CAMPAIGN NOTES

Wednesday night, June 17, promptly at 12 o'clock, the big third period of votes goes out of effect forever. Double importance should be attached to work done by the end of this period. If you expect to be a big prize winner, you must take full advantage of the few remaining hours of the big vote campaign.

Here's a point the Campaign Manager has been wanting to make for several days—if you are a candidate you are held responsible for your success in the eyes of the world. You may "pass the buck" to your own satisfaction but in the eyes of the great outside you win or lose through YOUR efforts. You are judged finally by your campaign. Results are all that count.

A subscription to The Advocate is an investment, not an expense. Through the advertisements alone, the purchaser saves many times the price in a year.

Today no one has anything won. It is anybody's race at the pole—a neck and neck affair. If any candidate has any idea in his or her head that he or she is "sitting pretty" in the car class, the Campaign Manager advises them to awake and rub their eyes. There is a fable about the hare and the tortoise, you know.

THIRD PERIOD VOTE SCHEDULE

June 10
June 17

The Following Number of Votes Will Be Given on Subscriptions

1-Year—If new	16,000
If old	6,000
2-Year—If new	44,000
If old	20,000
6-year—If new	310,000
If old	250,000

A special Ballot—good for 100,000 extra votes—will be issued on every club of $12 turned in on subscriptions. The club may be composed of small or large subscriptions totaling $12.

100,000
Extra Votes
Will Be Given With Every Club of $12 Turned In

10,000
Extra Votes
Will Be Given for Each Year of a New Subscription Turned in Before June 17

CAMPAIGN NOTES

Are you one of those "alibi" artists who would rather provide a make-shift alibi than really try? There are many, many subscriptions to be had this week. Why, candidates from the other side of town are getting subscriptions right from your next door neighbor. That's true, too. Are you simply "picking" passing up nine out of ten chances, or are you really trying to help yourself.

Over confidence is the biggest handicap under which any candidate can work. This unwelcome handicap has caused more regrets than anything in a campaign of this kind. The only way to become a winner is to spend every possible minute getting subscriptions.

Perseverance is the only winning quality.

If a candidate ever expects to do anything real for himself or herself in this race, it is reasonable to expect that he or she will make the effort between now and 12 o'clock, Wednesday night, June 17. As close as the race now stands, a few subscriptions may be the deciding factor.

Your votes, Mr. Reader, may be the deciding factor in helping some candidate achieve victory or a small fortune in this campaign. Will you refuse to Help Your Friend NOW?

TED HAITH GETS DIPLOMA FROM NORTH PACIFIC COLLEGE

Theodore A. Haith was graduated from the school of Dentistry and Pharmacy at the North Pacific College last Tuesday evening. The program which was held in the First Baptist Church, 12th and Taylor Sts., was largely attended by friends and relatives of the graduating class. Mr. Haith has maintained a high scholastic and social rating throughout his entire four year course at the school. He has also been the recipient of numerous honors, both by the school and its students. Mr. Haith has many friends in Portland, in Seattle, his home, and all up and down the coast who wish him continued success.

Mrs. Harry Ivey and daughter Mildred, and Evan K. Porter received mild but painful injuries to their heads and bodies Sunday while en route from church to their home on South 17th St. They were riding in the car with Mr. Porter when the accident occurred. All are improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Tilman are the proud parents of a baby girl born last Saturday, June 6.

Among high school graduates this June are the following: Ollie Bushnell, Dorothy Bushnell, Helena Searice, Daisy Lee Wright, Charles Rawlins, Julius Gory and George Cannady.

Brunette Bolin, former Portlander, is back from Oakland.

The Portland Journal of June 2, carried an article about Hughie Arnett of Tacoma, winning a Columbia scholarship. Hughie graduated from the College of Puget Sound last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nelson have moved from 378 Vancouver Ave., to 225 Sheridan street.

W. A. Neely was a pleasant caller at the Advocate office last week and paid for two years subscription. Come again, Mr. Neely.

CONFEDERATES GET BACK PAY

Columbia, S. C.—(CNS)—The one hundred and forty-four colored citizens of South Carolina, who because of actual service of one sort or another in the Confederate army are eligible to receive pensions, will soon get their money according to A. J. Beattie, comptroller general, last week.

The vouchers for the money have been sent out to the probate judges over the state from whose office the money will be given directly into the hands of the pensioners.

THANKS GOD

(Continued from Page 1) Preachers are all wrong and that God is in favor of gambling as a means of obtaining a secure position in life. Ministers should include in their sermons a text on "Pray to God before you buy your tickets for the sweepstakes."

The press of the ruling class dramatize such winnings. This has the effect of detracting the minds of the masses from the miserableness of their position and creating in them a feeling of hope that they too may be lucky. By this means the various rackets such as "policy" and "numbers" bleed the workers who are always hoping to get lucky.

The way out for the millions of exploited masses under the exploitation and oppression of the landlords of the South will come thru organization for struggle of the Negro and white workers against the boss system of starvation.
