

EDITORIAL PAGE

Verbal Snapshots

By W. J. Wheaton

THE ADVOCATE

Published Every Saturday at 526 East Twenty-Sixth Street N., Portland, Ore. Telephone: GARfield 7523

BEATRICE H. CANNADY, Editor and Publisher
YANCY FRANKLIN, Assistant Manager and Composer
WILLIAM PICKENS, Contributing Editor
W. J. WHEATON, Contributing Editor
ROSALIE BIRD, Society Editor and Reporter
DENORVAL UNTHANK, M. D., Health Editor
NANCY LEE, Love Editor

KITS REID, RALPH C. CLDYE AND CLIFFORD MITCHELL, Columnists
Subscription Rates (Payable in Advance): One Year, $2.50; Six Months, $1.50; Three Months, $1.00
Entered as Second-Class Matter in the Post Office at Portland, Oregon, Under the Act of 1912

WHERE TO BUY THE ADVOCATE

Rutherford's Barber Shop, 340 Williams avenue, in Foster's Pool Hall.
The Elks building, 310 Williams avenue.
Medley Hotel Restaurant, Interstate Avenue (in Medley Hotel).
Friendship Pool Hall, Sixth, near Glisan (West Side).
Holliday and Holliday, 125 North Sixth street.

THE SOLUTION

One of the vexing problems that confront many employers and their employees—those of the latter who do not have their own homes, and "stay on the place", is the problem of where the employees will entertain their company.

Some have such arrangements as to prohibit them from ever having guests to call to see them; others have been accorded the privilege of receiving their guests in the dining room when their employers have no company and are not inconvenienced thereby. Many girls meet their beaux on the street corners and receive them on the back porch steps or in the kitchen. Many do not want to do this and hence deny themselves social courtesies extended to them by their friends because they have no place where they can return the compliments.

A few evenings ago, a splendid solution to this problem was demonstrated when a wealthy white man and his wife opened their spacious home in a fashionable neighborhood to their employees so that they might have a proper place to entertain their guests, many of whom has extended them social courtesies.

This is as it should be, of course, but how many employers do this? How many are big enough to think that way about it?

Nothing was lost—no one was belittled by doing this beautiful thing, but a great deal of genuine happiness was given to their worthy employees and a large number of colored boys and girls, their guests.

It is the solution.

WHAT!

41 members of the board of directors and seven more to be added, each representing a different organization, is the newest wrinkle in Negro organizations in Portland.

This number does not include all the clubs, churches and other organizations—there are still more!

More evidence supporting our contention that the Negro in Portland is over-organized.

Think of it—more than a half hundred organizations among a "mere handful" of poor colored people! No wonder we are poor—we will always be so if we do not learn to cut out the waste.—Waste in energy, time, talent, money, etc. etc.

As we have said before, the personnel of each organization I practically the same with slight variations here and there in the clubs. And no one who spreads himself over so many organizations can be of much help to any of them.

Organization alone does not mean success. The colored people in Portland can never hope to succeed until they learn the lesson of friendship and love among themselves. They must really be born again. Envy, hate, back-biting, jealousy, distrust will always keep them apart if they are not overcome. And Negro organizations will never become a vital factor in the community a long as these evils exist.

OUR ADVERTISERS

From time to time we are getting new subscribers in our columns and it depends largely upon how much patronage they receive from the colored people as to how long they remain with us. We are beginning this week the advertisement of a cleaning establishment which is located in Alameda. This firm puts out the best of work at prices fabulously low. The Advocate urges its readers to patronize this firm as well as its other advertisers. Mention that you saw their ads in The Advocate when trading with them.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN

On every hand one hears "confessions" of religionists who have left the church behind them and have entered into what they believe to be a closer relationship with the one and only one Great Source. Among these individuals are to be found former pioneers in the church, men and women who have, after years of sacrifice and devotion to their denomination, testify to the uselessness of denominations and the uselessness and increasing expense of many unnecessary church edifices throughout the land.

They say that in the church are to be found so many hypocrites, reprobrates and unsaved souls that they feel as if they were in strange company. They are coming to realize what many have already done; the fundamental oneness of all religions; the oneness of the world of humanity and the uselessness of creeds, dogmas and forms—the superficials of the orthodox religions.

