N. S. Bennett, a fruitgrower of Eden precinct, accompanied by his daughter, Ethel, was in Jacksonville Thursday with a wagon load of prunes which he sold to the local trade. Mr. Bennett states that his prune and apple prospects were never better and that he will have the fruit on his tress just as in former years.

The Socialists are planning to hold a grand rally and picnic at Phoenix Saturday. T. E. Latimer of Portland will be the principal speaker and addresses will also be made by other persons. A general program of pleasing features will also be rendered. The public is invited to come, bring their lunch baskets and have a good time.

Judge Hanna will leave on Wednesday next for Oakland, California, to join Mrs. Hanna, who went to that city two weeks ago, where they will attend the commencement exercises at St. Mary's College, at which institution their son, Herbert, is a student and from which he will graduate at the close of this term. Judge and Mrs. Hanna and Herbert will return home about the sixth of June.

State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman, on behalf of the executive committee of the western division of the State Teachers Association, has invited Prof. E. E. Washburn to deliver an address before the meeting of the Association, which will be held in Portland, June 24-27, on the subject of the "Kind of Thinking the Primary Grades may Cultivate by the Study of Literature." This honor came as a surprise to Prof. Washburn, and the program for the meeting shows that he is the only person from Southern Oregon who has a place in the proceedings.

A runaway took place Thursday morning on the Steamboat-Applegate stage line that ended in a total wreck of the stage and the badly bruising of the driver, O. E. Rose, and of a passenger, J. A.

Burkart, a prospector who was coming out from the mines on his way to his home at Lebanon, Oregon. Neither of the men were seriously hurt, but had a close call for they were dragged some distance in the wreck of the stage. The cause of the trouble was the neckyoke coming down at which the team began to run and they got beyond the control of the driver and plunged down the road leaving the hack in pieces by the roadside.
