EFFECTS OF REVIVAL SEEN IN FILLED CHURCHES

(By B. C. F.)

With the advent of the Rev. Mr. Lee Roy Kinard in Portland a few weeks ago, old man Satan has been on the jump. Indeed there are some who believe that he has been run out of town while others are of the opinion that he is still operating in houses of ill-repute and other places of vice.

Reverend Kinard, the dynamic divine, served notice upon his congregation last Sunday morning, that before he was through, dance halls and "social clubs" would close their doors and the young people who frequented them would be seen skipping and playing about the church yards; dives and gambling dens would be closed tight and their proprietors occupying church pews.

"I have just started," declared the minister "and I want stop until the devil stops," he added.

Five or six weeks ago, the pastors of the three leading colored churches, Bethel and Zion A. M. E. and the Mt. Olivet Baptist joined their talents and their congregations in a sort of "progressive" revival which lasted for three weeks proper, meeting one week in each of the churches with an inter-change of ministers. An encore meeting lasted a week and in the entire time approximately fifty converts and "back-sliders" were brought into the fold, twenty-one of whom came under the preaching of Reverend Kinard. The others under Reverends Wilson and Daniel G. Hill of Olivet and Bethel respectively.

Since the close of the revival, all the churches have taken on new life and the attendance has been greatly increased. The latter so much so until people have been heard to remark, "where are all these people coming from?"

"Love" was the theme of Rev. Kinard's morning sermon on last Sunday and the well filled church auditorium was as one in expressing and demonstrating the presence of the power of the holy Spirit in their midst. So spontaneous was their reaction to the thrilling sermon that the meeting automatically turned into a testimonial, hand-shaking epidemic.

It was the first Sunday in the month and the Sacrament of Our Lord's Supper was administered to old and young; to businessman and employee; to old-timers and newcomers; to students and others. It had been many a month since old-timers had witnessed such doings at Zion.

Those who came out of sheer curiosity, remained to shake hands with the pastor after they had contributed liberally to the collection plate. One woman who said she had been working for Jesus for many years, united with the church.

The singing was spontaneous and swept the audience like a forest fire. The songs were of the old-fashioned type like "I'm Going to Live so God Can Use Me, Hallelujah!" and "This Little Light of Mine." And how that preacher can sing! When, for any reason he has to stop, his wife takes up the lead and what a thrill one receives who has any spiritual outlook at all!

At the close of the meeting in which Reverends O. S. Thomas-Lewis and R. H. Camp, assisted, the minister invited the audience back to the evening services announcing it would be a big "shout-down" meeting.

Sure enough it was a big shout-down time for there were ten who came to the altar and united with the church and a packed house heard the minister's soul-stirring message. Eight candidates will be baptized at the church, tomorrow.

CONVICTED UNDER SLAVE LAWS

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD MON.

Funeral services were held Monday, February 6th for the late Helena Mae Kiser, who died on February 3rd at Multnomah hospital, following a lingering illness for a period of more than a year.

Mrs. Kiser was born forty-one years ago at Lawrence, Kansas. She and her husband, Samuel A. Kiser, have been honored and respected citizens of Portland for a number of years. The deceased possessed a beautiful soprano voice and on numerous occasions sang leads in the Bethel church choir of which she was a member. She also was active in club and social circles until her health failed.

Mrs. Kiser had a lovable disposition and made many friends who dearly appreciated her.

The services were held at the funeral parlors of Benninghoff & Gaddie, 335 Sixth street. More than one hundred and fifty persons came to pay a last loving respect to the deceased.

Rev. D. G. Hill, pastor of Bethel church delivered the principal eulogy. Bethel choir sang and Miss Barbara Hubbard, lady attendant was on duty.

Floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, one of which was from the Meier & Frank company where the deceased was employed for many years.

Messrs. Benninghoff & Gaddie had personal charge over the service and it is said that it was beautifully handled. The remains were interred in Lincoln Memorial Park cemetery.

The deceased leaves to mourn their loss, a widower, Samuel A. Kiser, of 477 Jarrett street; an aunt, Mrs. Mildred Smith, and a cousin, Mr. Clifford Strode, of 502 Market Street.