The revolt may be seen all along the line but it is only a small segment of the great army who are experiencing a new religious awakening. The only way for the church to save itself is to make itself the servant of God and humanity.

GIVING PROCLAMATION

The first thanks. President Washington, at the joint request of Congress, after much spirited discussion for and against, proclaimed and issued his proclamation on October 3, 1789, calling for a national day of Thanksgiving on November 26. The original proclamation reads as follows:

"By the President of the United States of America.
"Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey his will, to be grateful for his benefits, and humbly to implore his protection and favor; and Whereas both Houses of Congress have by their joint committee requested me to recommend to the People of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity to establish a form of government for their safety and happiness."

"Now, therefore, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 28th day of November next, to be devoted by the People of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being who is the beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be done in this world, and to the humble thanksgiving for his kind care and protection of the People of this country previous to their becoming a Nation—for the signal and manifold mercies and the favorable interpositions of his providence, which we have experienced in the course and conclusion of the late war—for the great degree of tranquility, union, and plenty, which we have since enjoyed—for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government for our safety and happiness, and particularly the national One now lately instituted—for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; and in general for all the great and various favors which he hath been pleased to confer upon us."

"And also that we may then unite in most humble offers, our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations, with thanksgiving for his mercies and other transgressions—to enable us all, whether in public or private stations, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually—to render our national government a blessing to all the People by constantly being a Government of wisdom, justice, and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed—to protect and guard all Sovereigns and Nations (especially such as have shown kindness to us) and to bless them with good Government, and in general to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science among them and us—ang generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as he alone knows to be best."

"Given under my hand at the City of New York, the third day of October in the year of our Lord 1789.
(Signed) GEORGE WASHINGTON"

EDITOR SPEAKS BEFORE CLUB

"Changing Racial Attitudes" was the subject of an address delivered by Mrs. Beatrice Cannady-Franklin before the Social Science Club of Reed College at the home of Professor and Mrs. G. Bernard Noble in East Moreland on last Wednesday evening. A large group of students and some of the teachers listened to the speaker as she discussed a program which she said would change attitudes and thus change the behavior of individuals toward each other.

A group of letters from Portland High School students stating the attitude before and after the study of the Negro were read and discussed by the speaker. "These experiments" she stated which were conducted by two high school teachers assisted by the speaker, "prove beyond a doubt that a sincere effort was made by the students to think the thing through and nearly all of them show a fair and just attitude." Examples also of the changed attitudes of white youths in Oregon colleges were cited in support of her thesis. At the close of Mrs. Franklin's address which consumed an hour, another was devoted to answering questions by the students. Practically all of the students expressed appreciation for the speaker's message and several made appointments for personal interviews and for help in assembling information for their theses.

The host served dainty refreshments. Miss Catherine Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop accompanied Mrs. Franklin.

A Baby in Your Home

I have an honest proven treatment for sterility due to functional weakness which I have used with wonderful success in thousands of cases. It is the result of 20 years experience and has been pronounced by hundreds of married women as the best and most reliable for years, who became happy mothers. If you will send me your name and address I will gladly send you a treatment and a booklet, "A Baby in Your Home" which tells how to use it and make other things married women should know. Both will be sent free in plain wrapper. Write today. Dr. H. W. Ritters, Suite 1111 7th & Felix, St. Joseph, Mo.

ISSUES PROCLAMATION

From the office of S. W. Green, Supreme Chancellor, at New Orleans, La., has issued a proclamation to the Pythian lodges to assess its members at $1 each so that work on the Pythian Temple Sanitarium can be continued. The local lodge, Syracuse, K. of P. has been sent this proclamation No. 3.

SYRACUSE LODGE NO. 1 Knights of Pythias

Meets every second and fourth Friday evenings in each month at the ELKS NEW HALL, Williams Avenue and McMillan St.

