

JACKSONVILLE SENTINEL

Vol. I

Jacksonville, Jackson County, Oregon. Friday, January 22, 1904.

No. 37

LOCAL NOTES.

J. E. Enyart, cashier of the Medford bank was in Jacksonville Thursday on business at the court house.

Mrs. P. P. Prim returned Saturday from Ashland where she had been for the past three weeks on a visit to her sister, Mrs. L. E. Pengra.

If you have any Timber land you want to sell—See T. C. Norris.

Another one of those enjoyable social dances for which Jacksonville is noted was held last Friday evening in Orth's hall. It was well attended, the music good and the young people in their happiest mood, making it a delightful social event.

T. C. Norris, the rustling real estate man of Jacksonville, and B. H. Harris, a capitalist of Medford, will go to Portland, Monday on a business matter that may lead to a venture of much importance in the industrial development of Jackson county.

Miss Mary Childers of Medford has been employed to take one of the departments in the four room school building lately completed by Glendale. Miss Childers is a successful teacher and will be quite certain to give satisfaction in her new position.

Slabwood in stove lengths $1.00 per load at saw mill—Iowa Lumber Co.

Mrs. Wm. M. Colvig, grand chief of honor of the Degree of Honor, of Oregon went to Ashland Friday where that evening she conducted the installation of officers for that place, and Saturday evening she installed the officers for the Degree of Honor lodge at Phoenix.

Mrs. H. C. Shearer, who underwent a difficult surgical operation last Saturday is rallying in a most gratifying manner and there is every certainty now that she will soon be fully restored to good health. Drs. Gale, Robinson and Cameron performed the operation and the patient is under the care of Miss May Huffer, the well known trained nurse.

If you want to rent a farm or have land to rent see T. C. Norris, Jacksonville.

Thomas G. Devens died on Sunday last in Roseburg at the home of Mrs. H. N. Murphy, where he had been residing for the past year. Mr. Devens, was 77 years old, a native of Buffalo, New York, and an Oregon pioneer of 1852. He came to Jacksonville in the 60's and resided here until about 20 years ago when he moved to Camas Valley in Douglas county. He was a relative by marriage of George Brown, the Eagle Point merchant.

County Clerk John S. Orth is putting in long hours these days so as to hurry the completion of the duplicate assessment roll for use in the sheriff's office during the collection of taxes. The law provides that the roll shall be in the hands of the sheriff by the 1st of March when that official shall begin receiving taxes. County Clerk Orth expects to have the roll completed by the middle of February to turn over to Sheriff Rader, who will begin to receive taxes.

Trespass notices on cloth sent by mail to any address for $1.00 a dozen.

Al. Learned's delivery wagon for his store having become some what the worse for wear he will soon replace it with a new one, which is now being built at Chas Basye's blacksmith and wagon shop. It will be a light and handsome vehicle but it will be exceptionally strong as the wood work is of selected timber and the metal work is all of steel and more braces are put in than is usually in a light rig. The work being done, both wood and steel is a credit to Basye's shop and Mr. Learned will have a delivering wagon that will stand usage for many years.

The semi-annual examinations are being held this week at St. Marys Academy for promotions of students to higher grades. Since the holidays three new students have been admitted to the Academy and several more students are expected in the near future. The attendance for this winter shows a satisfactory increase over that of last year and there is every prospect that the Academy is to have steady growth from this on. The students recently admitted to the Academy were Miss Dewy and Miss Jessie Boyd, of Glendale and Miss Daisy Hendricks, of Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Miller, who came out last fall from Michigan on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harris and who were so well pleased with Rogue River Valley that they decided to extend their stay while further investigating the opportunities for investments that are to be had here, left Tuesday for their home at Grand Rapids. They go by way of California, where they will remain for a time. Mr. Miller is an extensive property owner in Michigan and there is a probability that he will change his investments to Jackson county before the close of this year. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are educated, refined people and they made many friends during their stay in Jacksonville who will be glad to have them return to this town.

Judge Day has received a number of blank petitions from E. O. Miller of Portland, secretary of the Oregon State Temperance Alliance, which the Judge is requested to send out and have signed and then filed with the Secretary of State. These petitions are to the advantage of the new initiative and referendum laws and are to secure the placing of an act on the ticket to be voted for at the June election to provide for a local option law on the liquor question for counties, precincts and towns. Thus leaving it all to the voter as to whether saloons shall be permitted in a town, precinct or county or not. By the provisions of the referendum law only persons who voted at the last general election are eligible to sign the petitions, and it will require 8,000 signers to have the required percent of voters to make the petition mandatory upon the Secretary of State to act upon the official ballots.

Canned fruits at cost at the Boss.

The county court has granted permission for the placing of three telephones in the court house. The sheriff's, clerks and recorder's offices are each to have a telephone. The expense is to be shared by the officials of the county. Sheriff Rader, Clerk Orth and Recorder Applegate will pay two-thirds of the telephone tolls and the county one-third. All of the county officials will be permitted the use of the county telephone. This is a necessity long needed in the court house and one that will be greatly appreciated by all who have business with the county officials, for persons at a distance calling up an official had, in addition to the telephone charges, to pay a messenger fee also for having the officer wanted notified to come to central. Having to walk three blocks to central to answer telephone calls, which are frequent, is a great loss of time to the county officials and they will be greatly relieved when telephones are installed in the court house.

Eagle Point Items.

Carl Ringer started for the mountains Thursday morning.

Supt P. H. Daily was here visiting our school the first of the week.

Every thing looks wintry in this section with its coating of snow.

Dr. W. B. Officer made a business trip to Medford the first of the week.

J. W. Slinger drove some fine beef through town the other day for the Gold Hill market.

We understand that about ten inches of snow fell in the vicinity of Obenchain the first of the week and it is making some of our cattle men strike out for that district in quest of what stock they have out.

Mrs. S. B. Holmes gave a fine turkey dinner last Sunday to relatives and friends, the following persons being present: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. W. B. Officer, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brown, Miss Clara Richardson Miss Lottie Taylor, Miss Tillie Black, Mr. W. H. Brown, and Mr. M. Brown.

The nine year old son of a Mr. Gray who lives on Yankee creek, wandered away from home one day last week and the parents becoming alarmed got the neighbors together and hunted all afternoon and night and up to noon the next day when he was found near Medford not much the worse for his tramp of about twelve miles and his nights exposure.

Mrs. J. F. Brown gave a card party Tuesday night to quite a number of her friends. The prize was won by Miss Lottie Taylor and Mr. Merritt Brown and the booby prize by Miss Clara Richardson and Mr. Will Brown. After the game refreshments were served and everybody went home about midnight well pleased with the evenings entertainment. The following persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hasdton, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moomaw, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Daley, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Holmes, Mrs. W. B. Officer, Miss Clara Richardson, Miss Lottie Taylor, Miss Tillie Black, Messrs Geo. Brown, John Inlow, Merritt Brown, Will Brown, Carl Ringer and R. G. Brown.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulation to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an over dose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by City Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Beeson returned Saturday from Woodville, California, where they have spent the past two months for the benefit of Mrs. Beeson's health which is now much improved.

To get perfect rest use one of those silk floss or cotton felt mattresses. They are the best. C. W. Conklin.
