Every Citizen Vote In Primaries FRIDAY MAY 20, 1932

TO ADVOCATE RETTERS

I sincerely ask your support at the polls on Friday. I do not deem it necessary to say a whole lot about what I shall do if nominated and elected.

If my work in the interest of mankind for the past 18 years or more is not sufficient to inform you as to my qualifications and as to my sincerity, nothing I can say now will convince you.

If you feel that I am qualified, and worthy of your vote, go to the polls and mark 77 X BEATRICE CANNADY-FRANKLIN for State Representative.

VOTE

Elections are approaching. Every citizen should be interested in good government, and that interest should go further than mere sentimental expressions. Government must be administered through officials, and they for the most part are chosen by the people. They who claim to be interested in good government must show some concern for whoever aspires to govern. The best way to do that is to vote when election day comes. When people are denied the privilege to vote they want much. When the privilege is extended, too often many of them are too slow in meeting the conditions in order to be qualified. In some municipalities the simple duty of registering is neglected, so that when election day comes there are many, despite their loud assertions, who are not prepared to vote. Times are too critical now for people to be the least negligent in their civic duties. Protest against this and a demand for that will mean very little unless they are backed up with the ballot. Let all who read these lines delay no longer in making whatever preparations necessary for voting, both in the primaries and in the general elections.

TAMPERING WITH THE CONSTITUTION

Citizens of the United States whose rights are protected by amendments to the Constitution such as the Thirteenth and Fourteenth provide, will do well to consider the words of Bishop Cannon as he advocates reconsideration of all the amendments if anti-prohibitionists are successful in bringing about a referendum for reconsideration of the Eighteenth. In turbulent times like these, when race prejudice runs rampant over every section of our nation, the rights of more than twelve million Negroes would be seriously affected should a reconsideration of the Fourteenth amendment be forced on our national law-making bodies. Such might prove an exceedingly easy matter if a precedent should be established by having the Eighteenth amendment referred to the states for vote.

There is no question but that prohibition has not been effectively enforced, but the failure and apparent inability of the courts to successfully enforce the laws governing prohibition offers no excuse for repealing any amendment to the Constitution which was placed there by such effort as was required for its enactment.

Positively there is no just cause for a repeal of any amendment to our Constitution and it is a dangerous thing to tamper with any phase of the laws governing our nation's citizens and their institutions.

HAND AND HAND

(By Myrtle Campbell)

To help eradicate race prejudice, Bahns have been traveling through the South in pairs, one colored and one white, lecturing on the Cause. They have been cordially received in colleges and universities; in fact, everywhere they went race and color were forgotten, and love and justice created a new spirit in the hearts of the people.

Nothing but a practical religion ever bring these two races of one country together in such perfect fellowship and understanding. It is a great step forward in our present-day civilization to have these faithful workers received so amicably in the South. Another generation will wipe away all rancor and discord from their minds, and there will be no difference felt between the two races.

Let everyone fill his mind with loving thoughts of others to help bring this readjustment to fruition quicker so that the world can fully enjoy a greater growth and amelioration.

OREGON REPRESENTATIVE

The many friends of Mrs. Beatrice Cannaday-Franklin, who is a candidate for the Oregon legislature, express the hope that her candidacy will be successful. CALIFORNIANS who feel a just pride in the ability and courage of Mrs. Cannaday, cannot conceive that the voters of her assembly district can do other than send her as their representative to Salem. An elected representative is of much more value than any number of political appointments. "When we elect one to represent us the one elected is subject to the electors. An appointee is subject to the appointor or BOSS. The voters will elect Mrs. Beatrice Cannaday-Franklin, and can rest assured that they will be served with honesty and courage." Those were the remarks of one of California's leading citizens who has known Mrs. Franklin since her school days. All of us who know her approve the remarks and are sorry that we can not assist with VOTES. But we feel assured that the voters of her district will avail themselves of the services of a conscientious citizen an ELECT HER TO THE LEGISLATURE.

CANDIDATE FAMED FOR WORK IN MURDER CASE

Joseph L. Hammersly, candidate for the district court bench now occupied by District Judge Fred L. Olson is a native Oregonian and has practiced law in Portland for more than 30 years.

He occupied the post of deputy district attorney of Multnomah county for 18 years, during 15 of which he was chief civil deputy of the staff. He gained wide public notice for his work, outstanding in which was his part in the prosecution of the famous Brumfield murder case at Roseburg. He prosecuted the widely publicized Schaeffer baby case in Portland just before he left the district attorney's office.

In the recent preferential ballot taken by the Multnomah County Bar Association on all candidates for judicial positions, the attorneys placed their approval on Hammersly by giving him the highest number of votes for the position which he now seeks. He outran three opponents, one of them the incumbent judge.

He has had wide experience as a trial lawyer in private practice and promises the benefit of his large experience to the post he is running for.

Hammersly is past potentate of Al Kader temple, vice dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose and a member of various other civic and fraternal organizations.

DEICH GAINING

According to the reports from his campaign committee in the Chamber of Commerce building, Attorney Richard Deich is gaining rapidly in the race for a seat in the House of Representatives of the state legislature. His services as a speaker are in great demand and his many political tickets have endorsed his candidacy, and it looks like he is a sure winner this time.

Patrons and friends of the Creole Tavern are sorry to learn of the recent closing of that popular eating place located at 309 East Broadway.

J.h. BUSH

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE for STATE SENATOR

My claims for renomination as county clerk of Multnomah County rest: (1) on thorough knowledge of legal duties in that position. (2) I have worked in every department, from filing clerk to chief deputy. (3) I know positively how I can save money without reducing efficient service or impairing office morale. (4) I promise to stay on the job and put full number of hours daily, along with all members of the office force. (5) I will have no favorites, build no political machine, but deal fairly with all, without seeking fees or perquisites above legal salary received.
