Librarian Elmendorf, of the Buffalo Public Library, suggests, in the December Review of Reviews, "Some Things a Boy of Seventeen Should Have Had an Opportunity to Read." His article is full of helpful hints to parents and teachers regarding the reading that should be put in boy's way before he reaches a stage in his growth beyond which such reading will cease to attract him.

A new line of candy and nuts. Medford Book Store.

H. M. Scott, a large rancher from the wheat belt in Umatilla county spent Tuesday in Jacksonville. Mr. Scott had stopped over at Medford for a few days while on his way to Southern California to spend the winter, and said he could not proceed on his journey without a glimpse of historic Jacksonville. Mr. Scott has resided for many years in Eastern Oregon, but this is his first trip to the Southwestern part of the state.

Fred Fick and L. T. Jones, who had the contract for constructing the residence of Gus Newbury on East California street, have completed the job and the house so soon as the painter and paper-hangers are through with their work will be ready for occupancy. Mr. Newbury's house is one of the most substantial and well appearing residences in Jacksonville and it is also one of the largest and the thorough manner in which it is finished is a credit to the builders, Messrs. Fick & Jones.

There is a growing tendency to have Christmas presents articles of usefulness rather than of mere ornament to be thrown aside so soon as the new and the novelty is off. Practical people will find at a hardware store many articles that would be appreciated as a present to a relative or a friend. D. H. Miller Medford's pioneer and leading hardware dealer, has a splendid assortment of articles from which a selection can be made for the father, mother, brother or sister, the friend and for the mechanic, the farmer and any one who has an occupation or lives in a home. He will save money to Jacksonville people by buying of him.

The rooms from which Mrs. Thompson lately removed her restaurant are being put in order by its owner, Mr. Britt, for occupancy by Mr. Conklin to accommodate his increased furniture and undertaking trade. Papa Schmidt is papering the front room which will be used by Mr. Conklin for an undertaking parlor and which he will fit up the equal of any in the state outside of the large cities. One of the rear rooms he will use as a store room for furniture and the other room he will use as a workshop. Jacksonville is proud of Mr. Conklin's furniture store for well it may, for that is a line of goods that can be had in Jacksonville at as reasonable prices and in as complete selection and as fine in quality as is to be had in Rogue River Valley. Big sales and small profits, is Mr. Conklin's method of business and he is making it win out, for his sales from a small beginning are now each month up to a sum that any business man would be gratified to have on his sales book.

Popular Holiday Excursions.

T. K. Bolton and Emil Peil, who have been successfully conducting excursions to San Francisco for several years, announce another, to take place during the holidays. It will leave Ashland Saturday, Dec. 26th, on the noon train. Round-trip tickets have been placed at $16, good for 15 days.

In order that ample accommodations may be arranged for, those intending to make the trip are requested to inform the management as early as possible.

The hundreds who have participated in these excursions will testify to the enjoyment afforded by them. The introduction of the New Year in San Francisco is something worth witnessing.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by City Drug Store.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

How Can I Keep Up with the Times?

IT is pretty hard to keep well informed on the political news, the scientific news, the literary news, the educational movements, the great business developments, the hundreds of interesting and valuable articles in the hundreds of excellent magazines. About the only way it can be done by the average busy man and woman is to read a magazine like "The Review of Reviews," and, as it is the only magazine of the sort, it is a good thing to send $2.50 for a year's subscription.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT says:

"I know that through its columns views have been presented to me that I could not otherwise have had access to; because all earnest and thoughtful men, no matter how widely their ideas diverge, are given free utterance in its columns."

EX-PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVELAND says:

"I consider it a very valuable addition to my library."
