MOTHERS' DAY

Tomorrow, May 10, is designated as Mothers' Day. Throughout the nation from every pulpit will be heard the name of mother spoken in the greatest reverence. Mother will be honored in many ways for she is the crowning glory of creation. But there will be those who for some reason or other will be thoughtless, careless and dilatory—who will not think of mother; many will be far away from their homes and mothers. We urge these to drop her a line or send her a telegram or some message of love and devotion. Even tho it arrives late, she will understand and will be thankful.

NEWSPAPER MERGER

The Advocate congratulates The Daily News and the Portland Telegram upon their recent action in merging the two papers. The action is in keeping with the spirit of the times—the cutting down of overhead, curtailing duplication—yet preserving the best of the two. Their objective is to serve the people of their community in a better way in every respect. More power to the News-Telegram—may its life be long and successful!

Many inquiries have come to The Advocate office regarding Dr. and Mrs. Unthank and their recent experience in buying a home in Portland. For the benefit of those who do not know, Dr. and Mrs. Unthank are still domiciled in their newly purchased home in West Moreland. The people in that community are endeavoring to persuade the Dr. to sell, and several meetings with Dr. and Mrs. Unthank and representative colored citizens, have failed to so far alter their position.

The YOUNGER SET

(By GENEVA IVEY)

Talk about popularity, ask Lillian Bellard for the recipe. She is running a hot race for first place in both the N.A.A.C.P. and Advocate contests.

Which reminds me that the young people in and around Portland ought to put a little more enthusiasm into both contests by getting into the spirit of each and showing up the old candidates.

At the city track meet last Friday there were three colored boys participating Frank Britton of Commerce; . . . Dunn of Benson, and George Cannady, our well known athlete of Grant.

George also took part in the meet at Corvallis Oregon Saturday. Those of you who haven't had a chance to see Cannady in any sports, will have one last chance on Friday, May 22 at Multnomah Field where the city finals will be held. Others who took part in the meet at Corvallis were Britton and Dunn of Commerce and Benson respectively and Willie Torrence, of La Grande.

Miss Geraldine Turner and Miss Elaine Handsaker were among the Reed College students to go to Corvallis at the O.S.C. last week to participate in non-competitive sports.

MISS BLANCHARD TAKES THE LEAD IN CONTEST

(By N. A. C. P. Press Com.)
At the regular report meeting last Monday night at the Williams Ave., Y. W. C. A., Miss Julia Mae Blanchard forged to the front in the local N. A. C. P. Membership Contest. It marked the second weekly report and changed the standings of the contestants.

Last week, Miss Lillian Bellard was first, but she failed to hold her advantage as reports came in. Each of the contestants showed strength, and an increased power of vote getting. Miss Bellard jumped from 1200 votes to 1850 votes, which gave her second place at this stage of the race. Miss Abernathy remained in third place, but made a spectacular leap from 100 votes to 1350, a net gain of 1250 votes.

Miss Blanchard paced the field and showed the largest net gain and the largest total for the week—turning in 2200 new votes, which added to her total of 950 of last week, carried her into first place with 3150 votes.

The standings to date are:
First—Miss Blanchard . . . 3150 votes
Second—Miss Bellard . . . 1850 votes
Third—Miss Abernathy . . . 1350 votes

INDIGNANT AT RECENT VANDALISM

Case of Colored Physician's Wrecked Habitation Drives Rebuke from a Scion of a Southern Family.
(From Oregon Journal, April 30, 1931)
Underwood, Wash., April 26—To the Editor of The Journal:

An eminent Portland physician whose work is to help and heal those in suffering and pain, had his home wrecked by vandals because the doctor's skin happened to be of a different color from that of his neighbors.

The great Missionary, E. Stanley Jones, in one of his addresses before an American audience, remarked that in all probability, Jesus Christ was a Colored person, or at any rate, was of the same hue as the present-day natives of Palestine.

At the conclusion of his remarks, a lady rushed up to him and said that if Jesus Christ was Colored, then all the bottom dropped out of her religion.

One wonders what kind of religion, if any, she had; also one wonders how many preachers and churches will join The Journal in its protest against this outrage and so help this great paper in its vigorous campaign to make Portland a civilized city.

My father and grandfather were slave owners in the South. For that crime we paid in a furnace of fire and in a walling and gnashing of teeth that will be remembered as long as the world stands. I should now regard myself beneath

CONFIDENCE
Last year, thousands of persons invested more than $850,000,000 of new capital in the electrical industry. This steady flow of new capital, in spite of general business conditions, clearly demonstrates the faith of the American public in the electric utilities and their managements. Without this confidence, the industry would be unable to keep pace with the constantly increasing demands being made upon it.
