AFRICANS SAY:.

"Africans have much in common with us as wit and wisdom expressed in their proverbs show. It is time for us to get away from the notion that they are in an inferior and barbaric state. In more than one sense, we Americans are less civilized and more barbaric than they."—C. J. BENDER.

100 Years Old

MRS. HENRIETTA LAKE
born in the Dutch West Indies on January 13, 1832, who celebrated her one hundredth anniversary last Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Isabel Morris, with whom she lives at 129 West 138th Street, New York City. Mrs. Lake came to this country in 1899 and to New York the following year. Her living relatives include a sister, two daughters and two sons, seven grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren. Although no longer able to get around unassisted, her mind is sound, her hearing good and her sight perfect.

Buck and Bubbles Play Papa To Two Youngsters

NEW YORK — Buck and Bubbles are amateur papas now. There are two kids, Buck and Bubbles, Jr., appearing with them on the stage. They have adopted the kids professionally. The real names of the kids are James Howard and Samuel Green, natives of Atlanta, Ga., and they are 16 years of age.

The kids were brought to New York about six weeks ago by an unknown white man in a ramshackle Ford. They were ragged, dirty, and underfed.

By some trick of fate the pair was carried to the studio of Billy Pierce, maker of both white and colored dancing stars, and there given a tryout. The boys informed Pierce that they had been sent to New York to start a stage career, by a white woman in Atlanta by the name of Lucille Lucifer.

The white man who represented the pair was a former Atlanta insurance agent and held a contract over the boys in conjunction with Mrs. Lucifer whereby there were to get only board and lodging and clothes. The agent wanted to hire the boys out at $1,000 per week or as near to this figure as he could get.

Mr. Pierce sensed the situation and impressed by the striking resemblance of the pair to Buck and Bubbles, called the latter and acquainted them with the situation. They immediately took the boys under their wing and dressed them up, giving them a complete wardrobe, and began to tutor them in the art of stagecraft. The boys were apt students and excellent dancers and have worked the leading RKO houses.

The boys declared that Mrs. Lucifer had heard of the enormous salaries paid to colored dancers and singers in New York and sent them here so she could get rich off them. She is now attempting to force Buck and Bubbles to turn over their earnings to her. Bubbles, whose real name is John Supplett, said that he sent word that if she would send fare for them to return, he would permit them to go back, but so far she has refused.

The boys are getting a swell kick out of their new experience but were disappointed when Bubbles refused to allow them to go on the stage of the Palace Theatre where the act played last week. "I want them to feel," said Bubbles, "that the Palace is something to strive for. It took Buck and me nine years before we got a break there and many actors would give all they had to play this house just once."

Buck's name is F. L. Washington, and both he and Bubbles are mar-

Black American Teaches Young Russians

This American teacher in Moscow, Lovett Fort-Whiteman, not only teaches the children of Soviet citizens, but also teaches children of ofay American and English people, who are residing in Moscow. He is shown conducting one of his classes in the school which these children attend. The same American "Peck's bad boy" type of student has to be contended with as can be seen in the photo.

A Slip of the Tongue

A young lady in our office whose intended husband delivers pastry to our cafeteria is much pleased with his looks. Although I had never come face to face with the man at the office I have heard a number of different girls mention that he was terrible looking.

One day while taking to this girl, who was in the company of several other employees, she happened to show me a picture of her friend. Thinking to myself, but speaking aloud, I said, "He isn't as bad looking as every one says he is, is he?"