E. D. CANNADY, C.C.
WYATT W. WILLIAMS, K. of R. S.

MUSTEROLE

BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PASTER AT ALL DRUGGISTS

PATENTS

Time counts in applying for patents. Don't delay in protecting your invention. Get a model for instructions or write for FREE BOOK, "How to Obtain a Patent" and "Record of Invention" form. No charge for information on how to proceed. Communications strictly confidential. Prompt, careful, efficient service.
CLARENCE A. O'BRIEN
Registered Patent Attorney
43-A Security Services & Commercial Bank Building
(Directly across street from Patent Office)
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Because of its activity in opposing the election of candidates for office who placed partisanship above their duty to a human cause; the Association for the Advancement of Colored People has been, is being, adversely criticized. But take a good slant at the critics, and listen to eulogies of Negro benefactors? who land the North Carolina jurist, Judge John J. Parker, defeated for the confirmation as associate justice of the United States supreme court. First, comes Lafayette Hersaw. He went tops of brine because he could transfer his vote to New Jersey and cast for Parker. Then comes next a director in the Capital News service, who asserted that the campaign waged by the N.A.A.C.P. against the supporters of the North Carolina judge was but a ruse to boost the salaries of the officers of the association. Following is a name to confound with. It stands forth as the great exponent of racial desuetude. The inactivities for racial progress, except for personal political profit, of Perry Howard, Mississippi, need no comment. It is obvious. Then, with the eloquence of a statesman, sports forth the "little Napoleon" Grand Exalted Ruler of the I. B. P. O. Elks of the World, one of the biggest of Negro fraternal organizations, J. Pinley Wilson. The press reports Finley as not alone being satisfied with rapping the National Association but saying an eloquent tribute to the North Carolina justice who made his "love" for the Negro manifest in one of the most bitter diatribes since the memorable decision of chief justice Haney. That is the case of lawyers which harbor their birthright for the "mess of pottage." They would press harder the crown of humiliation now resting on the brow of the Race. They would fasten still firmer the chain of inhibitions that impedes racial advancement. They are furthering their interest against the National Association officers should come halting from the lips of the accusers. There are some millions of Negroes who, in spite of the Hunston, Howard, Wilson clan, who will refuse to bow to Haal or worship the Golden calf. Negroes who hold the good of the race above the greed of gain and self. Negroes who see in the attitude of the supporters of Judge Parker men of like mind, and consider that their retirement from active legislation is necessary; and a defense against further encroachment of constitutional rights.

A fine exhibition of religious amity was given when Rabbi Wise, Jew, presented to Arch-Bishop Hanna, Catholic, a medal. It was the award to the Roman Catholic prelate for his effort to bring about a better understanding between the many diverse religions. There has seldom been in the annals of religious history, a finer example of the subversion of bigotry. Two extremes of a religious belief have met and worked shoulder to shoulder for the better of HUMANITY. While still holding fast to their faiths, and each in his own way holding fast to his belief in Divine inspiration; both find in the spirit of helpfulness to humanity, their beatitude. What a beautiful example they set to the rest of the world beset with strife and racial hate; of murderous lust and grasping greed. This gesture of the two religious faiths; faiths so far apart in their practice; so different in theory that the chasm seemed too wide and the abyss too deep to bridge, is before us. It has shown that religion has a common ground: HUMAN SERVICE.

Like the ghost of Banquo, the fight for the garden of Tom Mooney, imprisoned for life as the author of the bomb tragedy, will not down. It has haunted administrations of three previous California governors, and now has appeared to disturb the peacefulness of the present Governor, Rolph. Aside from the array of prominent legal talent the service of Hon. James Walker, Mayor of the city of New York, has been sought and he with a number of capitalists who have been interested in the plea, are on a visit to California.

BUREAU OF ECONOMICS MEETS

The Bureau of Economics, a new organization among colored people of the city held a meeting last Tuesday evening at Williams Avenue Y. W. C. A. The organization is for the purpose of aiding the local Negro economically. Forty one persons comprise the Board of Directors with E. J. Minor as Executive Secretary and E. D. Cannady, president.

INJUSTICE IN SOUTH

(Continued from page one)
care of the cows in the pasture in the winter.
Some of the croppers have no hags to kill. The landlords even take part of the wrap they make. They have to sell the seed at a low price and at planting season buy it back at high prices. This is in the cotton belt and yet they must go around in torn clothes. The white croppers are in just about the same bad fix, some of them get a little better treatment. There is much sickness and pellagra throughout the section.
The Negro croppers have been addressed in this way: "Don't you 'niggers' know that we landlords have you as slaves to do our work for us? Do you think we are going to have free 'niggers'?"

