The Leading Oregon Agricultural Paper Free.

The Oregon Agriculturist and Rural Northwest, and the Jacksonville Sentinel both for $1.50 a year, and both papers stopped at end of year if subscription not renewed.

The Sentinel is the only paper published at the county seat of Jackson county. The Oregon Agriculturist is published semimonthly at Portland and it is one of the largest, best edited and most popular agricultural papers of the Pacific Coast. It has departments devoted to each class of farm work and it is an all-around paper for the farm and the house. $1.50 gets the Jacksonville Sentinel and the Oregon Agriculturist.

LOCAL NOTES.

E. J. Davidson, a farmer and miner of Missouri Flat, was in Jacksonville over Tuesday night buying supplies and paying a visit to his brother C. T. Davidson.

There will be services Christmas day at St. Josephs church at 10:30 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. At 8 o'clock in the morning Father Murphy will celebrate mass at the Catholic church in Medford.

George Hamilton, with his own team and two teams that he has hired, will leave the last of this week for Klamath county with three loads of apples, which he will sell in that county.

L. M. Oden of Pleasant creek has been in Jacksonville several days this week a witness in the circuit court in the water right suit of Wakeman vs Carter. While here Mr. Oden was a guest at the home of his daughter Mrs. E. F. Hubert.

There is to be a turkey shooting match as Tolo on Christmas Day given by Miss Lela O'Hara and Miss Helen F. Rowe of that place. These young ladies are champion shots of that place and they challenge any person to a test of skill with the gun with them.

Miss Catherine Buckley is home from Sacramento to spend the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Buckley, of Applegate. Miss Buckley is a trained nurse, being a graduate of a leading hospital of San Francisco. At present she is in the city Hospital at Sacramento.

Dr. George Kahler, arrived in Jacksonville Sunday from Tacoma and he will remain here for a month or more to be with his brother Wesley Kahler, who has been ill for some months and confined to his home. Mr. Kahler is not dangerously sick now but is able to be about his room.

Matt Calhoun, the rustling real estate agent of Phoenix was in Jacksonville Monday looking up some real estate matters in which he is interested. Mr. Calhoun states that he is receiving many more inquiries for land this winter than he did last winter and he is sure that with the opening of spring that there will be a larger immigration to Rogue River Valley.

To get perfect rest use one of those silk floss or cotton felt mattresses. They are the best. C. W. Conklin.

The Jackson County Lumber Company will start up their mill next week with the expectation of running it the greater part of the winter. Only a small crew will be employed this winter but with opening of spring a large force will be used and the mill pushed to its full capacity of 25,000 feet per day during the summer. During the shut down for the past month the mill has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired and put in first-class running order.

Owing to a number of the pupils at St. Marys Academy desiring to go home for Christmas the tree and exercises will take place at the Academy hall on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp. The Sisters and their pupils have been hard at work preparing a splendid program for the occasion. One of the principal features will be an operetta that will be very pleasing. The public generally is invited to attend the exercises and the assurance is certain that a pleasant and instructive evening will be spent by both young and old.

Henry M. Miller and Carty T. Davidson have bought the confectionery and notion store of Chris Ulrich & Co. and Wednesday they took stock and Thursday the Model confectionery was opened to the trade under the new management. Messrs. Miller and Davidson are both live, hustling fellows and as they are well known over the county they will be certain of making a success of their venture. They will add several lines to the already large and well selected stock and to make room for it they will discontinue the billiard room in the rear. Mr. Ulrich has not decided as to his plans for the future, but he may seek a new location in some other town in case he sells his grist mill and warehouse.

Revolution Imminent.

LEGAL NOTICES.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878 - NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office.

Roseburg, Ore., Nov. 12th., 1903.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of Aug. 4, 1892, JOSIAH F. CRUMP, of Buncom, county of Jackson, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 5843, for the purchase of the n 1/2 of se 1/4, sw 1/4 of se 1/4 and se 1/4 of sw 1/4 of Section No. 32 in Township No. 39, s, Range No. 2 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Silas J. Day, U. S. Commissioner at Jacksonville, Oregon, on Thursday, the 4th day of February, 1904.

He names as witnesses: Andrew Cantrall of Buncom, Jackson Co., Oregon; Arthur Klinehammer of Buncom, Jackson Co., Oregon; John F. Miller of Jacksonville, Jackson Co., Oregon; and Jeremiah Nunan of Jacksonville, Jackson Co., Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 4th. day of February, 1904. 11-20, 1-20 J. T. BRIDGES, Register.
