HIGH-HANDED METHODS

"It is high time that Baptist leaders throughout the administration begin thinking for themselves and fearlessly and publicly take their stand against this policy of personal spite and impeachment."
"It is high time that Negro Baptist newspapers in every state of the union sound the alarm and every leader everywhere with one scintilla of red blood in his veins take up the battle cry, until all our constituency become aroused and awakened to the impending peril hanging over every official or anybody else in our Convention who dares to think or speak any conviction that fails to accord with the powers that be."
The above paragraphs were copied from an editorial appearing in "The Georgia Baptist", one of the oldest and most influential papers published in the south. It appears that the National Baptist Convention, Inc., has been using methods in administration of the affairs of the church and the editor of the "Georgia Baptist" is directing attention to the evil and its devastating effects if allowed to continue.
We might correctly state that not only in the Baptist Convention, Inc., do we find these methods employed, but it is true of nearly every organization and institution and when some reformist sets about to correct the same, he finds himself ousted and ostracised. Unless a united mass effort is used to combat such conditions, it is useless to try and change them.

What of The Future?

Unless something is done or some means found for employment, the outlook for many Negroes in Portland this winter is anything but encouraging. With many let-out of the R.R. and hotel service, few are left with paying jobs. If it were not for the domestic service rendered by our women, it would be a tragic situation.
The local branch of the N.A.A.C.P. held a timely meeting last Sunday upon the subject and it is hoped some definite program of procedure, beneficial to all concerned will be worked out.

ZION CHURCH NOTES

Sunday is Children's Day throughout the A.M.E. Zion denomination. A special sermon to children and parents and friends will be the main feature of the morning service. Christian Education will be the subject of the evening service. Another barbecue will be held Saturday, July 4.
The Rev. E. J. Magruder, pastor of First A.M.E. Zion church, San Francisco, and former pastor here, will hold the third quarterly conference, July 3 and 6. He will preach at both services Sunday, July 5 and administer Holy Communion. Magruder has many friends in Portland who will be pleased to see him and hear him preach.
George Cannady, president of Varick C.E. Society has been named a delegate to the Golden Jubilee convention meeting in San Francisco, July 11-16.

Congratulations

The Advocate congratulates the president and her chairman of the Literary Research club upon its success in winning the first award at the recent Federation Meet.

It is evidence of what team work will accomplish coupled with real talent and efficiency. The achievement should encourage the club to try for bigger and better things next year.

AUTHORITY IN WRONG HANDS

The shooting of two Mexican students by Oklahoma officers is another incident when authority was placed in wrong hands. It is getting all too frequent in law officers being too quick with their guns; it is too late to investigate after a man has been shot down—human life is getting cheap in this country!

If these youth had been Negroes, the incident would be closed—but as they are citizens of a friendly nation, somebody has got to pay for this brutal mistake!

New Addition to

Out of the West comes a new leader of Negro ethics, Eugene Henry Huffman, author of "How I Am Civilized," a satire on the white man's civilization.
Frank but unembittered, Mr. Huffman continues his discussion of the White v. Negro, inequalities and prejudices, in a series of articles which will appear in The Advocate.
Watch for them!

Don't forget Varick Christian Endeavor's Silver ea tomorrow (Sunday) from 2 to 5 P.M. at the home of Geo. Cannady, president, 520 East 26th St. North.

Huffman's Sayings

To the "Skipper" on The Advocate:
Dear Skipper: I see by the papers that the Negro "Attack-i-tus" upon virtuous(?) white women is still raging in the South. But now doesn't it strike you as being strange that the Dusky American gentleman North and West of the Mason and Dixon almost never contracts this harassing and trouble-making disease? Is it a disease peculiar to dark gentlemen inhabiting the Land of Cotton only? Of course I'll admit that I am just naturally dumb from my neck up, and from my waist line down. But, still, I am wondering!
Yours until the cows cease to low,
—Eugene Henry Huffman.

IN THE REALM of Society

By Rosalie Bird

Miss Rosalie Bird, 681 Gantenbein Avenue Phone MU 1686

Miss Nellie Allen in company with her brothers, William Duncan and Robert Allen, arrived in Portland Tuesday to pass the summer vacation with their father, W. D. Allen, proprietor of the Hotel Medley. Miss Allen graduated June 3 with Mus. B. degree from Oberlin Conservatory of Music. On that day she played her senior recital in Warner concert hall at the university. Among interested auditors in the audience were Messrs. William Duncan and Robert Allen who had motored from Washington to attend the recital and other commencement activities. An interesting coincident was the fact that just three years ago to the day William Duncan Allen played his senior recital in the same hall. Since graduating from Oberlin, Mr. Allen studied at the Damrosch school of music in New York, on a scholarship which he won while at Oberlin. For the past two years he has been a professor of piano, organ and history of music at Howard University in Washington. Robert Allen attended Howard the past year where he was an honor student. He also was an assistant in the office of the National Benefit Insurance Co. All three are graduates of Portland public schools with honors and their many friends here are happy to have them home for summer. They motored all the way in their Ford Victoria, making it in six driving days. They stopped in Chicago with an aunt, Mrs. Hattie Patterson and in Omaha with Mrs. Deborah Williams, a friend of the family.

Mrs. Clara Mayberry, mother of Mrs. Randolph K. Baldwin, has moved from Marshfield, Mo., to Los Angeles where she is making her future home with her son, William Mayberry. In August, Mrs. Baldwin, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Wilber Mercier will visit Mrs. Mayberry on their vacation.

