Thursday morning Mrs. Basye and Mr. Basye returned to their home at Missouri Flat, they being accompanied by Chas. Basye who goes to look after some mining in which he is interested on Applegate.

Emmet Beeson the well known stockman of Wagner creek will leave in a short time for California with his wife and sister, Miss Kate Beeson. The trip is for Mrs. Beeson's health which has not been good of late. Mrs. Beeson and Miss Beeson will remain all winter in California but Mr. Beeson will return for a time during the winter to look after his extensive farm and stock interests.

W. R. Hawk and wife arrived in Jacksonville Monday by team from Elgin, Union county, and will make this place their home. Tuesday they moved into the house on South Third street lately occupied by Thos. McClanahan. Mr. Hawk claims to be a first-class harness and shoe maker and has been employed by T. C. Norris to work in his shop. Mr. Hawk began Thursday and has turned out some well finished jobs.

Owen Keegan, David Thompson and John Dunnington got back Thursday from a weeks hunting trip on the headwaters of Butte creek near Mt. Pitt. They found but little sign of game in the foot hills, finding more evidences of deer and other animals down in the lower valleys. They succeeded, though, in getting one fine deer and a number of birds and fish. During Mr. Keegan's absence George Henry was janitor at the court house and he kept everything in the best of order about the building.

D. P. Freeze was in Jacksonville Wednesday to greet his old time friends. He left Jacksonville in 1896 going to Illinois and later to Iowa and two years ago to Montana where he resides at Hamilton, and is following his trade of carpenter. He has married since leaving Jacksonville and has one child. Mr. Freeze had been to San Francisco for treatment for cancer on his lower lip. The specialist applied a composition to the cancer which caused it at the end of 12 days to drop out leaving a clean, smooth wound which is healing nicely and Mr. Freeze thinks that he will have no further trouble from the disease.

Commissioner Thomas Riley long since gained the reputation of being a successful farmer and he is credited with being one of the most competent commissioners Jackson county has ever had now he has earned new laurels and the qualification to membership in the Gold Ray Rod & Gun Club by shooting a wild goose and on the wing at that. The goose was a large, fine one and made a roast fit for a king or a county commissioner and its capture greatly elated Mr. Riley and the intimation is out that there will be roast goose frequently hereafter at the Riley table. It is evident that the genial commissioner has been target practicing for his friends here state that when he lived in Jacksonville that he could not hit a barn door with a double-barreled shotgun.

The marriage took place Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ella Cook, of Miss Isa

Cook to Mr. Harry Luy, Rev. F. G. Strange officiating. In addition to the contracting parties there were a number of friends present to witness the simple, yet impressive ceremony that united the lives of two of Jacksonville's popular young people. The parlor was tastily decorated with autumn leaves and evergreen and a mistletoe bough held by loops of ribbons was suspended above where the bridal party stood. The wedding presents were many and several of them were quite valuable and all were of utility rather than mere ornament. The bride and groom are natives of Jacksonville and each have many friends both here and in the county who give them their best wishes for a long and a happy married life. Mr. Luy has rented Mrs. Cook's residence on South Third street and he and his bride will make it their home. The house was all in readiness and Mr. and Mrs. Luy began housekeeping at once in their home.

District Attorney A. E. Reames has decided to turn Walter Wyland, who is in Sheriff Rader's custody in the county jail, over to the authorities of Nez Perce county, Idaho, they being very anxious to secure him. They have two charges against him one for horse stealing and one for jail breaking and they have assured Mr. Reames that they can send Wyland to the penitentiary for at least 10 years. They warned Sheriff Rader that Wyland had a bad record in Idaho and was an expert jail breaker. Any effort that Wyland may make at cutting his way out of the Jackson county jail will be futile as it is lined with chilled steel and a drill or a chisel will not cut it. Wyland is a native of Clackamas county, being raised in the Wilhoit section, and he was a wild boy before he began his career as a bad man. Sheriff Rader has received word that Sheriff Schultz will leave Lewiston Monday and be here Wednesday to get Wyland and take him back to Idaho for trial. For his shooting scrape at Medford Wyland could only be sent up for a year or two while his Idaho offences will land him behind the bars for ten or more years and by letting the Idaho authorities have him Jackson county and Oregon will be saved considerable expense.

Emil Britt has added to the Sentinel exhibit a dozen bunches of grapes that weigh from two to three and a half pounds each. The varieties represented are the White Malaga, Rose of Peru, Chassela's Rose and Flaming Tokay. In color, flavor, size of grapes and symmetry of bunches these grapes could not be excelled by those grown in any other section of the United States or even in Europe. The red soil of the hills about Jacksonville is winning a reputation for producing grapes of a quality only equaled by the best grape districts of Europe, in fact this section is the only district in the United States, as has been proven by test, that can successfully grow the finer wine and table grapes of Europe. Mr. Britt and his father, Mr. Peter Britt, who is a native of the celebrated Swiss grape districts, have fruited over 60 varieties of grapes and they have had greater per cent of success than have the vinedrivers of any district in the United States. The Jacksonville red soil has peculiar chemical constituents that produce a juicy, high-flavored, tender grape that is sure to make this one of the famous grape districts of the world. Another feature is the remarkable vigor and healthfulness of the vines. The climatic conditions are perfect for there is not the intense heat to make a tough, watery insipid grape and there is no wind at all to break the vines nor is there cold, beating rain storms to destroy the pollen and render the vines barren nor to rot the grapes when grown. Grape growing has been demonstrated to be a commercial success on the hills about Jacksonville and the time is not distant when the shipment of grapes and wine will be a leading industry of this section.
