

MARY AND JESUS.—An unusual statuette fashioned by an African sculptor, showing his conception of the Virgin Mary and her Child Jesus had woolly hair and dark Jesus. Many writers contend that skin.

A CHEERFUL LITTLE EYEFUL.—Miss Inez Seeley, who has been on the stage "every since she was a kid" still wears her curls. Miss Seeley was the youngest member of the cast of the original "Brown Skin Models."

HAS NEW NOVEL.—Wallace Thurman, New York novelist, whose book, "Infants of the Spring," was published on Lincoln's birthday.

10 Sermons, I Sunday

REV. THOMAS S. HARTEN

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—Beginning at 4 a. m. Sunday, February 20, the Rev. Thos. S. Harten, pastor, Holy Trinity Baptist Church, celebrated his 10th anniversary, preaching 10 sermons. The seventh sermon was preached at 7 p. m. A street parade and addresses were made by State Senator William Love, Judge Jacob Strahl, Dr. D. D. Lewis, James C. Thomas, Arthur C. Dore, Sheriff J. A. McQuade, Judge Edw. A. Wynne and Dr. Charles C. Weathers, N. J. Dr. Paul L. Jones, a physician, stuck by the pastor during the day to see that he did not over-exert himself. The Rev. W. J. Winston, Baltimore, sent a telegram of regrets.

Civic League Banquet Speaker

MRS. JESSIE FAUCETT HARRIS New York author and poetess, who was the chief speaker at the annual luncheon of the Women's Co-operative Civic League, Baltimore, at the Booker Washington Junior High School. Her newest book is, "Under the Chinaberry Tree."

Library Worker

MRS. CLARICE WINN DAVIS, field secretary of the Harlem (N. Y. City) Committee on Adult Education, who is operating under a project sponsored jointly by the American Association for Adult Education and the New York Public Library. Mrs. Davis was attached to the West 135th Street branch of the library before she became the wife of Prof. Arthur P. Davis of Virginia Union University. She has as part of her duties, the making of contacts with all community institutions, seeking to assist, through the library connections, in providing reading courses and book lists, formulating club programs and plans when requested or desired.

THEY STARRED IN KRIGWA PLAY.—A scene from "The Man in the Stalls," one of 3 plays given in Baltimore, showing Miss Helen Reynolds and George B. Murphy, Jr., in leading roles.

Failed at Suicide

MISS RUBY HILL

RICHMOND.—Miss Ruby Hill, ex-Armstrong High student and radio singer took acid and iodine but is recovering. Friends said she was disappointed in love. Just a week before Miss Celestine Smith, Baltimore student at Union University here committed suicide.

HEADS INS. CO.—A. L. Lewis, president of the Afro-American Insurance Company of Jacksonville, Fla. The company recently observed its 30th anniversary.