Resentment is a tree that bears only fruit of misery.—Chinese Philosophy.

The passing of Mrs. Anna Eudora Peek marks the passing of a woman who spent a useful life in the community and whose work will live on after her. She was dearly beloved by both white and colored and during her illness she set such a standard of cheerfulness and happiness that will be hard to emulate by mere man. To the devoted husband who did all in his power to make her long illness bright and cheerful, and to the other bereaved ones, The Advocate extends its sympathy.

N. A. A. C. P. and Lynching

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, greatly alarmed over the increase in lynching in 1930 over those for 1929, is drafting a new Federal anti-lynching law to be introduced in Congress when it next convenes. As a natural sequence, Colored people throughout the country will be called on to help pass the bill. How can they do it? It is not likely that Congress will convene before the November election, and as there will be a number of candidates seeking berths in the U. S. Congress—upper and lower—the colored race can well find out if these candidates will vote for the passage of the proposed bill, thus making lynching a Federal crime, before pledging their votes.

Generalities will not do, according to the association, but each candidate should be required to answer specifically the question as to whether or not he will vote on the measure, if elected.

Eighteen verified and five unverified lynchings for the year 1930, compared against 12 for 1929, are sufficient cause for the association, as well as all people who believe in law and order, to take such a step.

The very fact that these lynchings have occurred, and little or nothing done to punish the lynchings is sufficient evidence that the states have proven their inability to cope with this national game. More power to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People!

"We Do" . . . NOT!

"In Portland We Do!" We do lie down on the job politically speaking all during the year and until just a few weeks prior to an election. Then every "Tom" "Dick" and "Harry" gets busy politically. And "politically" with reference to these individuals, means "financially." "Financially" means all the money they can misrepresent out of the pockets of the candidates or their managers. Men who hardly know when an election is to be held, to say nothing of the men and measures to be decided on, suddenly spring into political limelight.

They are the ones who can corral and "deliver the Negro vote" for a sum certain in money. They work in divers ways—they might be anywhere from a boot-legger to a lawyer—but, according to them, they have great "influence."

out of his own personal business. This man personally knows some Colored individual; it doesn't matter who he is—what he is—where he came from—where he is going—what he knows—what he does not know, etc., ad infinitum—the only requirement being if he is Colored—whom he has helped—or just whom he has seen for a number of times—he may be the family bootlegger or he may be the family handy-man. But if that individual tells the candidate—this successful business man—that he can get the Colored vote, chances are that candidate—that successful business man—will suspend all business rules and principles and "hire" that fellow on the spot to handle the "colored end of his campaign."

Now this sort of attitude and practice on the part of the candidates are highly insulting to intelligent colored voters (in Oregon Colored voters are intelligent) who wish to be reached by the same intelligent methods employed in reaching the intelligent white voters.

If such representatives are used as just above described, let them be supplementary and not use them as representatives for they might be better known among their own race and may leave a bad taste in Mr. Colored Voters' mouth, against the candidate he represents.

The newspapers, the radio, intelligent personal workers, are used to carry the message to the white voters. Why not use like methods for reaching the Colored voters, Mr. Candidate!

Don't fail to register. The books will be open at the Court House for the purpose until October 4. Your vote will be needed on November 6.

Mr. Blease Is Retired

The State of South Carolina seems to have taken advantage of the recent primary election to do not only itself but the rest of the nation a good turn. Cole Blease was never exactly an ornament to the U. S. Senate. As a defender of lynching, a scoffer at this Constitution and a drinking dry, he was often rather hard to put up with.

Now, South Carolina has retired him. James F. Byrnes will replace him, and it is hardly stretching things to say that both South Carolina and the U. S. Senate will be better off.

Blease represented the noisy, Matant type of "state-manship" that the country can very well do without. The voters of South Carolina are to be congratulated.—Portland Daily News, Sept. 18.

Mrs. Lena Bowers, 293 Ivy St., has returned to Portland from an extended trip East. She reports a very pleasant trip.

IN THE REALM of Society

Pollyann, Society Editor

The Misses Nellie Franklin and Violet Hooker were joint hostesses for a pretty dancing party at the home of the former, 1405 East Davis street on last Wednesday evening for the pleasure of Miss Madeline Shipman who was here visiting her sister, Mrs. De-Norval Unthank. Miss Shipman who is president of the Y.W.C.A. at Howard University departed Thursday for Washington to re-enter Howard University where she is a student.

