

SPECIAL SESSION CALLED.

Governor Chamberlain Calls Legislature to Meet on Monday December 21 to Rectify Tax Law—Special Elections for two State Senators Made Necessary by Call.

Governor Chamberlain last Saturday issued a call for a special session of the Oregon legislature, to convene on the 21st day of next December, to remedy the defective tax law.

The Governor also issued writs of special elections to be held Dec. 16, 1903, in the 9th and 19th senatorial districts of Oregon to elect successors to J. N. Williamson, now Congressman, and C. W. Fulton, now U. S. Senator. The 9th district which Williamson represented in the Oregon Senate comprises Klamath, Lake, Crook and Grant Counties. The 19th district represented by Fulton included only Clatsop county. No special election will be called for Benton county to choose a successor to Senator John D. Daly, whose eligibility had been questioned on account of his present residence in Portland.

The full text of the governor's call for the special session of the legislature follows:

"SALEM, OR., Nov. 21, 1903.—I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, by virtue of the authority in me vested as governor of the state of Oregon, do hereby direct the convening of the two houses of the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon in special session at the state capital in Salem on Monday, the 21st day of December, A. D., 1903, at 10 o'clock a. m., of said day, for the purpose of meeting the objections made by the supreme court to and curing the defects in an act entitled "An act to provide a more efficient method for the assessment and collection of taxes and to amend sections 3057, 3060, 3082, 3084, 3085, 3090, 3106, 3107, 3111, 3116 and 3120, of Bellinger & Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon," passed by the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon at its 22nd regular session in 1903.

"All who shall at the time hereinafter named be entitled to act as members of said legislative assembly are hereby required to take notice.

"Given under my hand and the great seal of the state of Oregon at the capitol in Salem, on this 21st day of November, A. D., 1903.

(Signed)

"GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN,
Governor.

"By the Governor,
"F. I. DUNBAR,
Secretary of State."

Douglas County turkeys.

The annual shipments of turkeys for Thanksgiving from Roseburg, which have been in progress for the past week, closed Saturday. From figures given by local dealers, it is found that the turkeys shipped from Roseburg this season numbered about 6,350 head. This represents about one-third of this season's turkey product of the county and a revenue to Roseburg and vicinity of about $12,000. This amount could have been greatly increased had there been enough turkeys to supply the demand, which was greatly in excess of last year. One local dealer stated that he could have found ready market for at least six carloads if he had had the turkeys.

With the exception of a few hundred head which were sent to San Francisco, all of the turkeys were marketed at Seattle at prices ranging from 18 to 23 cents a pound net weight.

About 10,000 head of turkeys were shipped from Oakland and a total of nearly 3,000 head from other points in the county outside of Roseburg. Estimating the whole output at 19,000 head would represent an approximate total revenue of nearly $37,000. — Roseburg Review.

The Leading Oregon Agricultural Paper Free.

The Oregon Agriculturist and Rural Northwest, and the Jacksonville Sentinel both for $1.50 a year, and both papers stopped at end of year if subscription not renewed.

The Sentinel is the only paper published at the county seat of Jackson county. The Oregon Agriculturist is published semimonthly at Portland and it is one of the largest, best edited and most popular agricultural papers of the Pacific Coast. It has departments devoted to each class of farm work and it is an all-around paper for the farm and the house. $1.50 gets the Jacksonville Sentinel and the Oregon Agriculturist.

Good Housekeeping for December.

The big December number of Good Housekeeping, from the exquisitely printed Christmas cover in soft tints of blue and gold and red through to the last advertisement, is a thing of beauty and of solid interest and value. Sixteen of the opening pages printed in a tint upon coated paper heighten the sumptuousness of the effect. The contents, to choose briefly from the wealth and variety of material, include the following: A Christmas Story, The River, by Ruth McEnery Stuart, illustrated by James Preston; The Church Home, illustrated from photographs; Mrs. Perkins' Investment, by Augusta Kortrecht, illustrated by Henry Fangel; Toys, by Ethel McKenney; A Home of a Hundred Daughters, by Mabel Craft Deering; The Banishment of Worry, a symposium by Booker T. Washington, Octave Thanet, Bishop Spalding of Peoria, May Irwin, Alice Hegan Rice, author of Mrs. Wiggs, and others; A More Rational Life for Women, by Helen West Cooke, M. D.; The Higher Life, by Ella Morris Kretschmar; Hospital or Home, by Clara L. Came; Beauty in Little Things, by Florence A. Dawson; Paying Guests, serial, by Mary Stewart Cutting; designs for bed work, menu sketches by well known artists, a splendid department of cookery, etc. etc.

Ten cents a copy, one dollar a year. The Phelps Publishing Co., Springfield, Mass., New York, Chicago, San Francisco.

W. E. Sherrill and family will leave next week for Woodville, Southern Oregon, where they will visit a couple of months with relatives of Mrs. Sherrill. In January they will go to Vancouver, where Mr. Sherrill has leased a 100-acre hay and dairy farm.—Hood River Glacier.

Dr. Emil Kirchgessner of Medford has filed a suit against Lillie Kirchgessner, in the circuit court of Marion county. The couple were wedded in Lemars, Iowa, December 20, 1892, and the plaintiff alleges that October 6, 1902, his wife deserted him at Medford, Or., and has since refused to live with him.

D. T. Lawton, manager for Mitchell, Lewis & Staver's implement house in Medford, was in Jacksonville Monday. Mr. Lawton drove over in his buggy and the condition of the road within the Jacksonville district did not impress him very favorably as he stated that he had to ford Jackson creek nine times and that had the water been a little higher it would have come into his buggy floor and added another unpleasant feature to his ride.

Henry D. Kubli was in Jacksonville Monday and he has undertaken to assist the Jacksonville board of trade in securing signatures to their petition to the postoffice department asking for a betterment of the Jacksonville and the Applegate mail service. Mr. Kubli took home with him the petition and he will secure the signatures of the Applegate settlers to it for they are all anxious to have a morning mail service to Jacksonville, for it would enable them to get their mail 24 hours earlier than is now the case.

The Wulf placer mine on left fork of Jackson creek owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Wulf has not been worked to any extent for the past three years but will be worked this winter by Harry Wulf and Lewis Stone, a son-in-law of Mrs. Wulf's and who was employed at the Iowa Lumber Company's mill this last summer. The mine has a No. 1 giant supplied by a six inch pipe under a good pressure which Messrs. Wulf and Stone put in order and for the past week have been piping and making fine headway, as the late rains have given them a fine head of water. This mine has turned out many thousands of dollars in the years past and it has a lot of rich pay dirt yet to be handled.

L. J. Sleppy, who is making some money off a farm that he owns east of Talent, was in Jacksonville Monday on business at the court house. Accompanying Mr. Sleppy was Jonah Barrick a young man who is residing at Mr. Sleppy's home while he is recovering from a serious accident that befell him two months ago while hauling lumber from the Cotton mill to Ashland, in which he was thrown from the wagon by the breaking of the brake and both of his feet were run over by the wagon crushing them so that he narrowly escaped the necessity of having them amputated. He has so far recovered the use of his feet that he can walk some with aid of crutches and there is every prospect that he will regain the use of his feet, but they will be so weakened that he can never do heavy work again. Mr. Barrick has been a hardworking ambitious young man and this accident is a serious handicap to his future success in life.
