Quaker Herbs, three packages for one dollar, at the City Drug Store.

Mrs. B. P. Theiss, of Medford, was in Jacksonville Thursday a guest of Mrs. Josephine Russell at the Nunan home.

If you want to rent a farm or have land to rent see T. C. Norris, Jacksonville.

Santa Claus has opened a branch department at T. C. Norris' store, where presents can be had that are reasonable in price and of lasting utility to the recipients.

Slabwood in stove lengths $1.00 per load at saw mill—Iowa Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Orth, T. J. Kenney and George Neuber drove to Williams creek Sunday and returned Monday. A quail hunt was one feature of the trip and some 40 birds were secured.

John Marsh has completed a fine duck boat each for A. E. Reames and George E. Neuber, and this week the boats were taken to the lake at Gold Ray and Sunday they will be launched and given a trial as to their seaworthiness.

Barley, millfeed, corn and wheat at the Boss. Cheap as the market affords.

The Rebekahs held their annual election for officers Monday evening, Mrs. Frances Wilson being chosen noble grand; Miss Pauline Kareuski, vice grand; Mrs. Mamie Dax, recording secretary and Miss Emma Helms, financial secretary.

You should see our burnt leather and wood before selecting Xmas presents. Medford Book Store.

John Spiker, a Montana mining man who has been here for the past six months looking after some copper claims that he has on Upper Applegate left Wednesday for Hotchkiss, Colorado, where he will spend the winter. He expects to return to Jacksonville early in the spring.

J. McPherson, one of the big orchardists of Griffin creek was in Jacksonville Wednesday. Mr. McPherson is an up-to-date farmer and is actively interested in the farmers institute to be held in Jacksonville on Saturday of next week and he will attend and induce as many others to come as he can.

The Native Daughters held their election last Thursday choosing for their officers for the ensuing year, Miss Amelia Britt, President; Miss Maud Prim, 1st vice president; Miss Marie Nickeli, 2d vice president; Miss Lulu Jones, 3d vice president; Mrs. Isa Luy, secretary; Miss Emma Ulrich, financial secretary; Mrs. Effie Prim, treasurer; Miss Fannie Donegan, marshal.

William Cople and Miss Annie Matney were married last Sunday at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. Sanford Snyder. Both young people were from Applegate. Mr. Cople being a hustling young farmer who has rented the Fat Every farm now owned by Z. Cameron, and Miss Matney is a daughter of Mrs. E. Matney and is a young lady held in high esteem by her acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Cople returned Sunday to Applegate and Monday went to their home which Mr. Cople had all furnished and ready for his bride.

A band of 300 head of cattle was brought in Monday from Applegate for shipment to San Francisco. They were all choice beeves and brought the owners over $10,000. The cattle were from the herds of Andrew Cantrall, Miles Cantrall, Arthur Kleinhammer, Henry D. Kubli, James D. Buckley, Frank Cameron and Frank Crump and were bought by J. C. Mitchell for Grayson, Owen & Co., of which he is a member. There has been about $8,000 in cattle taken out of Applegate prior to this sale and there is fully $6,000 worth of cattle that are being fed for the late winter and spring market.

Santa Claus has fitted the entire second story of the Medford Book Store with toys, books, games and pictures.

The Odd Fellows are planning for a fraternal and social evening next Monday that promises to be an event in fraternal circles. On that evening the local lodge will be paid a visit by Hon. F. G. Micelli, of Roseburg, grand master of the Oregon grand lodge of Odd Fellows. The Odd Fellows will also have as their guest the Rebekah lodge. At the close of the regular exercises a supper will be served in the banquet hall connected with the lodge room that will be up to the standard of Jacksonville spreads, which means that there will be nothing wanting to please the inner man.

When you want a pleasant purgative try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no nausea, griping or other disagreeable effect. For sale by City Drug Store.

Fritz Ruch a farmer of Thompson creek was in Jacksonville Wednesday with a load of apples and cabbage which he disposed of in the markets of this place.

The deal was closed Thursday and $15,000 in cash was paid over to A. W. Sturgis by S. A. Vance and other California capitalists that made them the owners of the famous Sturgis placer mine on Forest creek. This mine has been worked by Mr. Sturgis for many years and has been one of the best producers in Southern Oregon and has a showing which indicates that many thousand dollars in gold will yet be taken from it. The new owners will take possession at once and Mr. Sturgis will likely move to Jacksonville.

Hon. and Mrs. Miles Cantrall were in Jacksonville Tuesday. Mr. Cantrall having assisted the previous day in taking the band of Applegate cattle to Medford, a part of which were his. Mr. Cantrall is one of the members for Jackson county of the legislature, but he will not leave for Salem until the afternoon of the 19th as he desires to attend the farmers institute to be held in Jacksonville on that day. Mr. Cantrall is one of the stockmen in Jackson county and he has consented to deliver an address at the institute on "The Future of the Cattle Industry in Rogue River Valley."

James O. Fuller, who has been home for the past two weeks, left Wednesday to again take up his work at the mine that he and C. E. Hufstader and Peter Applegate have on West Fork of Cow creek. As their claims are in the mountains the snow and inclement weather will prevent outside mining being carried on. Mr. Fuller will put in the next two months splitting out of the fine cedar that grows there boards for an additional dwelling house and for a barn. He will also get out a quantity of boards for sluice boxes and flumes. Mr. Fuller will have with him for the first month a nephew of his but after that he will be alone until spring, when Mr. Hufstader will again join him.

While looking for presents don't overlook these handsome rugs. Over 40 different designs. C. W. Conklin's.

John Haskins came in from his Squaw Lake ranch Thursday and remained overnight in Jacksonville returning Friday with a load of supplies. Mr. Haskins has a stock ranch on Squaw creek a mile and a half above Squaw Lake, where he has resided for the past six years with his wife and one child. While recently it has been seven miles to the home of the nearest family, Ed Faucett at Watkins postoffice, but now Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thompson are at Squaw Lake, but a mile and a half distant. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson moved there last week from Jacksonville and Mr. Haskins states that they got in with their effects in good shape and are well pleased with their new home. To reach his place Mr. Haskins has to travel the last four miles by trail, but he and Mr. Thompson intend to begin the work next week on extending the road up Squaw creek to their place. Mr. Haskins is engaged in cattle raising and he states that his cattle are yet on the range and are in fine condition. Feed on the range has been better this fall and winter so Mr. Haskins claims than for several years past and he thinks that if the present mild weather continues much longer the stockmen, who by reason of larger herds and a shortage of hay, were fearing a feed shortage will have no difficulty in carrying their stock through without buying additional feed.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by City Drug Store.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss. has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.
