

Poorman Creek Items.

J. T. Buckley of Ruch was on Poorman creek Sunday on business.

Will Murphy of Griffin creek was at the mill one day this week.

E. King, one of the owners of the mill, went to San Francisco last week on business.

Joe Saltmarsh and his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Venable of Applegate, were at the mill one day last week selling blackberries.

Genevieve Echolson of Jacksonville visited on the Creek several days last week, the guest of Edith and Clara Hammond.

Watkins Items.

Capt. Hinkle is haying for Mr. Loudon. John Byrne went to Cinnabar Springs last Sunday.

Mr. Dean made a flying trip to Grants Pass last week.

Mrs. Geo. McKee and children are visiting relatives here.

Miss Laura Dorn of Ruch spent Monday here with her parents.

Jack Eaton passed through Watkins Sunday en route to Joes Bar.

Canby Buck came up from Jacksonville Sunday to witness the ball game.

Anthony Watkins and William Hacker made a business trip to Jacksonville last week.

Mrs. Silvia will give a dancing party tonight (Friday) in honor of Misses Amy and Rena McKee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Faucett, Miss Dora and Frank Faucett and Mrs. Battle are camping at Cinnabar Springs.

Some very serious accidents occurred at the ball game Sunday. Albert Collings broke a finger and Frank Silvia was hit in the eye with a ball and will be unable to use it for several days. Frank Collings was riding a wild horse bareback when it ran against a tree throwing him off and cutting his nose badly. It is believed the bone is broken.

Ashland has let the contract to a San Francisco firm to install a fire alarm system, in that city at a cost of $1600.

Earl and Holman Peter left Monday for Upton, Calif., where they will work in a box factory until school begins in Jacksonville when they will return home.

Owen Keegan did not return to Tollman Springs as he expected but gave up the remainder of his vacation and resumed his duties as janitor at the court house. Mr. Keegan has been the court house janitor for the past 15 years, holding his position through the changes of administration, except for two years when the populists were in control, and he has gained the merited credit of being one of the most efficient janitors to be found in the state of Oregon. Mr. Keegan keeps everything about the court house scrupulously clean and in all his other duties he is punctual to the minute.

If you want to rent a farm or have land to rent see T. C. Norris, Jacksonville.

Rev. S. H. Jones has resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian church in Jacksonville to accept a call to the Presbyterian church in Reno, Nevada, and next Sabbath evening will be his last service in Jacksonville. It will be five years this October since Rev. Jones became a resident of Jacksonville and assumed the pastorate of the Presbyterian church here and in that time he has made a host of friends both in his congregation and among the other citizens of the town who regret his departure, but who wish him every success in his new field of labor. Mrs. Jones, though but a resident of Jacksonville for the two months since her marriage to Rev. Jones has made many friends by her many endearing qualities and she too will have the very best wishes of the people of Jacksonville in her new home. Reno is one of the most prosperous of all the larger towns of Nevada and the Presbyterians have a strong organization in that town.

Hafer brothers have word that their father, C. Hafer, president of the Iowa Lumber Company, and E. E. Hart, treasurer of the same company, will visit Jacksonville the last of September. Mr. Hafer is one of the largest lumber dealers in the Missouri valley, having in Council Bluffs a yard with a storage capacity in the sheds alone of over 3,000,000 feet of lumber, and a switch track for over 100 cars and he gives employment to from 20 to 25 men. Mr. Hart is president of the First National Bank of Council Bluffs and he is a capitalist whose wealth is up in the higher figures. The object of their visit here will be to look over their interests in Jacksonville and to decide as to the size and location of the mill which they will operate after this fall for their mill will be cut out at its present location in another three months and then the decision will be whether the mill will be placed farther back in the woods or be brought to Jacksonville and the logs be hauled to town.

Taken with Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that he was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicine.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home, it may save life. For sale by City Drug Store.
