CAMPAIGN NOTES

Wednesday night, June 10, promptly at 12 o'clock, the big second period of votes goes out of effect forever. Double importance should be attached to work done by the end of this period. If you expect to be a big prize winner, you must take full advantage of the few remaining hours of the big vote campaign. Here's a point the Campaign Manager has been wanting to make for several days—if you are a candidate you are held responsible for your success in the eyes of the world. You may "pass the buck" to your own satisfaction but in the eyes of the great outside you win or lose through YOUR efforts. You are judged finally by your campaign. Results are all that count. A subscription to The Advocate is an investment, not an expense. Thru the advertisements alone, the purchaser saves many times the price in a year. Today no one has anything won. It is anybody's race at the pole—a neck and neck affair. If any candidate has any idea in his or her head that he or she is "sitting pretty" in the car class, the Campaign Manager advises them to awake and rub their eyes. There is a fable about the hare and the tortoise, you know.

SECOND PERIOD VOTE SCHEDULE

May 28 to June 10

The Following Number of Votes Will Be Given on Subscriptions

- 1-Year—If New 30,000
- If Old 10,000
- 2-Year—If New 64,000
- If Old 24,000
- 3-Year—If New 120,000
- If Old 60,000

A special Ballot—good for 100,000 extra votes—will be issued on every club of $12 turned in on subscriptions. The club may be composed of small or large subscriptions totaling $12.

100,000 Extra Votes
Will Be Given With Every Club of $12 Turned In

20,000 Extra Votes
Will Be Given for Each Year of a New Subscription Turned in Before June 10!

CAMPAIGN NOTES

Are you one of those "alibi" artists who would rather provide a makeshift alibi than really try? There are many, many subscriptions to be had this week. Why, candidates from the other side of town are getting subscriptions right from your next door neighbor. That's true, too. Are you simply "picking" passing up nine out of ten chances, or are you really trying to help yourself. Over confidence is the biggest handicap under which any candidate can work. This unwelcome handicap has caused more regrets than anything in a campaign of this kind. The only way to become a winner is to spend every possible minute getting subscriptions. Perseverance is the only winning quality. If a candidate ever expects to do anything real for himself or herself in this race, it is reasonable to expect that he or she will make the effort between now and 12 o'clock, Wednesday night, June 10. As close as the race no wstards, a few subscriptions may be the deciding factor. Your votes, Mr. Reader, may be the deciding factor in helping some candidate achieve victory or a small fortune in this campaign. Will you refuse to Help Your Friend NOW?
