The Companion as a Christmas Gift.

The Youth's Companion is one of the few gifts that are always appropriate and yet within reach of the smallest purse. It brings to every member of the family something of interest, something of value—a story that cheers, an article that carries the reader far-off countries or among men who govern, a sketch that amuses, a poem that puts a bit of truth in a new and convincing way, a page of pictures that holds the children spellbound. It is America's home paper—a paper received weekly in more than half a million households in the United States.

If you desire to make a Christmas present of the Companion, send the publishers the name and address of the person to whom you wish to give the Companion, with $1.75, the annual subscription price. They will send to the address named the Companion's Christmas Packet, all ready for Christmas morning, containing the Companion Calendar for 1904, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty-two issues for 1904.

The new subscriber for 1904 will receive all the issues of the Companion for the remaining weeks of 1903 free from the time of subscription, also the Companion Calendar for 1904, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

Annual Announcement Number, fully describing the principal features of the Companion's new volume for 1904 will be sent to any address free. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkley Street, Boston, Massachusetts.
