

M. E. Church Appointments.

The following are the appointments for the Grants Pass district as made at the annual Oregon conference held in Salem last week: D. T. Summerville, presiding elder; Althouse and Waldo, supply; Ashland, J. T. Abbett; Canyonville, L. C. Zimmerman; Coquille and Brandon, W. H. Myers; Elkton, R. A. Given; Fort Bidwell, supply; Fort Klamath, W. B. Pepper; Gardiner, C. O. Beckman; Gold Hill, A. P. Gillette; Grants Pass, J. W. McDougal; Jacksonville and Central Point, Sanford Snyder; Klamath Falls and Bonanza, supply; Lakeview, J. B. Start; Marshfield, C. T. McPherson; Medford, R. C. Blackwell; Myrtle Point, W. S. Holcom; Klamath Indian Mission, J. L. Beatty; Paisley, S. B. Warren; Picard, supply; Roseburg, G. H. Bennett; Ten-Mile, W. F. Rogers; Wilbur, N. J. Narbit; Wilderville, supply.

Rev. E. B. Lockhart was not returned to Jacksonville and Central Point, though a petition to that effect was sent to the bishop, but he was assigned to Silverton, a town in eastern Marion county, of about 1600 population. Rev. Lockhart is a hardworking, talented young man and in the time that he had charge of the Methodist churches in Jacksonville and Central Point he made many friends who regret his leaving the Valley and who wish him the best of success in his new field of labor.

Rev. Sanford Snyder, the new pastor for Jacksonville and Central Point, is from Kalispell Montana, where he was stationed for the past two and a half years, but desiring a warmer climate got transferred to the Oregon conference. He is a middle aged man, has a wife and four children and comes well recommended as an energetic church worker and a speaker of ability. Rev. Snyder and his family arrived Tuesday and are now at home in the M. E. parsonage.

Rev. A. P. Gillette was returned to Gold Hill for another year as a reward for his faithful work there. During the past year he has resided in Jacksonville, but this week he moved to Gold Hill where he will reside.

For the Medford M. E. church Rev. R. C. Blackwell comes to that place while Rev. W. B. Moore goes to North Yamhill county. Rev. Blackwell has been pastor of the Leslie M. E. church in Salem and he has the reputation of being a highly successful minister and well liked by all who have his acquaintance. Rev. Moore did not return to Medford but went from Salem direct to North Yamhill to arrange for the coming of his family. Thursday Mrs. Moore left Medford to join her husband in their new home. Rev. and Mrs. Moore have in their residence in Medford and Jacksonville won the friendship of all who have had their acquaintance and their removal from the valley is a sincere regret to all. North Yamhill, where they go, is one of the prettiest towns in one of the best sections of the Willamett Valley and they will be sure to make as many true friends as they had in the Rogue River Valley.

Notes from State Normal at Ashland.

The Y. W. C. A. is well organized for good work in the school.

The Normal has, this year, its first student from Cook county, Maud Phillips.

The training school under the directions of Miss Kaiser is very progressive.

The boys are beginning light practice with foot-ball and will be ready later for some games.

Mrs. Fairclo is the popular manager of the Boarding Hall, and Mrs. Fredrick is a very successful matron at the girls dormitory.

The new administration building will be completed within three weeks, and the gymnasium is now under roof and will be ready for use by Nov. 1st.

The new students this week are Jessie Wilson, Jacksonville; Ressie Poley, Lostine, Wallawa county; Ray Beckley, from Elkton, Anna Colvig, Portland; Hazel Grieves, Siskiyou; Allie Ferguson, Ashland.

Students are already in school from Multnomah, Wallawa, Crook, Lake, Klamath, Lane, Josephine, Douglas, Coos, Clackamas, and Jackson counties, and many more are yet to come from these and other counties.

Mystic Shriners at Ashland.

Ashland is one town that realizes the advantages and benefits that come from having public gatherings of various kinds held in the town and no opportunity is ever let pass by that enterprising young city in bringing to it people from all parts of the state and of the Coast. Saturday of this week Ashland will entertain the Mystic Shriners, Alkader Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. of Oregon, meeting there for a business and ceremonial session. It is expected that there will be over 200 Sons of the Desert present from all parts of the state, from Portland alone there being over 50 who with those from the other northern points will come in special cars. The camel will be ridden by over 40 candidates, and as broncho busting is not in it with camel busting it is expected that the gaiety of the occasion will be greatly enlivened by these exhilarating Arabic mystics.

One of the features of Ashland hospitality will be a banquet which promises to be all that could be desired. Noble Theo. Cameron is on the reception committee and he left Jacksonville this Friday for Ashland to assist in having all in readiness when the camel caravans shall arrive Saturday.
