

Ashland Normal Notes.

The two literary societies are getting down to substantial work.

Claude Hoover visited his home people at Medford over Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. Tufts, the state organizer of anti-saloon leagues, addressed the students in chapel last Friday morning. His address was highly appreciated.

The Normal, this year, has its first student from Lincoln county, Miss Olive Boone; and its first student from Crook county, Miss Maudie Phillips.

The new students this week are May Cooper, Hoquiam, Washington; Olive Boone, Yaquina, Lincoln county; Earl Shepherd and Roy McCampbell, Ashland.

The faculty had a hunter's dinner last Thursday evening at Mrs. Silsby's residence. Prof. F. R. Neil furnished the venison, Miss Case the possum, Miss Silsby the a-la-paine and Prof. Watts the witty toast.

Miss Della Stewart, a member of the senior class was chosen as a delegate of the Normal Y. W. C. A. to the state convention of this organization which was held at Albany last week. Miss Stewart was honored with the office of secretary of the convention.

Miss Case's class in German is now writing the language. Miss Gertrude Biede, who is a member of the class, is the only one of the class who already speaks the language. Miss Biede was for several years a pupil in the Jacksonville schools. She is a junior in the Normal, having entered the freshman class last year.

Class of 1902, Annie Bogue is now Mrs. Clarence Cornutt and lives near Riddle; Samuel Chestnut has just completed a term of school near Yuba California; Tella Dickson is teaching at Fort Klamath; Grace Garrett and Mayme McWilliams are grade teachers in the Ashland schools; A. Moon is the pedagogue at Bellview; and Earl Shepherd is taking Latin, German etc., as postgraduate work in the Normal.
