JOHNSON AND THE NATION

Dame rumor is whispering that Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, will be tendered a United States Supreme Court Justiceship. The Dame is insistent in her predictions and says that a vacancy will occur with the expected resignation of Justice Willis VanDevanter, Wyoming, who will celebrate his during the month of April. It is problematic whether the doughty California senator would change his senatorial toga for the robes of supreme court justice; although it would be mighty hard to turn down such an honor. Of one thing the nation can rest assured, and that is in what ever field of endeavor the California Senator may be entered, the nation as a whole will be the gainer. His place in the Senate of the United States would be hard to fill. His legislative loss would be a hard blow to California. He has been one of the dominant members of the progressive group of legislators in the upper house, and his independence and courage has caused the admiration even of his most implacable foes. Should he exchange the toga for the judicial robe, the entire nation without regard of wealth, creed, race, or color, will know that there will be a fair and impartial decision given by him whenever matters relating to their welfare and happiness is concerned. In whatever capacity Senator Hiram Johnson serves, the nation will be the gainer.

rolled. The young democrats are doing fine work and it looks like before long, they will have in their organization practically all the progressive young people.

SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan of 746 N. E. Buffalo street were hosts for the regular meeting of the Sunday Night Supper Club on April 23rd at 7:30 P. M.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mr. Georgia Triplett, served a delicious two-course supper from a table which was very beautiful with a center-piece of fresh cherry blossoms and matching candles held in position by silver sticks. A greeting card and leather tobacco pouch at his place, announced Mr. Charles Adams' recent birthday anniversary and he came in for congratulations from the guests. After supper was over, the guests repaired to the living room where some of them amused themselves working jigsaw puzzles and the others engaged in social conversation.

The hostess was charming in a white floral patterned white satin with green silk sash and silver slippers. With this she wore pearl costume jewelry; Mrs. Pollyann Reed, who has been observing the lenten period and unable to attend club meetings since before Easter, wore black lace with matching slippers; Mrs. Jerome Franklin wore black flowered yellow voile over yellow silk and matching accessories and Mrs. Charles Adams, red lace with black accessories. The men wore conventional black. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Reed will be hosts to the club at its next meeting on Sunday, May 7th.

Mesdames Nellie Williams and Rebecca Dent, prominent in club, fraternal and social circles of Seattle, Washington were pleasant visitors in Portland during the week. Mrs. Williams stopped at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elise Reynolds, 391 Roselawn Avenue, and Mrs. Dent was the houseguest of Mrs. Clara Pickett, 418 Vancouver.

The card party and lunch given by the ladies' auxiliary of the Sergeant Joseph White Camp last Saturday night at the County Court House, was a great success. What was played at four tables and the prizes went to the following: Mr. Leslie R. Hale, Department Commander of Oregon, first prize; Mrs. Marie Lyons, second and Mr. R. D. Lusher, the consolation. Mr. James MacArthur won the door prize. All the prizes were lovely ones and desirable. The ladies of the auxiliary served a very delicious lunch. This affair was one of a series of parties which the Auxiliary, assisted by the members of the Post, will have every fourth Saturday night in the month. The public is urged to attend these social functions.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crosswhite and son, plan to leave early next month for a trip back east to visit relatives and friends.

George Williams, of Butte, Montana, is here visiting relatives on Flower street.

Sam Cannon, popular bachelor, who has a nicely furnished apartment in the Powell hotel on Russel street, has sent south for his niece to come to Portland to visit him for a while.

According to Bishop and Mrs. Martin, the reception given by Stewardess Board N. I. of Zion church Easter Monday night, was one of the prettiest they have had the pleasure of attending in a long time. The artistic decoration of the church parlor and the tables from which the refreshments were served, was the work of Mesdames R. H. Camp, Sarah Love and Mable Washington. They used daffodils, lilacs and other spring flowers to advantage. Mrs. Pearl Carroll and Mrs. Ada Mumford were in charge of the refreshments. The delicious cakes, coffee, sandwiches and ice cream were presented to the board by the following ladies: Mesdames Cora Jamison, Beatrice Franklin, R. H. Camp, Ethel Turner, Mable Washington, Georgie Harris, Lena Green, Katherine Gray, Belle Johnson, Ada Mumford, Ada McGill, Sarah Love, Pearl Carroll and Blanche Jones. Mrs. Belle Johnson and Mrs. R. H. Camp poured; Mrs. Isabel Francis served the ices. They were assisted in serving the one hundred and twenty-five guests by Mesdames Lena Bowers, Catherine Fair and Ethel Turner.

