

THEIR FATE SEALED

Bridges and Booth, of Roseburg to be Removed From Office as a Result of Searching Investigation by Federal Inspectors.

SOME STRONG EVIDENCE IS FOUND

The following dispatch to the Oregonian from Washington, D. C., under date of March 14th, sheds light on a subject in which all Southern Oregon is interested hence we give the article in full:

Secretary Hitchcock is still after the scalps of Register J. T. Bridges and Receiver J. H. Booth of the Roseburg land office, and this time he will get them. Bridges and Booth have been suspended for several months because of irregularities found in their office by inspector Greene. Since their suspension the Roseburg land office has virtually been closed, and there has been a cessation of all land business.

Ever since Bridges and Booth were suspended various agents of the interior department have been making a sweeping investigation to find evidence which will warrant their removal, and such evidence they have secured. Indeed it is strongly hinted that Bridges and Booth may be indicted when the federal grand jury reassembles in Portland in April, though District Attorney Heney denies this report.

At any rate, Secretary Hitchcock is satisfied that he has evidence enough to convince the President that Bridges and Booth must go, and having that information, he is diligently searching for two more to appoint as their successors. He has not asked Senator Fulton to recommend men for this office, but is looking around on his own responsibility and when he finds two men who meet his requirements and whom he can trust, he will ask the President to dismiss Bridges and Booth and appoint in their stead men of his selection.

If this plan is carried out and Mr. Fulton is not consulted there will be a renewal of friction between Mr. Hitchcock and the Senator. Land officers have to be confirmed by the Senate and moreover Mr. Fulton has the President's assurance that no appointments will be made in Oregon until he has been consulted. If men of Mr. Hitchcock's selection should be appointed they will encounter difficulty when their nominations are sent to the Senate. The indictments are, however, that Bridges and Booth will not be dismissed until after the Senate adjourns, and that the President will be asked to make recess appointments which will not come up for confirmation until next winter. Secretary Hitchcock is planning to have the change made in this way so as to make sure of his men. Senator Fulton declares that any men appointed to the Roseburg Land Office solely on Mr. Hitchcock's recommendation will never be confirmed.

A later dispatch from Washington to the Oregonian regarding the appointment of successors to Messrs. Booth and Bridges reads as follows:

Senator Fulton will name the new register and receiver of the Roseburg land office. He had a conference today with Secretary Hitchcock, and was told that in time Booth and Bridges will be removed. When the Government is ready to make new appointments Senator Fulton will be asked to make recommendations. His men will be examined, and if satisfactory will be appointed. If they do not meet the requirements he will be asked to submit other names. In any event, men of his selection will get the offices. Secretary Hitchcock has abandoned his independent search for men for the land office.

Theatrical Man's Woes.

When the bankruptcy proceedings of John Fisher came up in the United States District Court recently, in the shape of a petition for discharge, some of his creditors created so much opposition that Judge Bellinger continued the matter for ten days in order to permit specific objections to be filed. Fisher was proprietor of a traveling theatrical company which was stranded last December at Grants Pass, after leaving Medford, the scenery being attached for a hotel bill. He undertook to get rid of his debts by going through bankruptcy. It is said that the opposition to his discharge comes mostly from actors who hold claims against him for unpaid salaries, and who allege that Fisher is trying some underhanded method of beating them out of their hard earnings. Fischer was formerly a resident of Jacksonville, as also was his daughter, Margarita, the star of the company.—South-ern Oregonian.

CURED CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan. writes, My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal. For sale by City Drug Store.

A CHICAGO ALDERMAN OWES HIS ELECTION TO CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs", says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak a loud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by City Drug Store.
