

JACKSONVILLE SENTINEL

Vol. I

Jacksonville, Jackson County, Oregon, Friday, October 23, 1903.

No. 24

LOCAL NOTES.

While looking for presents don't overlook these handsome rugs. Over 40 different designs. C. W. Conklin's.

County Treasurer J. T. Taylor of Josephine county gives notice that he will pay all warrants protested to Sept. 1, 1897.

Miss Jennie Kitto came in from her home on Forest Creek last Saturday and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Puhl. Miss Jennie is a winsome young lady and she as well as her sister Miss Mildred have become popular with the Jacksonville young people.

Trespass notices on cloth sent by mail to any address for $1.00 a dozen.

George and John Schumpf are doing a big business with their gasoline wood saw, it running like a clock for a whole day, which is more than was predicted for it by some, but it has proved the correctness and skill of its builder B. N. Harris, for it does the work and much cheaper and with less bother than a steam power wood saw.

The Christian church at Medford has a regular pastor, Rev. E. A. Childs having accepted a call to that church and hereafter he will hold the regular Sunday services morning and evening, together with the midday prayermeeting. Rev. Childs is from Prineville, and he is a fine speaker and has the reputation of being a hard church woker.

Rev. Sanford Snyder, the new pastor of the Methodist churches in Jacksonville and Central Point has arranged his program of services similar to that carried out by Rev. E. B. Lockhart, holding services one Sunday in Jacksonville and the following Sunday in Central Point. This Sunday Rev. Snyder will be in Central Point holding services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

E. E. Bagley of Woodstock, Illinois, and I. A. Kelsey of Millbank, South Dakota, were in Jacksonville Wednesday looking up the title to some lots in Woodville which they are thinking of purchasing of Wm. Bybee. As at this season of the year it is stormy weather in their home towns in the East they think the balmy sunshine weather of Rogue River Valley truly delightful.

Slabwood in stove lengths $1.00 per load at saw mill—Iowa Lumber Co.

The marriage took place Tuesday at the home of the bride of Mr. James Johnson and Mrs. Helen Thurman, Rev. A. P. Gillette officiating. Following the ceremony a fine dinner was served to which a number of guests as well as the family were seated. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are each well known in Jacksonville and have many friends to give them wellwishes for their matrimonial venture that has started so auspiciously.

G. W. Stevens of Brownsboro was in Jacksonville Tuesday. Mr. Stevens in partnership with I. L. Bradshaw is quite extensively engaged in the fruit business. They will have about 3,000 boxes of apples this fall which they are now hauling to market and selling through the Rogue River Fruitgrowers Union. They will add 500 trees to their orchard this winter, planting Newtowns and Spitzenburgs.

M. D. Jones, who for the past two years has been in the employ of the Sterling Mining Company, was in Jacksonville Tuesday. The miners at that camp are now on a vacation, work being closed down on the 14th when this seasons cleanup was finished. Mr. Ankeny will have work resumed again in about two weeks making repairs on the ditch and getting things in readiness about the mine for piping so soon as the rains begin.

Ivan Humason, whose advertisement appears in another column of the Sentinel has opened up a drug store in the Palm-Bodge block in Medford, which he calls the Pill Box. The shelving, counters and other woodwork is finished in oil in the natural color of the wood and is from the furniture factory of Weeks & Baker, and the workmanship and design would be a credit to a city factory. Mr. Humason will keep all the latest and the best in the drug line, as also a complete line of rubber goods and toilet articles.

If you want to rent a farm or have land to rent see T. C. Norris, Jacksonville.

A. Andrews a Griffin creek farmer is one of the many farmers who are proving that the hill land of this locality is the best of fruit land. He has a small orchard on hill land at an elevation 300 feet above the valley that is producing apples in quality and quantity that is not excelled by the best valley orchard. From a number of young Newton trees he has picked from eight to ten boxes of apples to each tree, his orchard yielding him 325 boxes of apples that graded as high as any handled by the Rogue River Fruitgrowers Union.

The announcement is made that the marriage of Mr. Harry Luy and Miss Isa Cook will take place on Wednesday of next week at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ella Cook. The wedding will be private, only the immediate relatives of the parties being present. Mr. Luy is a Jacksonville boy and one of the most popular young men in the town and Miss Cook is equally as popular and the young people have a host of friends in Jacksonville and in other parts of the county who give them their best wishes for a long and happy life. Mr. Luy has rented Mrs. Cook's house and he and his bride will make it their home.

Mr. Bellinger a real estate dealer of Medford was in Jacksonville Wednesday. Speaking of the effort of Jacksonville board of trade to get the county road now wandering around in the bed of Jackson creek placed on a better route Mr. Bellinger stated that that section of road was one of the worst advertisements that Jacksonville could have, for strangers judged by the condition of the roads the public enterprise of a community. He had heard so many adverse criticisms of that road that when he was out driving with prospective land buyers he avoided the Jackson creek road whenever possible and did not bring strangers to Jacksonville as often as he would were the road in a creditable condition.

See those odd parlor pieces, nothing nicer for a wedding or a birthday present. C. W. Conklin's.

Dr. A. B. Tadlock and Mrs. Tadlock of Knoxville, Tenn., were in Jacksonville Wednesday while looking over this part of Rogue River Valley with a possible view of locating here. They were greatly pleased with the grand scenery, the varied productions and the climate. The latter especially interested them as the doctor is not seeking a business location, having all the money he needs; and they want a place where there is a healthful, equable climate in which to reside. For several years past they have spent their winters in Florida, but having heard of the Pacific Coast and the Rogue River valley, where there are twelve months in the year of weather free from excessive heat or cold, hurricanes and thunderstorms and the half a score of other unpleasantnesses of the East, they came west to investigate. Dr. Tadlock is a veteran of the Union army, having served as a surgeon in the Fourth Tennessee Infantry and he was a close personal friend of the famous Parson Brownlow and of President Andrew Johnson, both of whom were Tennesseans. Mrs. Tadlock is a literary woman of considerable attainments and should she and the Doctor locate in Jacksonville they will be appreciated additions to the society of Jacksonville.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by City Drug Store. Trial bottle free.

To get perfect rest use one of these silk floss or cotton felt mattresses. They are the best. C. W. Conklin.