Pollyann Reed writes The Advocate from Denver that she is having a very fine trip. "On the go all the time." The message is signed "Shirely Blue Reed and her ma."

The Joymakers party held Thursday of last week at the Franklyn home, 1405 E. Davis street, was reported to have been largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. He affair was the last meeting of the club for the present season. Music was furnished by Hubert Lewis, saxophone, Chuck Smith and Ed Plummer at the piano. The party ended with the reading of the Club's annual poem by Crystine Smith, secretary.

Mrs. Nadeen Porter was the matinee guest of Miss Rosalie Bird, Wednesday, June 24, at the Broadway through the courtesy of the editor, Mrs. Cannady.

Mrs. W. G. Bird and daughter spent Saturday, June 29, at Seaside.

Mrs. Blanche Brown has moved from 126 Graham Avenue to 1646 Division street.

Bishop J. W. Martin of Los Angeles has moved to St. Louis, Mo.

A very delightful dance and entertainment was given Monday evening, June 22nd sponsored by the Booster's club of the Elks. Mr. George Harper, is to be commended for his work in getting up such a splendid program. The entertainment during the intermission was furnished by the Gibson family, headliners at the RKO last week. Mrs. Ada McGill presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Louise Caswell entertained Bahas and friends at a Feast at her home last Wednesday night.

Mrs. Henrietta Marshall is occupying her property on Buffalo street temporarily and until she can arrange suitable tenants to occupy same before she returns to her home in Ogden, Utah. Mrs. Marshall has many friends in Portland with whom she will pass sometime before taking her leave. She will also spend a week with Mrs. Lynch-Brown in Longview, Washington.

Mrs. J. W. Latimer is spending ten days with relatives in San Francisco.

Miss Teresa Hayden, is domiciled with Mrs. Ada McGill, at 641 Union Ave. North.

Miss Kathryn Boyd, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Henry Allen Boyd of Nashville will be given in marriage today to Dr. Milton Maceo Cloud at Mt. Olivet Baptist church, Nashville. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The couple will be at home 800 E. 40th St. Los Angeles after July 15.

Attorney John H. Jamison will spend his summer vacation in Los Angeles.

Dr. and Mrs. DeNorval Unthank are enjoying their new Chevrolet sedan.

Randolph K. Baldwin, popular railroad man, reports that during his stay over in Omaha, Nebraska, last week he met Miss Margie Danley, former secretary of the Williams Ave. branch Y.W.C.A. in Portland. He states that Miss Danley is well and doing finely in her Y. work in Omaha. Omaha people in general speak in glowing terms of her work, Mr. Randolph said. He also had the pleasure of visiting the miniature golf course owned and operated by B. B. Cowan who is known to Portlanders. The course is unique in that it is portable—can be folded up and moved anywhere. It has 18 holes and altogether is a beautiful and interesting course.

TENNIS

(By Guy Holmes)

A large crowd enjoyed tennis last week at Fremont courts. There has been a noticeable amount of talent among the younger set, more so than has been previously noted. Several tennis enthusiasts are contemplating a tournament to be played during the summer months. A very good exhibition was offered last week by Guy Holmes and Vernon Baker, the score going to 6-4 9-7 6-3. Some of the crowd missing during last week who have been in regular attendance were Al Pierre, Prentiss Price, Lenora Henderson, Chrystalee Maxwell, Rosalie Bird and Bob Holling.

CONFIDENCE

Last year, thousands of persons invested more than $850,000,000 of new capital in the electrical industry. This steady flow of new capital, in spite of general business conditions, clearly demonstrates the faith of the American public in the electric utilities and their managements. Without this confidence, the industry would be unable to keep pace with the constantly increasing demands being made upon it.

Clifford Flowers, Phillip Moore and Ivan Cannady are among the boys who will attend Spirit Lake Camp for the summer.

The Trianon Club can boast of a very successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Mae Hill and president Benita Abernathy. A very few of the things of public attention done by the club were a part in "The Mystic Flower", a play sponsored by the Girl Reserves of the city; the annual ring ceremonial and recognition services; an all-city picnic for the girls at Rock Creek Camp.

Although these things were a great help, it was the faithfulness of the girls to their club and leader that helped them raise enough money to send a delegate to the Seabeck Conference in Seabeck, Wash. Bertie Mae Coleman, a freshman at Girls' Poly had this honor bestowed upon her, and left Friday to spend ten days at this vacation and educational conference.

The grade school girls have been just as successful as the H.S. girls. The Firefly Club under the presidency of Victoria Caston has been able to share in the ring ceremonial and recognition services as well as a few other events. This club has been able to provide enough money to send two worthy girls to the Rock Creek camp for ten days. This may be considered very good for the little club if you remember in Seabeck, Wash. Bertie Mae for the two girls at R.C. Camp is Victoria Caston and Jean Hill are the more than lucky girls who share the honors of attending an educational vacation at Rock Creek.

Leon Johnson entertained an inner circle of friends last Sunday with a delightful breakfast at his home on Eugene street honoring Brunette Bolin of Oakland.

Barbara Ellis entertained a number of the young set Wednesday night with a dancing party, honoring Bertie Mae Coleman, the delegate to Seabeck conference.

George has outgrown the camp leaving Ivan to manage alone. We know he can, too.