CALLS ON ADVOCATE

Berrie Tinsley was a pleasant caller at The Advocate office on Thursday and renewed his subscription. We appreciate this courtesy very much.

ISN'T IT COLD?

Cold weather for the past week or ten days has been the vogue in Portland.

ABLE TO BE UP

Mrs. S. Crawford, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is able to be up at present.

NOW IS THE TIME . . .

to put in your winter fuel supply while prices are at their lowest. Call

JIM HENDERSON (the Blind Man)

for all kinds of fuel at all prices

92 Killingsworth Ave., Cor. Mississippi

Phone WALnut 1000

where it is proposed to have Governor Rolph hear their appeal for the pardon of Mooney. The egotistical governor, Young, was of the opinion that the cases of Mooney and Warren Billings were so closely allied that it would be impossible to free one without the other. Billings, being a two time loser, is imprisoned at Folsom. Being a two time loser he cannot receive executive pardon without the recommendation of the state supreme court. On two separate occasions that court has refused to grant Billings a recommendation for pardon. What angle Governor Rolph will take is problematical. The crime for which Billings and Mooney were convicted ranks among the most heinous. During the progress of a parade during the World War, a bomb was thrown at Stewart Market streets, Sacramento, killing some ten and seriously mangling a score or more.

The remarks attributed to Mayor James Walker, New York, that he feared that failure to grant a pardon to Tom Mooney, convicted of the preparation day parade bomb throwing, would create riotous demonstrations in the big industrial centers of the nation; has caused much adverse criticism. Many interpret it as being tantamount to saying that Mooney guilty or innocent should be set free for fear of it. If the statement was as alleged it is an ironical thrust at the power and potency and stability of our form of government. It is a direct affirmation that the government is in fear of and controlled by the ultra radical element who clamor for "direct action."

If the statement had been completed of the crime are innocent, or if it can be proven—without doubt—that they have been convicted by perjured testimony, they should be freed. Other than that neither sympathy nor fear should determine the outcome.

Although the deputy sheriffs who shot and killed the two Mexican youths have been exonerated by the Oklahoma court, the Mexican government has protested and demanded indemnity from the United States. The youths were returning to Mexico from the United States where they had been attending school. Although it was stated at the trial of the deputies that the boys were sitting in their automobile, "it was thought that they were going to do something criminal." Such thought has been the cause of the death of many innocent Negroes in certain sections of the United States. It has been the cause of innumerable alphas for murderous mobs and mob minded officials of the law. Happily, for the security of other Mexican nationals, the deaths of these youths have aroused their government to action. Unhappily, Negro victims had no protection nor recourse to the law.

General Smedley Butler, retired attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

It is not so much the knowledge of how many United States Senators and Representatives constitute our legislative bodies that interests the Negro voter. That is taught in our elementary schools under the form of government. What concerns us most is: How to effectually use the ballot to best advantage. Being a citizenship is detrimental to the political progress of the Negro voter.

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

GENERAL Smedley Butler, retired

attributes all of his troubles and humiliations, to the fact of his not being a graduate from the navy academy at Annapolis. He berates the "swivel chair" admirals as being the cause of his not being given the rank of Major General. Throughout the story there runs a theme of naval arrogance which, on a careful reading, makes clear the reason for the rejection of Negro applicants, and the futility of making appointments to that institution for naval training. If the prejudice as stated by General Butler, whose military record is of the highest, and a white man, is so great that it barred him from promotion, what chance has a Negro youth to win; even though he pass his examination with the highest credits?

