The Native Daughters will hold their installation of officers on the first Wednesday in January. On account of the numerous other events in which the ladies of this lodge are taking part, they will have no special exercises or banquet for that evening.

Benjamin F. Edmondson and Miss Kizzie Hale were married Monday by Justice W. J. Plymale at his residence. The bride is a Siskiyou county young lady, while the groom is a former resident of Butte Creek, but he, too, has lately been residing in Siskiyou county and they will make that county their future home.

Trespass notices on cloth sent by mail to any address for $1.00 a dozen.

The Gold Hill News says that Lance Bros. have just finished a 90 foot derrick at their mine on Foothills Creek, and will use it to move stones and stumps from their ground. And also that Barrickman Bros. and Malcomb Freedon have bonded the Confidence mine on Galls creek, known as the Joe Owens mine, and will commence work at once. Two of the gentlemen are from Kansas and the other from Merlin.

In order that they might attend the farmers institute Saturday evening the young ladies of the E. B. N. L. club postponed the meeting of their club from Saturday to Monday evening, when they met at the home of Miss Kate Broad and had the jolly time that only a group of 16-year old girls can have. The officers of the club are Lelia Prim, president; Delia Reuter, vice president; Bertha Prim, secretary; Clara Elmer, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Opp returned Sunday from Portland. Mr. Opp was on only a brief business trip to the Oregon metropolis and to accompany Mrs. Opp and the two little ones home. Mrs. Opp having been there for a couple of weeks visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Opp states that business was never better in Portland and that the feeling is expressed by the business men that the coming year is to be one of great prosperity to all lines investment in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas from the Grove district on the Medford road were in Jacksonville Monday buying an outfit of furniture for a house that they have recently had built on land that they own east of the Grove school house. They expect to move to their new home some time next month. This past year they have been living with Mr. Thomas' father, J. W. Thomas and assisting him in caring for his farm, but Mr. Thomas Sr. has leased his place and will retire from active farm work.

M. Bellinger, the rustling Medford real estate dealer, reports that he has sold for Henry and Amanda Moyer a two acre tract of land that they have in East Medford to John Norton, of Phoenix, for $1,200. He also sold for Wm. Dickison, of Table Rock precinct, his fine farm of 160 acres to E. McDonald, of Medford, consideration $13,000. Mr. McDonald will take possession at once. And he sold for W. P. Rhodes, of Merrill, Oregon, his residence property in South Medford to Mrs. R. M. Whiteside, of Medford, consideration $600.

L. A. Rose, who has a fine farm near Phoenix and who is road supervisor for that district, was in Jacksonville Saturday for the farmers institute and so well pleased was he with the day sessions that he remained over until Sunday that he might attend the evening meeting. Mr. Rose has the reputation, and fully earned too, of being one of the best road supervisors in Jackson county and he is interested in the good roads topics that were discussed at the institute. While in Jacksonville Mr. Rose was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Newbury, Mrs. Newbury being his daughter.

Hon. John D. Olwell has been appointed by Governor Chamberlain to again serve as one of the regents of the Oregon State Agricultural College. During his past term as a member of the board of regents Mr. Olwell has proved himself to be a strong friend of the College and his discriminating business judgment and thorough experience on all matters pertaining to the agricultural interests of Oregon has been of great value to the board and a factor of no small importance to the splendid success that has been brought to the agricultural college in the last few years.

The Pacific Homestead published at Salem was represented at the farmers institute by E. A. Rhoten, one of Marion county's bright young farmers. Mr. Rhoten proved himself to be a wide awake newspaper man and well represented his paper and the Homestead will contain a well written account of the institute proceedings in full. The Pacific Homestead is one of the best agricultural papers in the United States and as it is an Oregon publication its articles are prepared with a view of meeting Oregon farm conditions thus making it of special value to all classes of agricultural interests in this state, and it covers every phase of farm work. The subscription is but $1.00 a year.

Columbia river salt salmon bellies, mackerel, Holland herring in Kits and Kegs. Nunan-Taylor Co.

Ralph Billings, son of G. F. Billings, the well known real estate dealer, president of the Southern Oregon Chautauqua and the man who has done more to build up Ashland than any other one person in that town, came to Jacksonville Saturday morning and stayed over until Sunday while attending the farmers institute. Mr. Billings and his father own a fine farm near Ashland and as it is under his supervision he proposes to handle it to get the best returns possible and being a bright, studious young man he is after all the up-to-date ideas that are to be had that are of profit to the farmer. He was greatly pleased with the institute and pronounced it a fine success and that the addresses and discussions were of the greatest value to him. Mr. Billings is one of the farmers of Jackson county who can be counted on to give future institutes that may be held in this county the most hearty support.
