

A Suicide at Cinnabar Springs.

Chas. J. Crump, who is stopping at Cinnabar Springs writes the Sentinel that Jasper Kennedy committed suicide at that place on Monday, October 5th. Mr. Kennedy was a young man whose home was near Roseburg and he had been stopping for his health all summer at the Springs. In September he went to Roseburg to attend to some land business. He arrived back on Sunday and took dinner with Joseph Garretson. Complaining of being tired and not well Mr. Garretson invited him to remain, but he went to his own cabin, coming back Monday for dinner. Mr. Kennedy was given a letter by Mr. Garretson while he was eating his dinner and after reading it he got up from the table and went into Mrs. Garretson's bedroom and taking a revolver from under the pillow shot himself through the head. Mr. Garretson hearing the report of the revolver rushed into the bedroom and found Kennedy dead on the floor. The coroner at Yreka was notified but he was away holding an inquest on a logger who had been accidentally killed and the justice of the peace at Oak Bar came and held an inquest, the verdict of the jury was that it was a clear case of suicide. Mr. Kennedy was about 30 years old and he was liked by all who knew him. An incurable disease is supposed to have prompted him to end his life.

The Gibson trial so delayed circuit court at Grants Pass that Judge Hanna will be unable to close the term this week. He will adjourn though Tuesday, if he cannot close, as he is to hold court here Wednesday.

Rev. F. G. Strange arrived in Jacksonville this Friday from Marshfield, which he left two weeks ago and since has been in Portland and Willamette Valley towns. He will hold his first service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening and at Phoenix in the morning.

District Attorney A. E. Reames returned Thursday from Grants Pass where he had been attending circuit court. He got a verdict in the Gibson murder trial of second degree and Judge Hanna sentenced Gibson to the penitentiary for life. He got a sentence of five years each for the three hobos who were convicted of being in a hold-up.

Deputy Sheriff M. N. Long brought to Jacksonville Wednesday P. Daley and J. Simmons, who had been sentenced by Justice Berry of Ashland to serve 15 days in the county jail for stealing a ride on a train. The arrest was made under the new law which permits train men to arrest without warrant any person found on a train unlawfully.

George Brown, of Brownsboro was in Jacksonville Friday, not on business at the clerk's office but there is every likelihood that he will have personal business with County Clerk Orth one of these days.

Mildred Kitto, daughter of W. C. Kitto, superintendent of the Oregon Bell mine on Forest Creek, is in Jacksonville this week a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Puhl.

Thomas Deisch a son of Nicholas Deisch and a brother of Peter Deisch, bookkeeper and stenographer in A. E. Reames office arrived in Jacksonville Wednesday from Alta Iowa, to spend the winter here.

Hon. Henry E. Ankeny, who is in Klamath county looking after his extensive ranch interests in that county, has fully recovered from his recent illness and he and Mrs. Ankeny are expected home next Monday.

Jacksonville has its first power wood saw, George and John Schumpf having fitted up a saw operated by a gasoline engine. The work of setting up the machinery was done by B. H. Harris and the machine was started Thursday, it working to perfection.

John Loudon was in Jacksonville Thursday from Upper Applegate with a lot of wool for Numan-Taylor Company, the wool being the fall clip from his sheep.

Mr. H. Williams arrived Thursday and remained in Jacksonville until Wednesday on a visit to his daughter and son-in-law Mrs. and Prof. E. E. Washburn. Mrs. Williams, who had been with her daughter since last week, returned with Mr. Williams to their home in Ashland.

A report was current during the week that two older children of Paul A. Cirac had died from eating poisoned grapes. The rumor was without foundation for the children were not sick and would have been in school again but they were kept for company for their mother since the death of their youngest brother.

C. W. Coulter has returned from Klamath Falls where he has been for the past six weeks doing carriage and house painting. He had all the work he could do, but the first cold rains and winds reminded him of the balmy climate of Rogue River and he stood not upon the order of his going, but went and he is here to stay for a while at least. He has taken the contract to paint Gus Newbury's house and will begin work Monday.

Walter Wyland who had the shooting scrape last Sunday at the Nash hotel saloon in Medford, was arrested Wednesday by Sheriff J. M. Rader at the home of his uncle, Aaron Wyland, on Antelope creek. Wyland, the night of the shooting, went to Wagner creek and from there to his uncle's place on Antelope. Sheriff Rader had no difficulty in taking him, he walking out of the house and surrendering so soon as the sheriff appeared. Thursday he had his examination before Justice M. Purdin in Medford who bound him over in $2000 bonds to appear before the circuit court for trial and he is now in the county jail in default of bonds. Wyland got one shot in the thigh from Gay's pistol but it is not serious.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Kashafer was sent last Friday to Sams Valley to bring in J. G. Brown of that place who was reported to be insane. Saturday Mr. Kashafer assisted by James Briscoe and G. W. Stacy of Sams Valley brought Mr. Brown and placed him in jail. Mr. Brown is an adopted brother of Chas. Brown of this place and at his request the prisoner was held until a sister could be communicated with in Cal., it being expected that she would want to place Mr. Brown in a sanitarium in California. Owing to sickness in her family no reply was received from her until Thursday, which was to place him in the Oregon asylum. Judge Prim having left Monday on a hunting trip to the mountains the commitment for the sheriff to take the insane man to the asylum was made out Friday by Justice W. J. Plymale and that afternoon Sheriff Rader took him to Salem. He is rational at short intervals and is rather quiet. He is a young man about 30 and has been batching on a farm in Sams Valley for some months past. He came from California and he was insane once before his affliction being caused by a severe attack of brain fever. He imagines that there are spirits after him.