BOLD WOMEN WORK IN COLORED DISTRICT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 8.—With increasing boldness smirking Magdalen of the Nordic strain are making the Central Avenue district their hunting grounds according to local investigators. From merely walking through the Avenue exchanging covert glances, they have taken to frequenting drug stores and cafes and loitering on corners. Most of them are addicts to "reefers" as marahaua cigarettes are called and frequently inquire where they may be purchased.

One reason given for their migration to the colored section is that a recent drive on fake beauty parlors and massage establishments conducted in Hollywood and the Wilshire district has crowded them out of their natural habitat.

DAVIDSON'S BAKERY COMPANY AIDS THE UNEMPLOYED

The Davidson's Bakery Company, in the opinion of many, is not only considered the first in the realm of baking but also the first in the field of relief.

When The Advocate, assisted by the First A. M. E. Zion church, began its work to establish a relief depot at the church, 417 Williams avenue to aid the unemployed, Davidson's Bakery was the first to respond.

For the past two weeks the bakery has furnished bread once per week, but now it donates bread twice per week: on Tuesdays and Fridays. At least fifty loaves of good, wholesome, fresh bread, it is picked up by The Advocate and deposited at the church each week where Rev. and Mrs. Lee Roy Kinard in turn distributes it to those most in need. Officials of the bakery insist that they are glad to be able to help in this way to relieve the unemployment situation.

The Advocate and Zion officials point out that in appreciation for the splendid help and spirit of cooperation manifested by this firm that all the readers of The Advocate and members of the church, when needing any thing in the bakery line, should patronize the Davidson's Bakery Co.

The Company's plant is located at 168 E. 22nd street and the phone number is EA8 3188.

Two boxes of clothing were sent to the depot this week. Among the articles of clothing are to be found undergarments, dresses, coats, shoes, etc. Ladies of the community are requested to report needy cases to Garfield 7523 and Trinity 5837 and every effort will be made to relieve them.

Any donations of clothing, food and money will be accepted and accounted for by Rev. and Mrs. Kinard, 417 Williams avenue or by The Advocate, at 2516 N. E. 26th Ave.

No race lines will be drawn in the matter of distribution.

THE ADVOCATE IN EVERY WHITE HOME IN OREGON IN 1933

During the past week, the manager of The Advocate was so busy with other pressing matters that the campaign to place the Advocate in every white home in 1933, was somewhat neglected. However it does not mean that the work is abandoned or that we are in the least discouraged. Quite to the contrary.

During the week, however four new subscribers were enrolled: Wilbur Marshall, J. D. Lewis, Mrs. C. A. Jenkins, nurse; George Jeffries, business man (sent in by Mrs. E. L. Jamison); and J. G. Kirk, business man.

We hope every colored subscriber will take the responsibility of sending in at least one white subscriber. This can be easily done by asking your grocer, butcher, tailor or whoever you spend your money with, for a subscription.

Let's all work hard this coming week to make up for lost time.

SUES EMBALMER FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Lydia Parnazal, 21-year-old white girl, has filed a $25,000 breach of promise suit against W. Percy Sims, South Side mortician. Sims claims it an extortion plot.

JORDAN MASS MEETING CALLED BY BRANCH

(By E. J. Minor)

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is fighting the Jordan case which is now before the Supreme Court. The Court has granted its attorneys a stay of execution of Jordan for a period of sixty days to allow time to prepare the case for argument. You will recall that Theodore Jordan was convicted last year in Klamath County for the murder of a dining car steward, and was sentenced to be executed on Feb. 3, 1933.

The National Association is calling a mass meeting to be held at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church on Thursday evening February 16, 1933 at 8:00 P. M. This meeting is called so that the public may be informed through the Association attorneys all of the facts in the Jordan case. Mr. Charles Robinson who is the chief counsel for the Association will deliver the principle address on the facts and treatment of Jordan during his incarceration and other circumstances surrounding the case. Everyone is earnestly requested to attend this meeting as it means much to every Negro in Oregon. The Association meets regularly at the Williams Ave. Y. W. C. A., but owing to the fact that the building is in use on Thursday evening they moved the meeting to the Church. Tell your friends and urge them to attend this meeting.