Mrs. Grace Jackson was hostess at a waffle breakfast, Wednesday for the pleasure of Mrs. Rebecca Dent, Grand Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star, Oregon-Washington Jurisdiction who made a semi-official visit to Portland this week. Additional guests were, Mrs. Clara Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. White and Mrs. Leola Towne.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Franklin were the guests of Mr. William Gilmer at the Card Party given last Saturday night at the Court House by the ladies' auxiliary of the Sergeant Joseph White Camp, Spanish American War Veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patton, of Welder street motored to Salem, Oregon Sunday afternoon to view the noted Cherry Blossom Orchards.

Mrs. Lee Roy Kinard is sponsoring what is known as a "Hostess Dinner" on May 18th at the First A.M.E. Zion church social rooms. There will be a number of hostesses who will be responsible for their table decorations, arrangement, and guests. A friendly rivalry is on in full way between the ladies who have been invited by Mrs. Kinard to serve as hostesses, to excel in the number of guests and beauty of table set-up, and the affair promises to have outstanding social significance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Franklin were the over night guests of Professor A. and Doctor J. Matilsky Monday at their lovely home in Irvington. After enjoying a delicious dinner the four some played bridge until a late hour.

Honoring Bishop Wm. Decker Johnson, presiding Bishop of the Fourteenth District of the A. M. E. Church, who was a recent guest in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wisdom were hosts at dinner Sunday at their palatial home, 7129 N. E. Union avenue. Additional guests included Rev. and Mrs. Daniel G. Hill, Jr. The hostess served several delicious courses.

George Cannady, soph at Willamette university, Salem, Oregon, was recently initiated into the Blue Key, an honor society composed of the best men in school from the standpoint of personality, character, scholarship and service to the school. George is treasurer of his class and sports editor of the "Collegian", college paper.

Reverend and Mrs. Lee Roy Kinard of 417 Williams avenue were the break fast guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Franklin on Tuesday at eleven o'clock at their home in Irvington. After breakfast which was served from a beautiful appointed table with lace cloth and cherry blossoms forming the attractive center-piece, the guests enjoyed a nice visit before taking their departure.

One of the prettiest and most enjoyable social events of the post-Easter season was the celebration of their Thirty-fifth wedding anniversary by Professor A. and Doctor Jeanette Matilsky at their lovely home, 3935 North East Sixteenth avenue on Saturday evening, April the 22nd. The house was beautifully decorated with fresh spring flowers, Easter lilies and American flags. Thirty-six guests were seated at the beautifully appointed tables, each of which had a center-piece of Easter lilies, fourteen Easter plants having been sent by friends to the Matilskys for Easter. The wedding supper was a lavish one. Doctor Matilsky said her daily prayer, the burden of which was for complete understanding, love and harmony among the races and nations, just before the dinner began. As if in fulfillment of her petition, there were seated at the tables, Jews, Russians, French, German, Irish, Portuguese, Italian and other nationalities. It was indeed a rare treat to see so many different nationalities saying their loving respect to this noble couple who have made so many friends since coming to America's years ago from Petrograd (Leningrad) Russia where they were married in 1898.

An interesting and enjoyable program was rendered during the evening consisting of violin music by Professor Matilsky; and Dr. Matilsky recited in seven different languages and Mrs. A. Berkovits played the piano. She also played Lohengrin's Wedding March.

Mrs. A. C. Coll and Mrs. Harry Srensky acted as bridesmaids. They were charmingly gowned and wore corsages of roses and violets. Messrs. Coll and Srensky acted as best men, and Mr. Coll gave a talk in praise of the couple. Miss Rosalie Coll was the train bearer. The bride wore a pretty gown with a white silk real lace train and carried a shower bouquet of roses and Easter lilies. Her natural beauty was enhanced by the gorgeous setting. The men wore conventional black. Later in the evening Mrs. A. Berkovits and Professor Matilsky furnished music for dancing to a late hour. At two o'clock in the morning before the guest departed for their respective homes, they were served again to cake and coffee.

Much excitement prevailed as the bride threw her bouquet of lilies, one by one, backward over her left shoulder. Each blossom was caught by a guest to whom "good luck" will come. The fact of the occasion was a wedding anniversary came as a surprise to many of the guests who had not been apprised of this fact until after their arrival.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Coll, Mr. and Mrs. H. Srensky, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. R. Zujman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sonofsky, Mr. and Mrs. F. Freeman, Mrs. C. Wolfe, Mrs. A. Berkovits, Mrs. Hilda DeWolfe, Miss Rosalie Coll, Mr. Roy Platt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Chatsman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shats, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Weiner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sverlak, Mr. and Mrs. R. Belger, and other hosts.

Among Portlanders to motor to Salem, Oregon Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jamison and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Franklin. Upon their arrival in Salem, they were joined by Messrs. George Cannady and Wallace Turner who motored with them several miles West of Salem to see the great cherry blossom fields.
