P. M.

Bethel's "Spick and Span Clean-Up Campaign" started off with a bang last Monday night. Twelve Captains will conduct the campaign and they have vowed to make Bethel a "beauty spot."

Be sure to do your bit to dress up the church. Let's go!

All organizations are working well in anticipation of our District Conference which is called to meet in Portland in June. The church must be presentable and our plans completed to receive and honor our guests at this time. Every club in the church will participate, in some way, in the greeting which we will give delegates and friends from Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana and California. If you are a loyal "Bethelite" we expect you to prove it.

DIGESTING THE NEWS

By Clifford C. Mitchell

"GO-TO-HIGH SCHOOL, GO-TO-COLLEGE" is the slogan that became nationally known during the recent (May 4-11) annual observance of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

This organization, created in 860, is a nationally recognized race fraternity with accredited representatives in practically every state in the union. This column finds interest in the organization slogan and what it suggests.

At this particular time of the year, throughout the land, there are hundreds and thousands of fond parents who are proud in the fact that their boy or girl is about to graduate from high school or college. For every such parent there is one or more youths who feel that with their graduation they are capable and prepared to go forth and conquer the world.

From a practical racial and economic standpoint however where is the youth to go after he finishes high school or college? Perhaps this can best be answered by analyzing the experience of past colored graduates?

Nine out of ten graduates find themselves, after finishing their years of schooling, in a pitiable financial condition. They have exhausted the resources of their parents who through continual toil and sacrifices permitted the youth to enjoy his scholastic term.

In none of the professions (excepting teaching) are they able to enter and receive or earn a living wage without experiencing years of effort in building up a practice or reputation.

For the race there are but few hospitals offering openings to internes or nurses without considerable effort and delay in securing appointments.

As a race we have no business yet established that will absorb the output of our graduates. Our nearest approach being in the Insurance field.

Graduates have been forced to seek strictly servile and menial positions. Any white employer, be he a bootlegger or merchant, can equip his household, from valet to chauffeur,

EXCELLA

PAJAMAS FOR THE KITCHEN

The lounging pajamas which found such favor with the smart world last year because of their comfort, non-chalance and generally relaxed air now invade the kitchen—as witness this new model. The blouse has a trim V-neck finished with contrasting revers collar and a bow. The trousers hang straight and loosely from a yoke, giving plenty of freedom. The back belt buttons over in front. The trousers may be converted into short trunks; and sleeves are provided. Here it is attractive in printed cotton; it would be equally happy in gingham. Excella Pattern No. 3157. Sizes 12 to 40, 25 cents.
