The bright sun shiney weather of the past few days has been very beneficial to a good many of our residents who have been afflicted with bad colds.

Arthur Morrison brought his little four year old daughter to town last week to be treated for a swelling of the glands of the neck. Dr. Officer lanced it and at last accounts she was doing fine.

The mask ball given New Year's night at Heckathorn's hall was a grand success in every particular about seventy tickets being sold. The masquers old and young seemed to have an enjoyable time trying to penetrate the disguises of the merry masquers, ghosts, negroes, sailors, soldiers, queens, school girls, and pickininnies all mingling together but I am unable to give you a list. Our hall is rather small for such a crowd to dance in comfort but there is talk of building a new one in the near future. The supper given by Mrs. A. C. Howlett was one of the best and the dance is always a success when it is known that Mrs. Howlett is to give the supper as they all know they will get plenty to eat no matter how big the crowd.
