WHAT DO YOU WANT MONEY FOR? INDEPENDENCE? COMFORT? INCOME? TRAVEL? A HOME? EMERGENCIES? EDUCATE YOUR CHILDREN? Whatever your object, where can you win a Hudson "8" or Gold Cash Prizes in the next few weeks?

How the Prizes Will Be Awarded

Every active participant in THE ADVOCATE'S great Gift distribution will receive either a cash commission, a gift of gold, or an automobile.

Then the second highest candidate will receive $100 in gold; the third highest, $60 in gold; the third highest, $50 in gold, and the fifth highest, $40 in gold.

And all other non-prize winning candidates (that is, those who do not win one of the above listed gifts) will each receive a cash commission equal to 10 per cent of all money he or she has turned in for subscriptions, according to the rules of the campaign.

This plan assures that each and every candidate who does not win one of the big prizes, will nevertheless receive a commission of 10 per cent—for every effort they put forth in this campaign.

IMPORTANT! FIRST-WEEK COUPON 200,000 EXTRA VOTES!

This coupon when accompanied with three yearly subscriptions (or their equivalent) to THE ADVOCATE, entitles the candidate to 200,000 extra votes if subscriptions are turned in during the first week of their entry.

SCHEDULE OF VOTES AND SUBSCRIPTION PRICE OF THE ADVOCATE

Table with 4 columns: Period, Price, Votes, and Years. It details the subscription schedule and the number of votes awarded for each price point over a six-year period.

The above schedule of votes, which is on a declining basis, positively will not be raised during the competition. (See opening announcement). A special ballot, good for 100,000 extra votes, will be issued on every "club" of $12.00 turned in on subscriptions.

Eight-Act Vaudeville Returns to Orpheum

Of all the sophisticated roles that have fallen to Lowell Sherman it is claimed that his part in "Bachelor Apartments" which comes to the RKO-Orpheum theatre Thursday is by far the best.

Irene Dunne, the star of "Cimarron," plays the feminine lead, with Mae Murray, Norman Kerry and a host of others in the supporting cast.

The second of the eight-act shows and the first built under the new intact show idea in New York has Dave Apollon and his distinguished company as the headliner.

Mills and Bobbie are comedy character artists; Mapor, Sharp and Minor are harmony specialists; Homer Romaine does aerial stunts; the "Rangers" have close harmony; Marve Jensen is a dancing Swede; Snell and Vernon perform on the Roman rings, and Hugh Johnson has "Magical Moments" to complete the excellent stage show.

Mel Blanc and the RKO Westerners will present more of their popular specialties.

United Artists

"Trader Horn" with Harry Carey, Edwin Booth and Duncan Renaldo, the three leading principals. Nine months were spent in Africa filming the scenes for the picture. Said to be the greatest accomplishment in screen history.

Fox Broadway

Norma Shearer with Robert Montgomery in "Strangers May Kiss." Extra midnight shows at 11:15. Now playing its second week.

Paramount

Richard Barthelmess in "The Finger PoPints," Fay Wray, Regis Toomey, plus Greater Stage Season! Fanchon & Marco's "Hollywood Collegians" Idea; "Fashion Fancies" gowned by Chas. F. Berg.

Fox-Hollywood

Today, Dracula—coming tomorrow Marie Dressler with Polly Moran in "Reducing."

Local News

Eddie Washington who has been ill for some time is able to be up and about again to the delight of friends.

DON'T SPEND YOUR MONEY WHERE YOU CANNOT WORK!

W. Cochran and W. LaBel are contenders in the Meier & Frank golf tournament.

Eddie Norton is serving a 30-day sentence, having been found guilty of larceny recently in municipal court. Two revolvers and a pair of hair clippers from a barbershop where he was employed is said to have comprised his loot.

Tom Brown, window washer, was found guilty of assault in Judge Stadter's court on the 16th and fined $25. Brown struck William F. Meyer over the head with a broom handle when he peered into a window which Brown was washing.

Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull left Thursday for Los Angeles where she will deliver an address on Prison Reform before the Convention of the Pacific Coast Protective Association. Mrs. Trumbull will represent the Oregon Prison Association.

Clyde Grant, 20-year-old youth who is serving a sentence in the county jail for disorderly conduct was treated at the emergency hospital Sunday for serious cuts to four fingers of the right hand, alleged to have been inflicted by Tom Pitts, who is serving a sentence for a narcotic violation.

Deputy Jailor Cameron said the two were not fighting but were involved in some sort of altercation, and that Grant grasped a sharp instrument which Pitts held, and that the other, in pulling it away from him, had inflicted the wounds. All four fingers were cut to the bone, and a tendon was believed to have been severed.

After being treated at the emergency hospital, Grant was ordered sent to St. Vincents.

WOMAN CUT IN FIGHT

Henry Hall, colored, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, was bound over to the grand jury in Municipal Judge Stadter's court Monday morning. Hall was arrested after inflicting a 6-inch knife wound on the breast of Lou Robertson, colored at 382 Willingams avenue. Hall admitted inflicting the wound and the girl had been quarreling.

Miss Robertson was checking the flow of blood when Patrolman V. H. Cox arrived. The girl declared "her old man, Henry Hall," did the cutting, Hall admitted it.

L. M. McGee, a recent arrival in Portland was a pleasant caller at The Advocate office this week and took out a year's subscription. Call again, Mr. McGee.

Friends and acquaintances of W. B. Lawrence of Cathlam, Can., will be saddened to learn the news of his death. Mr. Lawrence visited Portland some years ago and stopped with his brother, the late Robt. Lawrence.

Roy Garnett, formerly a waiter at The Hotel Portland is in Seattle where he reports he has received employment.

Dr. and Mrs. DeNorval Unthank have purchased a beautiful, modern, 4-room bungalow, in Westmoreland and are moving into it this week.

John Moore, will speak on "Lynch Law in America" at the open forum Sunday night, 8 P.M. in the Workers' Hall, 191 1/2 Third street. The forum is under the auspices of the International Labor Defense.
