LOCAL NOTES.

Quaker Herbs, three packages for one dollar, at the City Drug Store.

Dr. Lowe, the eye specialist, does not go from house to house. No first-class optician does. See him at Mrs. Taylor's Monday, Oct. the 5th.

Large brass door key found on the street. Owner can get by calling at the Sentinel office.

Jas. W. Rock and John Beckner of Thompson Creek were in Jacksonville over Monday night, they returning home Tuesday with a load of supplies.

The Southern Pacific has issued a most comprehensive pamphlet on the resources, industries, commerce, products, climate, etc., of Oregon. The booklet also contains a splendid map of the state. The whole is a splendid compilation and just the thing to send to your Eastern friends whom you want to know fully about Oregon along these lines. They can be obtained of any local railway agent or by addressing W. E. Coman, general passenger agent, Portland, Oregon.

Ira and Jasper Tungate and their sister Mrs. Manuel Poole arrived in Jacksonville Monday from Mt. Pitt, on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Tungate. The young men returned to their home Tuesday, but Mrs. Poole will stay two weeks with her parents. Cattle raising is the chief industry in the Mt. Pitt district and the Tungate brothers reported that stock are in fine condition. The beef cattle have all been driven down to the lower settlements and most of them sold, though a few of the cattlemen have put their beef cattle into pastures and are holding them for better prices.

The Woman's Home Companion for October contains sixty pages of interesting matter. The chief feature is the center pages, which contain pictures of all the world's "Record Breakers." Valuable special articles are "The United Daughters of the Confederacy," "Fun at Girl's Colleges," a scientific article by Hudson Maxim on "Inventions That Ought to be Invented," and a Nature-Study article on "Squirrels." The short stories are "An Abandoned Eloping," "Uncle Conway's Red-Plush Piano" and "The Last of Nina's Lovers." It is a special fall fashion number containing six pages of suggestions for frocks and frills. Children's stories, poetry and articles on entertaining, cooking and gardening conclude this strong autumn number. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Linn arrived home Monday from a trip North. They spent nearly a week in Portland with their son Fletcher, and their daughters Mrs. Louis Ray and Miss Marguerite. Fletcher Linn is manager of the Oregon Furniture Company and Miss Marguerite is a stenographer in that company's office. Mr. Linn states the Oregon Furniture Company has bought six acres of land in South Portland. The tract fronts on the Willamette river and crosses the Southern Pacific's Oswego-Sheridan line and extends up to the Riverview street car line this giving ample transportation facilities. The Company will at once commence the erection of one of the largest and best equipped furniture factories on the Coast. The present factory building on First near Taylor has been at a rental of $600 per month for a department store. Jacksonville is proud of the record that Fletcher Linn has made for himself, for he is a native of the town and a graduate of the Jacksonville High School. By his own efforts he has risen from an employee to the manager of one of the largest establishments in Portland. When Mr. Linn took charge of the Oregon Furniture Company it was in hard times and its stock worth about 40 percent with debts and no trade as handicaps. The Company is now one of the most prosperous in Portland and employs 160 hands and will employ over 200 when the new factory is complete. On the way home Mr. and Mrs. Linn stopped a few days in Eugene to visit their son George D. Linn, who is prospering with a fine drug store in that city. As to Mr. Linn's future plans he has not definitely settled but it is probable that he will sell his Jacksonville property and move to Portland and become a stock holder in the Oregon Furniture Company. Mr. Linn is no novice in that business for he started the first furniture factory in Southern Oregon and operated it here in Jacksonville for years until the railroad was built and Eastern competition became too strong. Portland now claims to be one of the biggest furniture centers of the United States and to manufacture more furniture than all the other Pacific Coast towns combined.

BUNCOM ITEMS.

Mrs. Caroline Miller has been confined to her bed with rheumatism for the past week.

Mrs. S. Cantrall will return to her farm of Big Applegate this week, after a three year's residence in Jacksonville.

Miss Josephine Saltmarsh has returned home from a three weeks' stay with her cousin, Mrs. H. D. Barneburg, at Dead Indian.

Charles Lund came to A. B. Saltmarsh's this week from his home at Cinabar and will take some of his supplies in for the winter.

W. H. Dezeng came out from his mine at Black Bear, Cal., recently and is en route to Elk Creek, where he has a crew of men at work on a mine.

The cattle men of this section made another trip into the mountains this week for beef cattle. The beef are in prime condition and it is not likely the buyers will do so much culling of cattle here as in other parts of the county.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by City Drug Store.
