LOCAL NOTES.

Slabwood in stove lengths $1.00 per load at saw mill—Iowa Lumber Co.

Rev. Robert Ennis, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place but who is now in charge of the Presbyterian church at Turner, Marion county, has been in Jacksonville this week looking after his fruit farm that he owns on Jackson creek.

Mrs. Chas. Moore arrived in Jacksonville last Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. S. Newbury, who has been in poor health for some time. Mrs. Moore is a sister of Gus Newbury and Mrs. Mary Peter and she was a former resident of this place and was one of the most successful teachers ever in the Jacksonville school. Mrs. Moore is now a resident of Baker City where her husband is one of the leading attorneys of that city.

L. A. Hammersley of Gold Hill was in Jacksonville this Friday to file on a piece of land before County Clerk Orth. Mr. Hammersley with his father, G. R. Hammersley, is operating a placer mine on Sardine Creek. They use a No. 2 giant and have rich ground that is easily handled thus enabling them to make very profitable runs. They commenced work with the first water from the late rains. Of their neighbor miners on Sardine creek Mr. Hammersley states J. L. Morzena is running his No. 2 giant night and day. Fred Ketchum is getting his ditch in order and will soon begin piping with a No. 2 giant. As to duck shooting on Rogue River Mr. Hammersley states that ducks are more plentiful than for years past.

While looking for presents don't overlook these handsome rugs. Over 40 different designs. C. W. Conklin's.

William Muller has taken a position with J. G. Vandylke & Co., in their large merchandise store in Medford. Mr. Muller is one of Jacksonville's best known young men and he is an energetic, bright young business man. His mother, Mrs. Max Muller has closed up her residence in Ashland and is living in Medford with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Murphy until such time as she can have possession of her dwelling in Jacksonville, when she will again make her home in this place.

Mrs. M. E. Houser, of Butte, Montana, is in Jacksonville, a guest of Mrs. A. Elmer. Mrs. Houser was a resident for 18 months 10 years ago of Jacksonville, coming here with her husband, who was a wealthy Montana mining man, for his health, but his disease was too deeply seated and he died. Mrs. Houser returned to Montana to look after her extensive property interests, but the delightful climate of Jacksonville was ever a pleasant remembrance to her in contrast to the rigorous climate of Montana, and recently she disposed of her property and she will now take up her residence in Jacksonville and make her investments here.

Columbia river salt salmon bellies, mackerel, Holland herring in Kits and Kegs. Nunan-Taylor Co.

Mrs. Eugene Thompson arrived home last Saturday from Missouri Flat where she has been teaching school for some time past. Mrs. Thompson closed her term of school the previous Friday. During the afternoon her pupils rendered a pleasing program of recitations and songs acquitting themselves with marked credit. Members of the school board and almost patrons of the school were present and they greatly appreciated the exercises. Mrs. Thompson was offered the school again for the term next spring so well pleased were they with her work as a teacher. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson expect to leave Jacksonville this Saturday for the Newbury ranch near Squaw Lake which Mr. Thompson has leased with the option of purchase. They will hereafter reside at Squaw Lake, Mr. Thompson planning to engage in stockraising, for which his place is most favorably located.
