

Big Sticky Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Turpin spent Christmas with Mrs. Turpin's cousin Mrs. Chas. Heimroth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Morris made Medford merchants a call on Saturday, returning Sunday.

J. W. Smith, our efficient road supervisor, has been doing some needed work on the Rogue River bridge.

Some of our young people attended Christmas tree at Eagle Point and report having had a very good time.

We have been having considerable foggy, disagreeable weather, lately, but never the less, most of our farmers have been able to do quite a lot of farming.

Arthur Smith and Frank Roberts went to Medford Monday, the former to spend a few days with his brother Rollin and family; the latter returning the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Gall, of Sam's Valley, spent Christmas with home folks on Stickey, returning home on Sunday. They report the roads over their way as very bad.

Charles Turpin is setting out apple trees for Mrs. E. J. Roberts who intends putting out quite an orchard on her Sticky ranch. It has been fully demonstrated that Big Sticky has no superior when it comes to apple raising, and if any one doubts it they should take a ride out in our vicinity, where they will see beautiful thrifty orchards on every side.

We very much regret the inclemency of the weather, which would not permit us to attend the Farmer's Institute, but greatly enjoyed reading an account of the meeting so ably written up in the Sentinel, especially the interesting talk by Mrs. J. C. Pendleton. We are most assiduously in favor of good roads, and hope to have them ere long. Part of the Sticky lane has been made good by crushed rock, and when the rest that has been crushed has been put on the lane, we will have a good winter road to Medford and the surrounding country.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulation to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an over dose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by City Drug Store.

LOCAL NOTES.

County Clerk John S. Orth and Mrs. Orth spent Christmas in Eugene at the home of Mrs. Orth's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Henry E. Ankeny. They went up Thursday evening and returned Sunday evening.

George McCune head clerk in James Cronemiller's store is displaying considerable talent as a window dresser and though the windows are the small old fashioned kind he gets up very creditable displays.

The Redmen are preparing for a high-jinks on Saturday evening of next week when they will gather up about fifteen palefaces out of the woods and put them through the rigors of the gauntlet that only the brave will be able to share their wigwams and their venison. A new set of chiefs will also be placed in charge of the council house.

The pupils of Mrs. Susie Neil gave their regular monthly recital on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Neil. The young people showed that they were making marked progress in their musical studies and developing a talent that would be both an advantage and a pleasure in the after years of their life.

Rolland Hines rode out to Applegate Saturday by Wendt's stage and remained over until Monday with his brother, Wm. Johnson, when he returned home by the stage. He had a jolly time at the farm, but he had to cut short his pleasures as he is the chief man of the house, for his mother, Mrs. Pauline Hines, for a sturdy boy is a household necessity when it comes to carrying in wood and making himself useful generally.

Adam Schmidt and Emil De Robaum with the first big rain so that there will be plenty of water in the gulches will turn miners and go to gathering up the golden treasure. Two years ago they leased placer ground on the Orth estate located at the head of Carey gulch, mile and a half south of Jacksonville and put in a ditch to impound the water of the gulch and installed a No. 1 giant. Owing to getting a late start in the season they got in only nine days run, making a very good clean-up. Last winter they had but 31 days of water and got a goodly sack of gold. They, like many other miners, were not prepared when the rains which were unusually early came this fall, but now they are in readiness and with the rain they will begin piping and having things in better shape than ever they expect to have a profitable run.

The Millionaire mine in the Blackwell district is now giving promise of being an ore producer that will bring wealth to its owners Davidson, Ward & Co. of Portland. J. E. Davidson superintendent of the mine was in Jacksonville Sunday and had with him a lot of rock that was fully half gold that had been taken from a new find made this past week in the second shaft that they are now sinking. This shaft is now down 70 feet and the ore body opened up is of good width and extra rich. On an adjoining ledge Mr. Davidson has sunk a shaft to 90 feet and in it too a fine body of ore was found, so that there is now little doubt but what the mine has the ore to make it profitable to work it. Davidson, Ward & Co. own 600 acres on which the Millionaire mine is located and it is all mineral land and been dug over by pocket hunters, and then kept by them as containing nothing more worth digging for. The Millionaire mine was discovered where a pocket hole had been sunk, and it is probable that other good veins will be opened up when deep prospecting is undertaken.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, LL.D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that can equal it and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by City Drug Store.

We experience great pleasure in extending to our patrons and friends in Jacksonville and vicinity a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
