Many Mothers of a Like Opinion.

Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by City Drug Store.

Ashland Normal Notes.

County Superintendent of Schools P. H. Daily peeped in on us last week.

Miss Bessie Cellars of Drain, a graduate of the Drain Normal, visited the Normal a full day last week.

The departments of music and elocution will give an entertainment this Friday evening in the Normal chapel.

The new students this week are Walter McIntire, who recently came in from Bly, Ella Anderson of Medford, and Will Ferguson of Ashland.

The Congressional Literary Society has elected Sidney Allen president. Mr. Allen is from Sterling mine and is a member of the senior class.

The second football team has been harrowing up the athletic grounds adjoining the campus, preparatory to some genuine practice. A game is in sight. Professors Watts and Payne played in the alumni football team at the University of Oregon last Saturday against a team made up of under-graduates. The Alumnis were defeated.

Class of 1900—Where are its members? S. P. Robbins, the valedictorian, is vice-principal of the Jacksonville schools. C. F. Easter is special agent of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., Minnie Gowland and Minnie Hockenyo are grade teachers in the Medford schools, Retta McIntosh is teaching in Cedar Hill, New Mexico, Morton Newton, and C. E. Stevens are teaching in Northern California, Ida Stewart, one of Lake Countys successful teachers, is taking a post-graduate course at the Normal, Hallie Thomas is entering upon her fourth year at the Salem public schools, Cressie Norton is taking a rest from teaching and is recuperating her health at Roseburg, Mary Caldwell (Ashurst) lives in Central California, where her husband is principal of a school, Mary Smith is a clerk for Lipman & Wolf, Portland, Marie Cottrell is teaching at Nordyze, near Phoenix, Arizona.

Halloween social to be given by the Christian Endeavor of Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Bellinger of Medford were in Jacksonville Wednesday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Tallent of San Francisco, calling on their many friends in this place.

Prof. S. P. Robbins left Thursday morning for Chico, Calif., where on Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Slimmer, he will be united in marriage to Miss Ellenore Slimmer, Rev. Picton of the Christian church performing the ceremony. Prof. Robbins and his bride will arrive Sunday morning in Ashland where they will spend a part of the day with his relatives and in the afternoon they will drive to Jacksonville and take possession of the home which is a waiting them. They will occupy the cottage near C. L. Reames' place on California street lately occupied by B. E. Haney and which Professor Robbins had furnished even to a shed full of wood before he left for California. Prof. Robbins met the girl that is to be his wife when they were students at the California State Normal School in Chico three years ago and their friendship soon changed to love and now that he has attained a degree of success in his profession that makes possible the maintenance of a home they are to unite their lives for happiness or sorrow as the fate may decree, but which is the hope of all who make the venture that it may be all happiness. Prof. Robbins is a Jackson county boy who has won for himself the credit of being one of the most successful teachers in the county and he is a young man of fine attainments and sterling character and he has a host of friends who have the best of wishes for him and his bride. The bride is the daughter of a prominent California rancher and she is an educated refined young lady who will be most welcome to Jacksonville. For the two school days that Prof. Robbins will be absent Miss Ethel Flory will have charge of his room. The other teachers in the school together with friends are planning to give Mr. and Mrs. Robbins a reception on their arrival at their home.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by City Drug store.
