

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bostwick, who reside on Forest Creek, were Mr. Bostwick carries on mining each winter, were in Jacksonville Monday buying supplies.

Deputy Postmaster Lin Purden of Medford was in Jacksonville Sunday afternoon with party of Medford young ladies, they being Miss Osenbrugge, Miss Hazel and Miss Ella Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sparks were in Jacksonville Tuesday from Tompkins Creek laying in their fall supplies. Mr. Sparks is a stock raiser and rancher who is a hustler and he is making money.

J. W. Miller from Little Applegate was in Jacksonville Tuesday getting supplies. Mr. Miller has a small band of cattle and spent the summer on the Little Applegate range, but he is now living in a house on Frank Crump's place, for whom he will work this winter. Next spring he expects to buy a piece of land where there is range and go into the cattle business.

Miss Annie Lyden, of this place, began a fall term of school at Applegate postoffice district on Monday of last week and the patrons of the school pay her the compliment of making a good start with her school. Miss Lyden is a graduate of the Bay City Michigan State Normal school and she is a young woman of the industry and perseverance that makes it certain that she will make a successful teacher.

To get perfect rest use one of these silk floss or cotton felt mattresses. They are the best. C. W. Conklin.

O. P. Hoff, of Salem, state commissioner of labor for Oregon was in Jacksonville Monday, looking up the industrial conditions of this section and gathering data for his next report. Mr. Hoff is a well posted, broadminded man and he will do the duties of labor commissioner, which consist principally of collecting statistics of the industries of Oregon and of seeing that the state laws controlling child labor and of the hours and manner for women workers in factories are enforced.

Arthur Lewis and Chris Keegan returned Sunday from Upper Rogue river where they had been on a week's hunting trip. They report killing four fine bucks and of having a fine time except for the inconvenience of being out in a heavy rain Friday afternoon and Saturday. They state that a Central Point party of which Henry Maury was one got twelve deer. Deer are quite plentiful in the ranges of Upper Rogue river but owing to the number of hunters they are quite shy. Mr. Keegan returned to Ashland where he is employed in Whipp & Wright's marble works.

All the latest magazines and periodicals at the City Drug Store.

H. P. Galarneau, leading contractor and builder of Klamath Falls, came down Sunday from Ashland with Hon. T. Cameron, whose guest he was, remaining over until Monday afternoon in Jacksonville, when he returned to Klamath county. Mr. Galarneau states that Klamath Falls is growing rapidly and prices of all kinds are very high and as a consequence every body is making money. He says there is a great boom in alfalfa and that every acre of land that can be irrigated is being sown to alfalfa. The alfalfa growers are coining money at $10 to $12 per ton for their hay. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Krause, former residents of this place who are now conducting a confectionery and notion store in Klamath Falls, Mr. Galarneau states are building up a fine trade and are making money.

Mr. Theo. Cameron returned Sunday from Ashland where he attended Saturday as one of the reception committee the special session of AlKader Temple of Mystic Shriners of Oregon. Mr. Cameron reports that they had a large attendance from all parts of the state and had over 50 candidates for the camel ride to Mecca. Jackson county was well represented in the band of pilgrims who crossed the burning sand of the desert to the oasis AlKader, their names being as follows: Jacksonville, William Robinson and George M. Love; Eagle Point, S. F. Morine; Medford, W. I. Vawter, Chas. Strang, H. W. Lumsden, W. S. Jones, C. A. Hutchinson and J. E. Enyart; Ashland, J. J. Cambers, G. S. Butler, L. E. Bender, R. L. Burdic, C. W. Barber, E. H. Bristow, Benton Bowers, George W. Dunn, Gust Edlund, Heaton Fox, D. B. Grant, D. H. Jackson, William McGrath, C. W. Martyn, D. McCarthy, G. C. Morris, John J. Neal, E. B. Shaw, C. F. Shepherd, C. H. Thomas, E. P. Tynan, J. K. Van Sant, C. H. Vaupel, C. H. Veght, A. W. Wakefield, F. D. Wagner and G. A. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett O'Brien of Applegate are reported by Stage Driver Henry Wendt to have a fine girl at their home and that both the mother and baby are doing finely.

E. M. Rhoten, one of the pioneer miners on Jackson creek is again trying his luck on that stream and on a ledge from which he took out a pocket and some rich ore many years ago. He has fine prospects and thinks that he will again strike it rich.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Linn and child arrived last Friday from Eugene, where Mr. Linn conducts a large drugstore, to spend a couple of weeks with Mr. Linn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Linn. Mr. and Mrs. Linn are here for an outing and they are putting in full time in the open air enjoying the delightful weather that is now on the calendar, and they are uniting industry with pleasure for they are assisting Mr. Linn's father in picking his big apple crop and he says they do the work as rapidly and well as professional pickers. Rogue River orchards are new to Mrs. Linn and she is surprised at the beauty and perfection of the apples that are grown here.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by City Drug store.