Churches--

—BAPTISTS—

ME-OLIVET BAPTIST CHURCH
East First and Schuyler Sts.
Rev. J. D. Wilson, Pastor
SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH
East 7th and Everett Sts.
Rev. G. G. Gardner, Pastor

—EPISCOPALIAN—

St. Phillip's Mission
Knott and Rodney Sts.
Blaine Coles, Lay Reader

—HOUSE OF PRAYER—

House of Prayer
East 10th and Grant Sts.
Robert Searce, Pastor

—METHODIST—

Bethel A. M. E. Church
Rev. Daniel G. Hill Jr., Minister

First A. M. E. Zion Church
417 Williams Ave.
Rev. W. R. Lovell, Minister

SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH

76th and East Everett Streets

A program in charge of Mrs. S. T. Moore was rendered by the H. Y. P. U. These programs are given the last Sunday in each month. A solo by Roy Williams and other numbers on the program were enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. S. T. Moore, president Sunday School 10:30 A. M. Mrs. Armstrong superintendent. Services 8:00 P. M. Rev. Gardner, pastor.

BETHELITES

Although the weather was not very pleasant last Sunday Evening, the League attendance was very good.

Miss Doloris Burdine had charge of the lesson discussion.

Mrs. Hill's ten Bible questions will be from the New Testament next Sunday.

The Boy's and Girl's contest is still going strong, with the girls in the lead.

Remember the Allen League meets every Sunday at 6:45 p. m. Everybody welcome!

MRS LOMAX CALLS

Mrs. W. P. Lomax, accompanied by her nephew, Mr. Vaughn called at the Advocate office on Friday morning and Mrs. Lomax, a pioneer subscriber, renewed her subscription. Mrs. Lomax with her husband resides outside the city limits.

MILLER & TRACEY

Perfect Funeral Service

CALL US IN CONFIDENCE—ANY HOUR—DAY OR NIGHT

WASHINGTON STREET
Between 20th and 21st

NEW NUMBERS: BRowadway 2691
BRowadway 2692

A SMART SANTA CLAUS

SHOPS ELECTRICALLY

Now, more than ever, is the time to let Electrical Gifts solve your Christmas problems. No matter how limited your budget, you can easily keep within it by taking advantage of the special bargains we are offering.

Beautiful new merchandise! All latest models, styled to the minute and built to give years of practical service.

Let us show you our complete line of appliances. There is something appropriate for every name on your Christmas list. No other gift can give so much pleasure for so little cost.

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY
(P.P.C.O.)
PORTLAND, OREGON

Other stores at: Salem, Oregon City, Hillsboro, St. Helens, Gresham and Silverton, Oregon, and Vancouver, Washington.

More than One Million today

USE QUININE-SULPHUR-SAGE AND TAR IN THE TREATMENT OF THE HAIR

(Copyright 1927)

We Lady Andres

Quinine-Sulphur-Sage and Tar Compound

FOR GLASSY, BLACK, LUXURIANT HAIR—A compound of Olive-Castor Oil and Mineral Oils containing seven essential vitamins and hydrochlorides. Stimulates and promotes a healthy growth of hair.

WHY SPEND YOUR MONEY EXPERIMENTING WITH YOUR HAIR AND COMPLEXION? OUR MONEY-BACK GUARANTEED PROTECTS YOU.

Our 14 years of scientific research and experimentation, covering every branch of Cosmetology, is your guarantee for results and Satisfaction. If you are bothered with Ring Worm, Tetter, Falling Hair, Bald Spots, Shedding of the Hair around the edges or hair loss, Scborrhoea or Dandruff, Parasitic and Scborrhoea, Eczema, Acne, Itchiness or Alopecia of Scalp and Hair following Typhoid Fever, Influenza and other acute and chronic diseases that affect the hair, or if the Hair is turning gray, or your youthful smile is passing away, we will prepare for you a special three month treatment that we guarantee will help you, or we will refund every cent of your money. Send only $1.95, Post Office or Express Order.

Special Trial Offer—SEND THIS COUPON

1 Lady Andres Compound . . . $.75
1 Lady Andres Shampoo Syrup . . . $.50
1 large 4-oz. box Gossamine and Penning Oil . . . $1.75
Total . . . $3.00

Send Post Office or Express Money Order—No C.O.D. Shipments

LADY ANDRES LABORATORIES
1833 You St. N. W. and 2725 P St. N. W. — Washington, D. C.

MANUFACTURERS OF 27 NATIONALLY KNOWN BEAUTY AIDS

TO SEE HIS SICK FATHER</