Mrs. Leonard Crosswhite, Mesdames, Ida Schweich and Ella Smith have returned from a very pleasant sojourn at Gearhart. During their stay there, on Tuesday, they were dinner and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Badger. The Badgers also took them for a lovely drive to Seaside and Astoria.

On Monday the Culture Club met at Mrs. Ruth Flowers, formed a body and visited The Martin Beauty Shop. They also presented Mrs. Robena Martin with a gorgeous basket of cut flowers.

Miss Helen Logan and Mr. Huron Melker of St. Paul will be married on Sunday afternoon at the family residence, 358 Interstate Avenue. The ceremony will be followed by a reception beginning at 6 o'clock. The groom-elect is a brother of Mrs. McKinley Taylor.

Rev. and Mrs. Daniel G. Hill Jr. left early last Wednesday by automobile for Oakland, California. They were accompanied by Buddy and Doris, their youngest children and Miss Maxine Maxwell.

Merriman Maxwell motored to Portland Thursday.

Miss Geneva Turner who graduated last June from Franklin High, will enter the University of Oregon when school opens in September.

Mrs. John Mapps of Spokane is expected in Portland soon to visit her sister, Mrs. Jerry Turner and family.

Miss Maxine Maxwell was the inspiration for a delicious dinner party Sunday given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jamison at their lovely home, 1190 Holgate street. Additional guests were Miss Christalae Maxwell and Rev. and Mrs. Daniel G. Hill, Jr., and family. Miss Maxine Maxwell who has been making her home for several months with the Jamisons, left Wednesday for Los Angeles for an indefinite stay. Before leaving for California, however, she spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Maxwell in Salem.

Mrs. Thelma Flowers was presented a beautiful set of crystal dinner plates by Mrs. Margaret Cain last Saturday.

The Oregon Belles Marching Club was entertained Tuesday night by Anna May Cochran.

The Vigilantes Club was entertained Wednesday night by Mrs. R. H. Camp at her residence on Failing street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams were delightful hosts at a beautifully appointed dinner last Sunday evening at their residence, 1660 East 14th street N., honoring Mrs. H. D. Fuller, president of the Culture Club and prominent church and social worker. The table from which the Spanish repast was served was extremely attractive with hand embroidered cover adorned with pretty cut glass, silverware, and English china and pink gladioli. At the table were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanton and son and Mrs. Beatrice Cannady.

Mrs. Eula Anthony of Seattle, Wn., accompanied by her youngest children, Marion and Junior arrived in Portland Tuesday from Los Angeles where they have spent the past seven weeks vacationing with friends. They are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Marshall, 464 Buffalo street until Sunday when they will resume their trip home. Mrs. Anthony reports a very pleasant trip. She also stated that the youngest daughter has gained quite a reputation as a dancer and singer and some steps have been taken to get her into the motion picture field.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Foster and Mrs. Deiz entertained for the pleasure of Mr. Henry Sanders of Kansas City, Kan., with a motor trip to Seaside last Saturday, remaining until Monday. This week-end will be passed by Mr. Sanders and Mrs. Deiz, his niece, in Seattle with Mrs. Pearl Young, a relative. Mr. Sanders is Mrs. R. F. Foster's brother.

Mrs. Henrietta Marshall was hostess to the regular Wednesday morning meeting of the Esperanto Breakfast Club at her home, 164 Buffalo street. A delicious two-course breakfast was served by the hostess from a table made exquisitely beautiful with its dainty lace cover and crystal table ware. At the close of the meal, Mrs. Mamie Stanton presented the hostess with a beautiful radio lamp, a gift from the club in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Following a brief business session the instructor, Beatrice Cannady gave a talk on the Negro in the Political Life of the Nation. This was interesting and informing and greatly appreciated by the members. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Nona Deiz, at 436 Margurite Avenue.

Mr. Marion Young gave a birthday party in honor of his wife, Mrs. Eunice M. Young. A delightful luncheon was served. The hostess received some very lovely gifts. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bagley, Miss Jones and Mr. Joe

It will indeed be a very pleasant surprise to the friends of Mrs. Mamie Pickett and Joseph S. Patterson to know they were married during this week. Their many friends wish them many happy years of married bliss and success.

The Misses Gwendolyn and Violet Hooker entertained Miss Madeline Shipman at a theatre party one evening last week.

Mrs. Henrietta Marshall is somewhat of a farmerette. This is easily believed when one sees the lovely large spuds she has grown in her vegetable garden.
