The Exemption Law.

House bill No. 23, passed at the special session and which re-enacts the exemption of $300 personal property from taxation, but which will not be in effect until 1905, on account of failure to attach the emergency clause is as follows:

Section 1.—That section 3039 of Bellinger and Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon, as amended by an act entitled: "An Act to amend section 3039 of Bellinger and Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon," approved February 24, 1903, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows.

Sec. 3039.—The following property shall be exempt from taxation:

1.—All property real and personal of the state and of the United States and this state.

2.—All property or corporate property of the several counties, cities, villages, towns and school districts in this state used or intended for corporate purposes.

3.—The personal property of all literary, benevolent, charitable and scientific institutions incorporated within this state, and such real estate belonging to such institutions as shall be actually occupied for the purpose for which they were incorporated.

4.—All houses of public worship and the lots on which they are situated, and the pews or slips and furniture therein, and all burial grounds, tombs and rights of burial; but any part of any building, being a house of public worship, which shall be kept or used as a store or shop or for any other purpose, except for public worship or for schools, shall be taxed upon the cash valuation thereof, the same as personal property to the owner or occupant, or to either, and the taxes shall be collected thereon in the same manner as taxes on personal property.

5.—All public libraries, and the personal property belonging thereto and connecting therewith, and the real property belonging to and upon which the library is situated.

6.—The property of all Indians residing upon Indian reservations who have not severed their tribal relations or taken land in severalty, except lands held by them by purchase or inheritance, and situate on any Indian reservation. Provided, however, that the lands owned or held by Indians in severalty upon any Indian reservation and the personal property of such Indians upon such reservation, shall be exempt from taxation when so provided by any law of the United States and not otherwise.

7.—The personal property of all persons who by reason of infirmity, age or poverty, may in the opinion of the assessor be unable to contribute toward the public charges.

8.—The following property, if owned by a householder, and in actual use, or kept for use, by and for his or her family: Household goods, furniture and utensils, two cows, ten sheep, five swine, and the tools, implements, apparatus, team, vehicle, harness or library necessary to enable any person to carry on his trade, occupation or profession by which such person earns his or her living to the amount of three hundred ($300) dollars, the articles to be selected by such householder; provided, however, that when the assessed valuation of the personal property above enumerated shall amount to less than three hundred ($300) dollars, then only such amount as the total of such property herein enumerated shall be exempt from taxation.

C. E. District Rally.

A rally of the Christian Endeavor societies of the Southern District will take place at Medford, Friday evening January 15th. The counties included in this district are those of Josephine, Jackson, Klamath and Lake, and it is hoped that every society in the district, so far as possible, may be represented at this rally. The committee in charge is arranging an interesting program. Prof. E. E. Washburn, of Jacksonville, Mrs. Ella Rice, vice president of the State Union, and other prominent C. E. workers, besides Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass pastors will participate in the rally. The musical features will be most attractive, and the public generally is very cordially invited to be present.

PRESS COMMITTEE.

Saved from Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful Physicians and every remedy used failed while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottles free at City Drug Store.