Columbus, O. Feb. 8.—(Special)—The Ohio Supreme court on February 1st granted an alternative writ of mandamus against Ohio State university ordering the admission of Miss Doris Weaver, senior student in home economics to the home management house in connection with her work in home economics.

Senior students in home economics are required to reside in the home management house on the campus for six weeks and actually manage the home. Twelve girls live together in the house for the period. Miss Weaver registered for the residence last Fall, but was denied admission to the house this quarter when her turn came to move in. President George Rightmire of the university, in defending the exclusion of Miss Weaver said he "didn't think colored people wanted that kind of association with white people." Last year the university successfully excluded Miss Wilhelmnia Styles from the house by passing the buck back and forth between the president's office and the office of the director of home economics, until it was too late for her to be admitted.

Ohio colored people claim that president Rightmire was behind the move which ousted Dr. Herbert Adolphus Miller, professor of sociology at the university, from his chair several years ago because Dr. Miller advocated complete equality between the races and refused to halt dancing between students in his sociology classes and those at Wilberforce university when the two groups held interracial discussions.

Digesting . . .
.. The News
BY CLIFFORD C. MITCHELL

DIGESTING THE NEWS

DIGESTING THE NEWS
This editorial news feature is the result of diligent study, research and compilation on all affairs and matters pertaining to the Negro race in America.

Public editorial expressions commenced in the month of March 1930 in Mrs. Cannady's Portland (Oregon) Advocate, and since then has been used by nearly ninety different publications, in every part of America, over fifty of whom use it, simultaneously, as a regular weekly feature.

WEEKLY BOOK COMMENT

As a by-product of my releasing services to the Negro Press, I have, since February 1931, released a weekly book comment on some book concerning which Negroes are interested and this feature has been highly appreciated and commented upon by many book publishers, authors and poets. This release is sent out with my "Digesting the News" releases and is used by nearly fifty publications weekly.

THIS AND THAT

This is a strictly a personal column, in diary form, appearing exclusively in the CHICAGO SUNDAY BEE, 3655 South State Street, Chicago, Ill., which started in July 1931 and which gives me an opportunity to acknowledge receipt of the many books, periodicals, "exchanges", letters, and many other forms of cooperation with which I am favored by the American public of both races. It also gives me an opportunity to comment on personal situations and happenings that occur in my life from day to day and week to week.

SHORT STORIES AND FEATURE ARTICLES

As another result of the popularity of my writings a number of short stories, sketches and feature articles have appeared in such magazines as TIME-LY DIGEST; TATTLER; TORCH-LIGHT; BRONZEMAN, and the PHILADELPHIA TRIBUNE. Since May 1932, the Atlanta Daily World and other papers affiliated with the Southern Newspaper Syndicate thru-out the south, have used a weekly KILBY sketch of mine.

PRISONS AND PRISONERS

This opinion on prisons and prisoners has appeared in School News published by Jackson prisoners, since June 1932. Gradually the colored editors in all parts of the country have reproduced it until in January 1933 close to thirty different publications, scattered from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast, and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, are presenting Prisons and Prisoners to their respective readers.

CONDENSED COMMENTS FROM OTHERS

(From E. Washington, editor of the PHILADELPHIA TRIBUNE)
"We think your feature "Digesting the News", one of the best appearing in any of the colored papers."

A. B. Whitlock, president of the GARY AMERICAN: "We feel that the releases we receive from you are second to none and yours above all get our first consideration."

Caswell W. Crews, editor of the BRONZEMAN: "I consider your columns ably written and giving evidence of deep study with observation. It is to my mind one of the best features appearing in the weekly press"

F. R. Clark, editor of the NEWARK HERALD—December 1930: "Clifford C. Mitchell began a special news feature about a year ago in Michigan known as "Digesting the News", and since that time he has become nationally known and is now releasing to a large number of papers - and is called the second Arthur Brisbane in Journalism."
