

News From Cinnabar Springs.

A. B. Saltmarsh came in Monday evening from his ranch on Little Applegate and remained over until Tuesday morning, when he left for his home with a load of goods that he is to pack over the mountains to the Jacksonville colony now camping at Cinnabar Springs. Mr. Saltmarsh makes two to three trips a week to the Springs taking in passengers and freight. He says the trail is very good at present and easy to ride over, the ladies making the ride of 22 miles easily in a day. The snow is all gone from the divide and there is fine grass at all the camping places.

At the Springs the weather is delightfully cool and the Jacksonville contingent are enjoying life to the fullest extent. Mr. Saltmarsh reports that Mr. Numan is getting as brown and rugged as a prospector. Capt. Kubli is gaining in health rapidly and using the mineral water of the springs to inhale in his nostrils his catarrh is not so troublesome to him as it was, and he expects to fully regain his health. Harry Luy, Robert Armstrong, Arthur Baxter and T. (Sharkey) Cooper have a camp fitted with all modern conveniences, as they say of hotels, and are growing fat, sassy, and brown. Mr. Leisch and his little boys are getting along well and the boy who is the invalid is gaining in strength. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Humason, of Medford, are getting themselves a comfortable cabin fixed up at the cinnabar mine across the creek from the hotel, the distance being about a quarter of a mile in a direct line. Mr. Humason and Mr. Congill are getting their claim opened up and it is very promising and they feel certain that it will be one of the rich cinnabar mines of the Coast. The hotel accommodations are quite good this season, Mr. and Mrs. Dunkin making every effort to make their guests comfortable and contented.

On his way out Saturday from the Springs Mr. Saltmarsh passed Walter and Robert Freshour and herders with a band of nearly 400 cattle bringing them up into the Siskiyou where they already have a band on the summer range. The cattle belong to the boys father and their uncle, Joseph F. Freshour and Ex-sheriff Marian Freshour of Yreka. Mr. Saltmarsh states that the cattle in the mountains look fine and the grass is good.

Prune growers Hold Meeting.

The Willamette Valley Prune Association held an important meeting in Salem last Saturday afternoon. Beside a large attendance of the membership of the association there were a number of delegates from Linn, Lane, Douglas, Benton, Polk and Yamhill Counties, and from Vancouver, Wash., and the meeting was a most enthusiastic one.

The principal subject under discussion by the meeting was the organization of associations in all the districts represented at the meeting, all of which were to be under one secretary so as to avoid competition as between the fruit-growing districts of the Pacific Northwest, and to eliminate the probabilities of one district underselling the others. This plan was discussed at considerable length and received the unanimous approval of the meeting.

The price of prunes for this year was fixed upon a basis of 2 3/4 cents per pound for four sizes.

Mr. Adam Schmidt, known locally as Papa Schmidt, left Monday for Oregon City, a delegate for Oregonian Pochonitis Tribe No. 1 of Redmen, which convened in Oregon City, Tuesday.

August Toepper, who since last fall has been working on Williams Creek, arrived in Jacksonville Monday to spend a week with his old friends and to look up some property interests that he has here.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Puhl gathered at their home Monday evening to celebrate Mr. Puhl's birthday. The gathering was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Puhl but they were equal to the occasion and made an enjoyable time for their guests. Music, games and dancing were the chief amusements, supplemented by a well appreciated lunch.
