Happenings Hereabouts.

G. F. Billings of Ashland was a business visitor in Jacksonville Wednesday.

Mrs. H. K. Hanna returned Tuesday from Grants Pass where she had been since Sunday with Judge Hanna who is holding circuit court at that place.

Mrs. J. L. Willits of Joes Bar came out on the stage Tuesday and is spending the week in Jacksonville and Medford doing her fall shopping. She will return to her home Friday.

Mrs. George Armstrong, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Eaton for the past month left Tuesday for her home at Susanville, Washington. Mrs. Armstrong was accompanied by her sister, Miss Valene Eaton, who will visit with her for several weeks.

M. M. Taylor returned Sunday from Junction City, where he had spent a week visiting his sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Robinson. As China pheasant shooting is now on in the Willamette Valley Mr. Taylor in company with Mr. Robinson had fine sport and good success in bagging those fine game birds. He brought home several and divided them with some of his friends.

Mrs. C. W. Conklin went to Medford Saturday remaining over until Sunday evening a guest of Mrs. W. H. Meeker and of Mrs. Clara Brown. Mr. Conklin joined Mrs. Conklin Sunday, but being detained in the morning by undertaking work he missed the train, and securing a tie pass from Conductor Johnnie Barnum he made the trip overland, but as it was on a slow time card he was 20 minutes late for a fine dinner at Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meeker's.

P. J. Sullivan and Bruce Buck came in Thursday from their Squaw creek copper claims where they have been for the greater part of the summer doing assessment work on their claim. Mr. Sullivan returned to Watkins Thursday but Mr. Buck went to Evans creek on what he alleges to be a prospecting trip, but Mr. Sullivan is of the idea that a few more prospecting trips like the present one he will be out a partner for Mr. Buck will have other arrangements made that will result in a life partnership.

What might have been a very serious shooting affair occurred last Sunday evening in the Hotel bar room at Medford. Early in the evening Walter Wyland, who has made himself quite well-known about Medford during the past four months became boisterous, when he was ordered out by the bar-tender, Chas. Gay. Later he returned intoxicated and in a sullen mood, and attempted to make trouble. In the altercation which followed pistols were drawn, Wyland firing four shots and Gay returning one. Wyland was evidently wounded but not so seriously but what he slipped away and made his escape. The bar-room was crowded at the time and it is remarkable that some one was not seriously hurt. It is thought that Wyland went south, as it is stated that he went to Ashland in a livery rig and there had medical attendance.
