WHY THE NEGRO SHOULD DIVIDE HIS VOTE ON NATIONAL ISSUES

1. The two outstanding parties have identically the same stand so far as the Negro's rights and interests are concerned Party principles are laid down in their national platforms, and cannot be judged by narrow local provincial passions and prejudices. The Republican Party wrote the Reconstruction Amendments into the Constitution and still avers that it stands by these principles. The Democratic platform of 1876 accepted the revised Constitution. Since then there has been no different pronouncement or action contrary to this declaration, not even during the sixteen years when An effort is being made — and it seems to be an organized effort —to that party was in control of the nat-disfranchise men and women for the ional Government.
